Similarly, statements that describe our strategies, objectives, plans or goals are also forward-looking statements. All forward-looking statements are subject to risks, uncertainties, expectations and assumptions about us that could cause actual results to differ materially from those contemplated by the relevant forward-looking statement.

Actual results may differ materially from those suggested by forward-looking statements due to risks or uncertainties associated with expectations relating to and including, regulatory changes pertaining to the industries in India in which we operate and our ability to respond to them, our ability to successfully implement our strategy, our growth and expansion, technological changes, our exposure to market risks, general economic and political conditions in India which have an impact on its business activities or investments, the monetary and fiscal policies of India, inflation, deflation, unanticipated turbulence in interest rates, foreign exchange rates, equity prices or other rates or prices, the performance of the financial markets in India and globally, changes in domestic laws, regulations and taxes and changes in competition in the industries in which we operate.

Certain important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from our expectations include, but are not limited to, the following:

- competition in the Indian housing finance industry.

For details regarding factors that could cause actual results to differ from expectations, see “Risk Factors”, “Our Business” and “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations” beginning on pages 22, 132 and 275, respectively. By their nature, certain market risk disclosures are only estimates and could be materially different from what actually occurs in the future. As a result, actual gains or losses could materially differ from those that have been estimated.

There can be no assurance to Bidders that the expectations reflected in these forward-looking statements will prove to be correct. Given these uncertainties, Bidders are cautioned not to place undue reliance on such forward-looking statements and not to regard such statements to be a guarantee of our future performance.

Forward-looking statements reflect current views as of the date of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus and are not a guarantee of future performance. These statements are based on our management’s beliefs and assumptions, which in turn are based on currently available information. Although we believe the assumptions upon which these forward-looking statements are based are reasonable, any of these assumptions could prove to be inaccurate, and the forward-looking statements based on these assumptions could be incorrect. Neither our Company, our Directors, the Selling Shareholders, the Syndicate nor any of their respective affiliates have any obligation to update or otherwise revise any statements reflecting circumstances arising after the date hereof or to reflect the occurrence of underlying events, even if the underlying assumptions do not come to fruition. In accordance with the SEBI ICDR Regulations, our Company and the Book Running Lead Managers will ensure that the Bidders in India are informed of material developments until the time of the grant of listing and trading permission by the Stock Exchanges for the Offer.

In accordance with requirements of SEBI and as prescribed under applicable law, each of the Selling Shareholders shall ensure that the Bidders in India are informed of material developments, in relation to statements and undertakings specifically undertaken or confirmed by it in relation to itself and its respective portion of the Offered Shares in the Red Herring Prospectus until the time of the grant of listing and trading permission by the Stock Exchanges. Internal Risk Factors

Risks Relating to our Business

1. Any disruption in our sources of funding could have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

The liquidity and profitability of our business depend, in large part, on our timely access to, and the costs associated with, raising funds. Our funding requirements historically have been met from various sources, including term loans and working capital facilities; proceeds from direct assignment of loans; and refinancing from the NHB to meet our capital requirements. Our business thus depends and will continue to depend on our ability to access a variety of sources of capital.

Our ability to raise funds on acceptable terms, at competitive rates and in a timely manner, depends on various factors including our current and future results of operations and financial condition, our risk management policies, our credit ratings, our brand equity, the regulatory environment and policy initiatives in India and developments in the international markets affecting the Indian economy. We cannot assure you that our business will continue to generate sufficient cash to enable us to service our existing debt or to fund our other liquidity needs. Recently, certain NBFCs and HFCs in India have defaulted in the repayment of their borrowings, which has adversely affected the availability of funds to NBFCs and HFCs in general. Any such events in the future may lead to adverse perceptions about the housing finance sector as a whole and affect our ability to obtain financing at commercially reasonable terms.

Further, changes in economic, regulatory and financial conditions or any lack of liquidity in the market could adversely affect our ability to access funds at competitive rates, which could adversely affect our liquidity and financial condition. Our ability to raise debt to meet our funding requirements is also restricted by the limits prescribed under applicable regulations. For example, the NHB Directions currently permits HFCs to borrow up to 14 times their net owned funds (“NOF”) until March 31, 2020 and after which this limit shall be further reduced to 13 times of their NOF until March 31, 2021 and subsequently to 12 times of their NOF until March 31, 2022. As of September 30, 2019, we had Total Borrowings of ₹ 22,956.31 million, which was 2.6 times our NOF of ₹ 8,893.03 million. As of March 31, 2019, March 31, 2018 and March 31, 2017, our Total Borrowings /NOF were 3.7, 3.1 and 2.2, respectively. Since our Company’s incorporation, the highest value of our Total Borrowings /NOF at any period end was 3.7 as of March 31, 2019. Consequently, if we are unable to obtain adequate financing in a timely manner and on commercially reasonable terms, our business, results of operations and financial condition may be adversely affected.

2. The risk of non-payment or default by borrowers may adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

We primarily serve salaried customers in the low and middle-income groups. As of September 30, 2019, 72.6% of our Gross Loan Assets were from salaried customers, while 24.6% was from self-employed customers. Our customers may default in their repayment obligations due to various reasons including loss of employment, insolvency, lack of liquidity or personal emergencies such as the death of an income generating family member. Some of our customers may not have credit histories supported by tax returns and other documents that would enable us to accurately assess their creditworthiness. We may not receive updated information regarding any change in the financial condition of our customers or may receive inaccurate or incomplete information as a result of any misrepresentation by our customers or employees. It may therefore be difficult for us to carry out precise credit risk analysis on all of our customers. Although we follow certain procedures to evaluate the credit profiles of our customers at the time of sanctioning a loan, we also rely on the value of the property provided as underlying collateral.

Further, the self-employed customers to whom we lend are often considered to be higher credit risk customers due to their increased exposure to fluctuations in cash flows and to adverse economic conditions. To the extent we are unable to successfully manage the risks associated with lending to self-employed customers, it may become difficult for us to recover outstanding amounts of such loans. We cannot assure you that our risk management controls will be sufficient to prevent future losses on account of customer defaults, which may adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Our ability to manage the credit quality of our loans, which we measure in part through non-performing assets (“NPAs”), is a key driver of our results of operations. Our total loan portfolio has grown rapidly in the last few years, and we anticipate that the size of our loan portfolio will continue to grow in the future as we pursue our expansion strategy. We classify NPAs in accordance with the NHB Directions and applicable Ind AS rules. Defaults by our customers for a period of more than 90 days result in such loans being classified as ‘non-performing’. As of September 30, 2019 and 2018 and March 31, 2019, 2018 and 2017, our Stage 3 Loan Assets were ₹ 268.36 million, ₹ 129.62 million, ₹ 170.45 million, ₹ 80.68 million and ₹ 57.24 million, respectively, while our Stage 3 Loan Assets to Gross Loan Assets was 0.9%, 0.7%, 0.7%, 0.6% and 0.7%, respectively. As of September 30, 2019 and 2018 and March 31, 2019, 2018 and 2017, our Stage 3 Loan Assets (Net) were ₹ 211.79 million, ₹ 103.81 million, ₹ 128.05 million, ₹ 64.18 million and ₹ 47.71 million, respectively, while our Stage 3 Loan Assets (Net) to Net Loan Assets was 0.7%, 0.5%, 0.5%, 0.5% and 0.6%, respectively. In addition, on account of our recent growth, a significant portion of our loan portfolio is relatively new and was disbursed during the last 36 months. We believe that the risk of delinquency in housing loans typically emerges 18 to 36 months from disbursement. We cannot assure you that we will be able to maintain or reduce our current levels of NPAs in the future. As the number of our loans that become NPAs increase, the credit quality of our loan portfolio decreases.

Further, as our loan portfolio grows, our NPAs may increase and the current level of our provisions may not adequately cover any such increases. Negative trends or financial difficulties or general economic slowdown could unexpectedly increase delinquency rates. We cannot assure you that there will not be a significant increase in the portion of our loans that are classified as NPAs as our loan portfolio matures.

3. We are affected by volatility in interest rates for both our lending and treasury operations, which could cause our net interest income to vary and consequently affect our profitability.

Our results of operations depend substantially on the level of our net interest income, which is the difference between our interest income (mainly comprising interest income on loan portfolio, assigned portfolio, and interest income on investments and on deposits with banks) and our finance cost. Any change in interest rates would affect our net interest income and spreads. Any increase in our cost of funds may lead to a reduction in our spreads, or require us to increase interest rates on loans disbursed to customers in the future to maintain our spreads. For the six months ended September 30, 2019 and 2018 and the financial years 2019, 2018 and 2017, our Spread (Average yield on Loans - Principal outstanding Less Average Cost of Borrowings (excluding assignments)) was 2.2%, 2.1%, 4.7%, 4.4%, 3.3%, respectively.

Interest rates are highly sensitive to many factors beyond our control, including the monetary policies of the RBI, deregulation of the financial sector in India, domestic and international economic and political conditions and other factors, which have historically resulted in changes in interest rates in India. Moreover, if there is an increase in the interest rates we pay on our borrowings that we are unable to pass to our customers, we may find it difficult to compete with our competitors, who may have access to low-cost funds or lower cost deposits. Further, to the extent our borrowings are linked to market interest rates, we may have to pay interest at a higher rate than lenders that borrow only at fixed interest rates. An increase in general interest rates in the economy could also reduce the overall demand for housing finance and impact our growth. In a declining interest rate environment, if our cost of funds does not decline simultaneously or to the same extent as the yield on our interest-earning assets, it could lead to a reduction in our net interest income and net interest margin. Some of our customers may prepay their loans to take advantage of a declining interest rate environment. Similarly, an increase in interest rates could result in our customers, particularly those with variable interest rate loans, prepaying their loans if less expensive loans are available from other sources.

Fluctuations in interest rates may also adversely affect our treasury operations. In a rising interest rate environment, especially if the rise is sudden or sharp, we could be adversely affected by the decline in the market value of our investments. In addition, while we take steps to minimize the risk of interest rate volatility, we currently do not enter into any specific interest rate hedging instruments to protect against interest rate volatility. Our inability to effectively and efficiently manage interest rate variations and our failure to pass on increased interest rates on our borrowings may cause our net interest income to decline, which would decrease our return on assets and could adversely affect our business, result of operations and financial condition.

4. Any downgrade in our credit ratings could increase our borrowing costs, affect our ability to obtain financing, and adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

The cost and availability of capital depends in part on our short-term and long-term credit ratings. Credit ratings reflect the opinions of ratings agencies on our financial strength, operating performance, strategic position and ability to meet our obligations. For details of our current credit ratings, see “Our Business – Credit Ratings” on page 146. Any downgrade in our credit ratings could increase borrowing costs and adversely affect our access to capital and debt markets, which could in turn adversely affect our interest margins, our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows. In addition, any downgrade in our credit ratings below A- at any time during the currency of certain loans availed by us, may also trigger an event of default in such current loans borrowings. Further, any downgrade in our credit ratings could increase the probability that our lenders impose additional terms and conditions to any financing or refinancing arrangements we enter into in the future and adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

5. We rely significantly on our information technology systems for our business and operations and any failure, inadequacy or security breach in such systems could adversely affect our business, results of operations and reputation.

We are a technology driven company and our business is dependent upon complex and interdependent information technology systems. We use our technology platforms to assist with functions such as lead generation and management, underwriting and risk management, collections and to perform data analytics. We have developed and use proprietary tools, cloud services, data lake and mobility applications. We have an integrated customer relationship management and loan management system. Our operations depend on our ability to process a high volume of transactions across our network of branches, which are connected through computer systems and servers to our corporate office. As part of our growth strategy, we intend to further develop and invest in our information technology systems and create an end-to-end digital process.

The size and complexity of our computer systems may make them potentially vulnerable to breakdown, system integration problems, malicious intrusion and computer viruses. Our financial, accounting, analytics or other data processing systems may fail to operate adequately, or at all, as a result of events that are beyond our control, including a disruption of electrical or communications services in markets in which we primarily operate. Our ability to operate and remain competitive will depend in part on our ability to maintain and upgrade our information technology systems on a timely and cost-effective basis. Although we have not experienced any significant disruptions to our information technology systems in the past, we cannot assure you that we will not encounter disruptions in the future.

In addition, our systems are potentially vulnerable to data security breaches, whether by employees, who may have a lack of experience with our newer information technology systems, or others, that may expose sensitive data to unauthorized persons. Data security breaches could lead to the loss of trade secrets or other intellectual property, or could lead to the public exposure of personal information (including sensitive financial and personal information) of our customers and employees. Any such security breaches or compromises of technology systems could result in institution of legal proceedings against us and potential imposition of penalties, which may have an adverse effect on our business and reputation.

6. We may face asset-liability mismatches, which could affect our liquidity and consequently may adversely affect our operations and profitability.

We face potential liquidity risks because our assets and liabilities mature over different periods. Assets and liability mismatch, which represents a situation when the financial terms of an institution’s assets and liabilities do not match, is a key financial parameter for us. We carefully monitor the contractual maturity periods of our assets and liabilities and categorize them on the basis of the number of years in which they mature. Although we had a positive asset-liability maturity profile as of September 30, 2019, we cannot assure you that we will be able to continue to maintain a favourable asset-liability position in the future. We meet a significant portion of our financing requirements through borrowings from banks, refinancing from the NHB and through proceeds from direct assignment of loans. A significant portion of our assets, such as housing loans to our customers, have maturities with longer terms than our borrowings. Any mismatch in the maturity profile of our assets and liabilities may lead to a liquidity risk and have an adverse effect on our business and results of operations.

7. Our operations are concentrated in the states of Gujarat and Maharashtra and any adverse developments in these regions could have an adverse effect on our business and results of operations.

Our operations are concentrated in the states of Gujarat and Maharashtra and as of September 30, 2019 and March 31, 2019, 2018 and 2017, 40.5%, 40.8%, 38.0% and 33.0% of our Gross Loan Assets was from Gujarat, while 24.6%, 28.4%, 35.6% and 36.6% was from Maharashtra, respectively. As of September 30, 2019, of our 65 branches, 32 branches were located in the states of Gujarat and Maharashtra. For a comparison with our presence in other states, see “Our Business – Branch Network” on page 139. The real estate and housing finance markets in these states may perform differently from, and may be subject to market conditions that are different from, the housing finance markets in other regions of India. Consequently, any significant social, political or economic disruption, or natural calamities or civil disruptions in these regions, or changes in the policies of the state or local governments of these regions or the Government of India, could disrupt our business operations, require us to incur significant expenditure and change our business strategies. The occurrence of, or our inability to effectively respond to any such event, could have an adverse effect on our business and results of operations.

8. Our inability to recover the full value of collateral, or amounts outstanding under defaulted loans in a timely manner, or at all, could adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

We offer housing loans and other loans to customers, where the primary collateral is real estate. The value of the collateral, however, may decline during the term of the loan for a variety of reasons, including due to adverse market conditions prevalent in the real estate sector. As a result, if our customers default, we may receive less money from liquidating collateral than is owed under the relevant financing facility, and, in turn, incur losses, even where we successfully repossess and liquidate the collateral.

Following the introduction of the SARFAESI Act in 2002 and the extension of its application to HFCs, we may now foreclose on collateral after 60 days’ notice to a borrower whose loan has been classified as non-performing. However, the actual time taken for full foreclosure generally ranges between 90 to 180 days. Further, in a case before the Supreme Court of India in 2004, while the constitutional validity of the SARFAESI Act was affirmed, the right of a defaulting borrower to appeal to the Debt Recovery Tribunal (“DRT”) was also affirmed. The DRT has the power to issue a stay order prohibiting the lender from selling the assets of a defaulted borrower. As a result, we cannot assure you that any foreclosure proceedings would not be stayed by the DRT. In addition, we may be unable to realize the full value of our collateral, as a result of factors including delays in foreclosure proceedings. Further, in case insolvency proceedings are initiated under the IBC against a debtor to our Company, we may not have complete control over the recovery of amounts due to us. Additionally, in cases where proceedings under the IBC are initiated against the builders or developers of a project where the allottees of the apartments are our borrowers and if the builder or developer fails to deliver the project, there may be a delay in recovery of amounts from such borrowers. For details, see “- The bankruptcy code in India may affect our rights to recover loans from our customers.” on page 35. Any failure to recover the expected value of collateral security could expose us to a potential loss.

We may also encounter difficulties in repossessing and liquidating collateral. When a customer defaults under a financing facility, we typically repossess and then sell the collateral through an auction. However, we cannot assure you that we will be able to successfully repossess the collateral in the event of default under a loan agreement. We may also face challenges in title verification of the collateral provided by the customer, as there is no central land registry in India and title to the property can be disputed, including on account of local land records not being duly updated, or not being maintained in a legible manner, or only being available in the local vernacular languages, as well as on account of actual or alleged short payment of stamp duty or registration fees (which may render the title documents inadmissible in evidence, unless stamped prior to enforcement with payment of requisite penalties). Moreover, we may also not be able to sell the collateral at a price sufficient to cover the amount owed under the financing facility, or at all. We may face additional delay and expense in conducting an auction to sell the collateral and may face significant delay in repossessing collateral, as litigation against defaulting customers, even if governed by an arbitration clause, can be slow and expensive in India. In the event of any inability or delay in the repossession and liquidation of the collateral securing loans in default, we may incur losses, which could adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

9. We have experienced significant growth in recent years and we may not be able to sustain our growth or manage it effectively.

We have experienced considerable growth in recent years and we have significantly expanded our operations and branch network. Our total income grew from ₹ 915.78 million for the financial year 2017 to ₹ 2,709.21 million for financial year 2019 and was ₹ 1,937.73 million for the six months ended September 30, 2019, while our profit after tax grew from ₹ 66.77 million for the financial year 2017 to ₹ 452.04 million for the financial year 2019 and was ₹ 367.41 million for the six months ended September 30, 2019. Our Gross Loan Assets grew from ₹ 8,473.16 million as of March 31, 2017 to ₹ 31,133.76 million as of September 30, 2019 and the number of our branches has grown from 36 to 65 during the same period. However, we cannot assure you that our growth strategy will continue to be successful or that we will be able to continue to grow further, or at the same rate.

Our inability to manage our expansion effectively and execute our growth strategy in a timely manner, or within budget estimates could have an adverse effect on our business and results of operations. We intend to continue expansion to pursue existing and potential market opportunities and increase the number of our branches to 90 by the end of the financial year 2021. Our ability to execute our growth strategies will depend, among other things, on our ability to identify key target markets correctly, manage our pricing to compete effectively, and scale up and grow our network efficiently. We will also need to manage relationships with a greater number of customers, service providers, lenders and other parties as we expand.

In order to manage our growth effectively, we must implement, upgrade and improve our operational systems, processes, procedures and controls on a timely basis. If we fail to implement these systems, processes, procedures and controls on a timely basis, we may not be able to meet our customers' needs, hire and retain new employees or operate our business effectively. Our ability to sustain our rate of growth also depends significantly upon our ability to select and retain key managerial personnel, maintaining effective risk management policies and training managerial personnel to address emerging challenges. Further, a number of external factors beyond our control could also affect our ability to continue to grow our business and loan portfolio, such as demand for housing loans in India, domestic economic growth, the RBI's monetary and regulatory policies, NHB / RBI regulations, inflation, competition and availability of cost-effective debt and equity capital.

Further, we may also require additional regulatory approvals to expand to other lines of business, which we may not receive in a timely manner, or at all. For example, in January 2015 we had applied to the RBI for a license to operate as a small finance bank. However, our application did not qualify to receive such license.

We cannot assure you that our existing or future management, operational and financial systems, processes, procedures and controls will be adequate to support future operations, or establish or develop business relationships beneficial to future operations. Failure to manage growth effectively could have an adverse effect on our business and results of operations.

10. The Indian housing finance industry is highly competitive and our inability to compete effectively could adversely affect our business and results of operations.

The housing finance industry in India is highly competitive and we compete with banks, other HFCs, small finance banks and NBFCs in each of the geographies in which we operate. Our competitors may have more resources, a wider branch and distribution network, access to cheaper funding, superior technology and may have a better understanding of and relationships with customers in these markets. This may make it easier for competitors to expand and to achieve economies of scale to a greater extent. In addition, our competitors may be able to rely on the reach of the retail presence of their affiliated group companies or banks. Competition in this market segment has also increased as a result of interest rate deregulation and other liberalization measures affecting the housing finance industry in India and we expect competition to intensify in the future.

Our ability to compete effectively will depend, in part, on our ability to maintain or increase our margins. Our margins are affected in part by our ability to continue to secure low-cost capital, and charge optimum interest rates at which we lend to our customers. Consequently, our ability to maintain or increase our margins will be dependent on our ability to pass on increases in the interest rates on our interest-bearing liabilities to our customers. Moreover, any increases in the interest rates on the loans we extend may also result in a decrease in business. We cannot assure you that we will be able to react effectively to these or other market developments or compete effectively with new and existing players in the increasingly competitive housing finance industry. If we are unable to compete effectively, our business and results of operations may be adversely affected.

11. Our inability to meet our obligations, including financial and other covenants under our debt financing arrangements could adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

As of September 30, 2019, our Total Borrowings were ₹ 22,956.31 million. Our ability to meet our debt service obligations and repay our outstanding borrowings will depend primarily on the cash generated by our business. Our financing agreements contain certain restrictive covenants that limit our ability to undertake certain types of transactions, any of which could adversely affect our business and financial condition. We are required to obtain prior approval from our lenders for, among other things:

- effecting any change in the ownership or control of our Company;
- effecting any change in the capital structure of our Company or any amendments to our Memorandum of Association or Articles of Association;
- effecting changes in the shareholding pattern of the Company, including shareholding of the promoters, directors;
- entering into any schemes of mergers, amalgamations, compromise or reconstruction;
- undertaking any guarantee obligation on behalf of any other person;
- declaring and paying dividend in the event our Company defaults or delays in debt repayment of any of the lenders or upon the occurrence of any event of default;
- utilization of funds for any other purpose other than for which approval has been granted or agreed to be granted;
- undertaking any activity other than activities indicated in the objects clause of the Memorandum of Association;
- approaching capital market for mobilizing additional resources either in the form of debt or equity;
- changing the substantial nature of the business of our Company; and
- effecting any change in management and operating structure of our Company.

Under these agreements, certain lenders also require us to maintain certain financial ratios such as asset coverage ratio, security cover ratio, interest coverage ratio and debt service coverage ratio. Some of our financing agreements also contain cross-default and cross-acceleration clauses, which are triggered in the event of default by our Company under the respective financing agreements. Our failure to meet our obligations under our financing agreements could have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Further, under certain agreements in relation to the refinancing availed from the NHB, we are required to submit an undertaking from the shareholders who hold 20% or more of the Equity Share capital to the effect that any dilution of 10% or more, requires prior approval from the NHB. In terms of such requirement, our Promoters and Bessemer have provided such undertakings to the NHB. Further, under certain agreements in relation to the refinancing availed by us from the NHB, P.S. Jayakumar, one of the Selling Shareholders and one of our initial founders, is required to obtain approval of the NHB for any change in his shareholding in the Company. While our Company and such entities and individual have applied and received such approvals from the NHB (“NHB Approvals”), in connection with the Offer, such approvals are subject to the approval of the RBI.

Our future borrowings may also contain similar restrictive provisions. If we fail to meet our debt service obligations or covenants provided under the financing agreements, the relevant lenders could declare us to be in default under the terms of our agreements or accelerate the maturity of our obligations. We cannot assure you that, in the event of any such acceleration, we will have sufficient resources to repay the borrowings.

12. Any failure or significant weakness of our internal processes or systems could cause operational errors or incidents of fraud, which would adversely affect our business, profitability and reputation.

We are responsible for establishing and maintaining adequate internal measures commensurate with the size and complexity of operations. Our internal audit functions make an evaluation of the adequacy and effectiveness of internal systems on an ongoing basis so that business units adhere to our policies, compliance requirements and internal guidelines. While we periodically test and update our internal processes and systems, we are exposed to operational risks arising from the potential inadequacy or failure of internal processes or systems, and our actions may not be sufficient to ensure effective internal checks and balances in all circumstances.

Our management information systems and internal procedures that are designed to monitor our operations and overall compliance may not identify every instance of non-compliance or every suspicious transaction. If internal system or process weaknesses are identified, our actions may not be sufficient to correct such weakness. Failures or material errors in our internal systems may lead to deal errors, pricing errors, inaccurate financial reporting, fraud and failure of critical systems and infrastructure. Such instances may also adversely affect our reputation, business and results of operations. Further, the NHB has, during previous inspections suggested certain improvements to our internal audit and control procedures. We cannot assure you that that we would be able to prevent frauds in the future or that our existing internal mechanisms to detect or prevent fraud will be sufficient. Any fraud discovered in the future may have an adverse effect on our business, profitability and reputation.

13. Our inability to expand our business into new regions and markets in India could adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

As part of our growth strategy, we continue to evaluate opportunities to expand our business into new markets in India. Factors such as competition, customer requirements, regulatory regimes, business practices and customs in these new markets may differ from those in our existing markets, and our experience in our existing markets may not be applicable to these new markets. In addition, as we enter new markets and geographical regions, we are likely to compete with not only other banks and financial institutions but also the local unorganized or semi-organized private financiers, who may be more familiar with local regulations, business practices and customs, and may have stronger relationships with target customers.

As we plan to expand our geographic footprint, we may be exposed to additional challenges, including identifying and collaborating with local business partners with whom we may have no previous business relations, obtaining necessary governmental approvals, successfully marketing our brand and products in markets in which we have no familiarity; attracting customers in a market in which we do not have significant experience or visibility; being subject to additional local taxes; attracting and retaining new employees; expanding our technological infrastructure; maintaining standardized systems and procedures; and adapting our marketing strategy and operations to new markets in India in which different languages are spoken. For instance, a number of states in India such as Gujarat, Maharashtra and Karnataka, have enacted laws to regulate money-lending transactions and there are civil and criminal penalties prescribed for non-compliance with the relevant money lending statutes. These laws also establish a maximum rate of interest that can be charged to customers. There is however, ambiguity on whether HFCs and NBFCs are required to comply with provisions of these state money-lending laws. If it is judicially determined or clarified by relevant authorities that such statutes apply to HFCs, our business in such states could be affected. To address these challenges, we may have to make significant investments that may not yield desired results or incur costs that we may not be able to recover. Our inability to expand our current operations or the sub-optimal performance of our new branches may adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

14. Our inability to maintain our capital adequacy ratio could adversely affect our business.

The NHB Directions currently require HFCs to comply with a capital to risk (weighted) assets ratio, or capital adequacy ratio (“CRAR”), consisting of Tier I and Tier II capital. As per the NHB Directions, we are required to maintain a minimum capital adequacy ratio, consisting of Tier I capital and Tier II capital. Regulation 30 of the NHB Directions currently requires all HFCs to comply with a CRAR, consisting of Tier I and Tier II capital, of not less than 13.0% of its aggregate risk weighted assets and of risk adjusted value of off-balance sheet items, on or before March 31, 2020, 14% on or before March 31, 2021 and 15% on or before March 31, 2022 and thereafter. At a minimum, Tier I capital of an HFC, at any point of time, cannot be less than 10%. Further, we are required to ensure that the total Tier II capital at any point of time, should not exceed 100% of Tier – I capital. For details, see “Key Regulations and Policies in India” on page 151. As of September 30, 2019, our CRAR was 47.6%, with Tier I capital comprising 46.8% and Tier II capital comprising 0.7%. As we continue to grow our loan portfolio and asset base we will be required to raise additional Tier I and Tier II capital in order to remain in compliance with the applicable capital adequacy ratios. Further, the NHB may increase its current CRAR requirements, which may require us to raise additional capital. We cannot assure you that we will be able to raise adequate additional capital in the future on terms favorable to us, or at all, which may adversely affect the growth of our business.

15. Our Auditor’s reports on financial statements for Financial Year 2018 and Financial Year 2019 include certain matters required under the Companies (Auditors Report) Order, 2016 (“CARO”).

Our Auditor’s reports on the financial statements for Financial Year 2018 and Financial Year 2019 include certain matters as required under the CARO, in terms of Section 143(11) of the Companies Act, 2013. For instance, the Auditor’s reports identify matters such as undisputed amounts of ₹ 0.18 million due outstanding for more than six months, including an amount of ₹ 0.14 million being outstanding towards payments of professional tax as of March 31, 2019) and significant delays in deposit of statutory dues. There can be no assurance that our Auditor's observations for any future fiscal periods will not contain such matters, prescribed under CARO, or that such matters will not otherwise affect our results of operations in such future periods.

16. Non-compliance with the NHB's or RBI's observations made pursuant to its periodic inspections and violations of regulations prescribed by the NHB or RBI, could expose us to certain penalties and restrictions.

Prior to the notification of the NHB Act Amendments, we were subject to periodic inspection by the NHB under the NHB Act, 1987 (the "NHB Act"), pursuant to which the NHB inspected our books of accounts and other records for the purpose of verifying the correctness or completeness of any statement, information or particulars furnished to the NHB or for obtaining any information, which we may have failed to furnish when called upon to do so. However, pursuant to the NHB Act Amendments, the RBI will also have the power to conduct such inspections, in addition to the NHB. In its past inspection reports, the NHB has identified certain non-compliances with the policy circulars and guidelines issued by NHB, and has also observed certain shortcomings and inadequacies in some of our policies, our KYC compliance and audit systems.

NHB has issued its inspection report for the financial year 2018, identifying certain deficiencies and observations, including incorrect inclusion of provisions for NPAs in the computation of Tier-II capital; short provisioning being observed in case of individual housing loans, reporting of incorrect capital adequacy ratio due to factors including wrong risk weight assignment, pending adoption of the national disaster management guidelines issued by the NHB in our loan policies, shortcomings in the credit policy, ALM policy and the investment policy adopted by us, certain non-compliances with our internal policies, inadequate scope of internal audit, certain limitations in generating reports on customized parameters with the software we use and failure to obtain independent valuation reports for project loans. We have noted the observations, to the extent applicable, and furnished our responses and confirmed that we will ensure compliance. We are currently in the process of addressing the limitations in generation of reports on customized parameters with the software we use.

Further, in the event the NHB or RBI finds that our Company is in violation of regulations prescribed them, we may be subject to penalties or investigations. For instance, the NHB has issued a show cause notice to us on January 6, 2015, in relation to submission of annual returns in the form prescribed under the NHB Directions. Our Company has replied to this notice on January 12, 2015, providing certain clarifications, requesting the NHB for condonation of error and ensuring compliances in the future. No further action has been taken in relation to the show cause notice as on the date of this draft red herring prospectus. For details, see "Outstanding Litigation and Material Developments" on page 298. Further, the NHB has issued a show cause notice to us on June 26, 2019, in relation to non-compliance with provisions of paragraph 2(1)(zg) and paragraph 30 of the NHB Directions in relation to incorrect inclusion of provisions for NPAs in the computation of Tier-II capital and wrong risk weight assignment, respectively. We replied to this notice on July 4, 2019, providing certain clarifications, requesting the NHB for condonation of error and ensuring compliances in the future. However, NHB did not accept our submissions and levied a penalty of ₹ 0.01 million by its letter dated July 30, 2019. The penalty has been duly paid and acknowledged by the NHB. For details, see "Outstanding Litigation and Material Developments" on page 298.

While we seek to comply with all regulatory provisions applicable to us, in the event we are unable to comply with the NHB's or RBI's directions at any time in the future, we could be subject to penalties and restrictions imposed by the NHB or RBI. Imposition of any future penalty or adverse findings by the NHB or RBI, requiring corrective steps entailing a compliance cost for us, may have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition and reputation.

17. We may not be able to identify, monitor and manage risks or effectively implement our risk management policies.

The effectiveness of our risk management is affected by the quality and timeliness of available data. We have devoted resources to develop our risk management policies and procedures and aim to continue to do so in the future. We have policies and procedures in place to measure, manage and control the various risks to which we are exposed, which include our asset-liability management policy, credit policy, corporate governance policy, whistle blower policy, investment policy, recovery and collections policy, and KYC and anti-money laundering policy. Our Board of Directors and the Risk Management Committee review our risk management policies from time to time. We also depend on our information technology systems to assist us with our risk management functions.

However, our policies and procedures to identify, monitor and manage risks may not be fully effective. For instance, the NHB, during its inspection, had observed that the scope of the internal audit required improvement in establishing oversight on operational risk areas like outsourcing agencies, head office functions, business and risk involvement, business continuity planning preparedness, specifying time frame for compliance and closure processes. Some of our risk management processes may not be automated and subject to human error. Some of our methods of managing risks are based on the use of observed historical market behaviour and may not accurately predict future risk exposures, which could be significantly greater than those indicated by the historical measures. In addition, as we seek to expand the scope of our operations, we also face the risk of inability to develop commensurate risk management policies and procedures. Other risk management methods depend upon an evaluation of information regarding the markets we operate in, the customers we service and certain other matters, which may not be accurate, complete, up-to-date or properly evaluated in all cases. Management of operational, legal or regulatory risks requires, among other things, policies and procedures to properly record and verify a number of transactions and events. Although we have established these policies and procedures, they may not be fully effective.

Our earnings are dependent upon the effectiveness of our management of changes in credit quality and risk concentrations, the accuracy of our valuation models and our critical accounting estimates and the adequacy of our allowances for loan losses. To the extent our assessments, assumptions or estimates prove inaccurate or not predictive of actual results, we could suffer higher than anticipated losses. If we fail to effectively implement our risk management policies, it could have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

18. Any deterioration in the performance of any pool of receivables assigned to banks and other institutions may adversely impact our financial performance.

We assign a portion of our receivables from our loan portfolio to banks and other financial institutions. Such direct assignment transactions are undertaken by us on the basis of our internal estimates of funding requirements, and may vary from time to time. During the six months ended September 30, 2019 and 2018 and the financial years 2019, 2018 and 2017, we had assigned assets worth ₹ 4,746.42 million, ₹ 674.05 million, ₹ 2,920.65 million, ₹ 374.62 million and ₹ 542.41 million, respectively. As of September 30, 2019 and 2018 and March 31, 2019, 2018 and 2017, our receivables assigned expressed as a percentage of our Gross Loan Assets were 15.2%, 3.5%, 12.0%, 2.8% and 6.4%, respectively. Any change in RBI or other government regulations in relation to assignments/securitizations by HFCs could have an adverse impact on our assignment/securitization program. In the event the bank or financial institution does not realize the receivables due under loans that have been assigned, the relevant bank or institution can enforce the underlying credit enhancements provided by our Company. Should the assignee banks or any other financial institutions seek to enforce the underlying credit enhancements such as bank guarantees and fixed deposits, which are provided up to a specified percentage of the underlying loans, it could have an adverse effect on our financial condition and results of operations.

19. The Indian housing finance industry is extensively regulated and any changes in laws and regulations applicable to HFCs could have an adverse effect on our business.

We are subject to the corporate, taxation and other laws in effect in India and the states in which we operate, which require continuous monitoring and compliance. These regulations, apart from regulating the manner in which a company carries out its business and internal operations, prescribe various periodical compliances and filings, including but not limited to filing of forms and declarations with the relevant registrar of companies, the NHB and other relevant authorities. Pursuant to the NHB Act and various regulations, circulars and guidelines issued by the NHB, HFCs are currently required to comply with, among others, limits on borrowings, investments, interest rates and tenure on public deposits, prudential norms for income recognition, asset classification and provisioning for standard and non-performing assets, norms for creation of special reserves as well as minimum capital adequacy and liquidity requirements. The regulations applicable to us also address issues such as our conduct with customers and recovery practices, market conduct and foreign investment.

The laws and regulations governing the housing finance industry in India have become increasingly complex and cover a wide variety of issues. Compliance with many of the regulations applicable to our operations in India, including any restrictions on investments and other activities currently being carried out by us, involves a number of risks, particularly in markets where applicable regulations may be subject to varying interpretations.

Further, the NHB Act Amendments have come into force on August 9, 2019. Pursuant to the NHB Act Amendments, amongst others, (i) HFCs are required to apply to the RBI for registration under the NHB Act, in place of NHB; (ii) the RBI has the power to determine the percentage of assets to be maintained in terms of its investments and its reserve fund to be maintained; (iii) the RBI has the power to determine policy and issue instructions in relation to housing finance institutions; and (iv) the RBI has the power to regulate by specifying conditions or prohibit the issue by any HFC which is a company of any prospectus or advertisement soliciting deposits of money from the public. The NHB Act Amendments also provide for certain powers to be exercised by the RBI concurrently with the NHB, such as the power to conduct inspections and request for documents from the HFCs. Further, pursuant to the notification of the RBI dated November 19, 2019 and the amendments to the 'Master Directions - Exemptions from the RBI Act, 1934' issued by the RBI on November 11, 2019, certain existing exemptions available to HFCs under the RBI Act have been withdrawn and accordingly HFCs shall also be subject to regulation and directions of the RBI. Accordingly, there may be further scrutiny and instructions from the RBI in relation to the regulation of HFCs. If we fail to comply with such requirements, we may be subject to penalties or compounding proceedings.

Further, pursuant to recent notification dated November 18, 2019 issued by the Ministry of Corporate Affairs, certain prescribed non-banking finance companies (which include HFCs) with asset size of ₹ 500 crore or more, as per last audited balance sheet have been notified as a category of financial service providers (“Notified FSPs”). The Ministry of Corporate Affairs has also issued the Insolvency and Bankruptcy (Insolvency and Liquidation Proceedings of Financial Service Providers and Application to Adjudicating Authority) Rules, 2019, in terms of which the RBI may initiate insolvency and liquidation proceedings under the IBC against Notified FSPs (which includes our Company) for a ‘default’ in terms of the IBC.

If the interpretation of the regulators and authorities varies from our interpretation, we may be subject to penalties and our business could be adversely affected. Moreover, these laws and regulations can be amended, supplemented or changed at any time such that we may be required to restructure our business and activities and incur additional expenses to comply with such laws and regulations, which could adversely affect our business.

Additionally, we are required to make several filings with the NHB, RBI, the RoC and other relevant authorities pursuant to the provisions of NHB regulations, the Companies Act and other regulations. We may have made inadvertent errors in certain filings with such authorities which could attract penalties. If we fail to comply with these requirements, or a regulator claims we have not complied with these requirements, we may be subject to penalties and compounding proceedings. For further information on laws and regulations applicable to us, see “Key Regulations and Policies in India” on page 151.

20. We require certain statutory and regulatory approvals for conducting our business and our inability to obtain, retain or renew them in a timely manner, or at all, may adversely affect our operations.

Our operations are subject to extensive government regulation and we are required to obtain and maintain a number of statutory and regulatory permits and approvals under central, state and local government rules in India, generally for carrying out our business. We have also applied to the RBI to obtain their approval in connection with the Offer. However, as on the date of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus, we have not received their approval. For further details, see “Other Regulatory and Statutory Disclosures” on page 303.

Further, while we have obtained a number of approvals required for our operations, certain approvals for which we have submitted applications are currently pending. Further, we have made an application before NHB on June 11, 2018 for a fresh certificate of registration upon conversion to a public limited company, which is currently pending with NHB. In addition to the above, renewal applications for certain other approvals, including professional tax enrolment and registration certificates have been made to the relevant revenue authorities in relation to certain of our branch offices. Further, applications for shops and establishments registrations in relation to certain of our branch offices are yet to be made or yet to be received. We are also in the process of applying for the renewal of certain approvals that have expired. For further details, see “Government and Other Approvals” on page 301. In addition, we may apply for more approvals, including the renewal of approvals, which may expire from time to time, and approvals in the ordinary course of business.

A majority of these approvals are granted for a limited duration and are subject to numerous conditions. We cannot assure you that these approvals would not be suspended or revoked in the event of non-compliance or alleged non-compliance with any terms or conditions thereof, or pursuant to any regulatory action. If there is any failure by us to comply with the applicable regulations, or if the regulations governing our business are amended, we may incur increased costs, be subject to penalties, have our approvals and permits revoked or suffer a disruption in our operations, any of which could adversely affect our business.

21. We depend on the accuracy and completeness of information provided by our customers and certain third party service providers and our reliance on any misleading information may affect our judgment of their credit worthiness, as well as the value of and title to the collateral.

While deciding whether to extend credit to customers, we rely, to a significant extent, on the information furnished to us by the customers for certain key elements of the credit assessment process, including their financial transactions and credit history. We follow the Know Your Customer guidelines prescribed by the NHB for potential customers, verify their place of employment and residence, as applicable, and verify details with the NHB’s caution list. We may also rely on certain representations from customers as to the accuracy and completeness of that information. For ascertaining the creditworthiness and encumbrances on the collateral provided, we may depend on the respective registrars and sub-registrars of assurances, local legal agencies and lawyers, credit information companies or credit bureaus, and on independent valuers in relation to the value of the collateral. Our reliance on any misleading information may affect our judgement of credit worthiness of potential customers, and the value of and title to the collateral. Our risk management measures may not be adequate to prevent or deter such activities in all cases, which may adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Further, we target first time home buyers and such customers may not have credit histories supported by tax returns and other documents that would enable us to accurately assess their creditworthiness. We may also not receive updated information regarding any change in the financial condition of our customers or may receive inaccurate or incomplete information as a result of any fraudulent misrepresentation by our customers or employees. Moreover, the availability of accurate and comprehensive credit information on retail customers in India is more limited than for larger corporate customers, which reduces our ability to accurately assess the credit risk associated with such lending. Although as part of our credit policy, we conduct credit checks of all our customers, including with credit bureaus, conduct site-visits and personal discussions, we cannot assure you that such credit information will be accurate or comprehensive. Difficulties in assessing credit risks associated with our day-to-day lending operations may lead to an increase in the level of our non-performing assets, which could adversely affect our business and results of operations.

22. Significant changes by the Government, the RBI or the NHB in their policy initiatives facilitating the provision of housing and housing finance or any change in the tax incentives that the Government currently provides to HFCs may have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

The Government of India provides certain incentives to encourage providing credit to the housing industry and has implemented policies, particularly in relation to affordable housing, that are aimed at providing low-cost, long-term credit to the low and middle income segments in India. The NHB provides re-finance for certain qualifying loans at reduced rates to certain qualifying HFCs through its schemes. In addition, the RBI provides certain incentives to the housing finance industry by extending priority sector status to housing loans. Certain key measures taken by the RBI to assist in fulfilling the Government's objectives include the reduction in risk weights applicable for affordable housing loans for the purpose of calculation of CRAR and allowing HFCs to raise long-term ECBs for on-lending towards affordable housing, which the RBI defines as housing loans with a size of up to ₹ 2.50 million. However, we cannot assure you that the Government, the RBI and the NHB will continue to provide such incentives in the future.

The Government had introduced the Credit Linked Subsidy Scheme ("CLSS") of the Pradhan Mantri Awas Yojana ("PMAY") – Housing for All (Urban) which aims at expanding institutional credit flow to the housing needs of the urban poor, by providing credit-linked subsidy on home loans taken by eligible urban poor for acquisition or construction of houses. Individuals belonging to the economically weaker sections ("EWS") and the low income group ("LIG") seeking housing loans from primary lending institutions ("PLIs"), including banks and HFCs, are eligible to avail benefits under the scheme.

Further, pursuant to Section 36(1)(viii) of the (Indian) Income Tax Act, 1961 (the "Income Tax Act"), up to 20.00% of profits from housing finance activities may be carried to a special reserve and will not be subject to income tax. The balance of our special reserve as of September 30, 2019 was ₹ 254.19 million. In addition, home buyers receive tax incentives on home loans for principal and interest payment of home loans, which has improved affordability levels of borrowers. Principal repayment qualifies for tax deduction under section 80C of the Income Tax Act, 1961. However, we cannot assure you that the Government will continue to make such benefits available to HFCs or home buyers.

Any significant change by the Government in its various policy initiatives facilitating provision of housing and housing finance or any change in the tax incentives that it currently provides to HFCs and homebuyers may have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

23. We utilize the services of certain third parties for our operations and any interruption or deficiency in their services could have an adverse effect on our business.

We utilize the services of third parties from time to time in various aspects of our operations such as sourcing of customers, valuation of collateral and legal services. We generate customer leads from connectors who are generally individuals such as insurance agents, tax practitioners and local shopkeepers. For the six months ended September 30, 2019 and the financial year 2019, we sanctioned 6,093 and 9,555 loans on account of leads generated through 1,431 and 1,331 connectors, respectively. However, our arrangements with connectors are on a non-exclusive basis and they may work for our competitors in the future, which may adversely affect our ability to increase our customer base. We also engage with local property valuers and legal advisors in the regions in which we operate. We cannot assure you that we will be successful in continuing to receive uninterrupted and quality services from our third party service providers. Any disruption, negligence, fraud or inefficiency in the services provided by our third party service providers could adversely affect our business and reputation.

24. We are exposed to risks that may arise if our customers opt for balance transfers to other banks or financial institutions, or if customers face increased difficulties in refinancing their existing housing loans from other banks and financial institutions to our Company.

We offer our customers variable interest rate loans which are linked to our reference rate. Based on market conditions, we price our loans at either a discount or a premium to our reference rate, which is determined primarily on the basis of our cost of borrowings. Customers with variable interest rates on their loans are exposed to increased equated monthly instalments (“EMIs”) when the loans’ interest rate adjusts upward, to the rate computed in accordance with the applicable index and margin. Such customers typically seek to refinance their loans through balance transfer to other banks and financial institutions, to avoid increased EMIs that may result from an upwards adjustment of the loans’ interest rate. While refinancing of loans by other lenders could in certain circumstances be beneficial for our customers, it results in a loss of interest income expected from such loans over the course of their tenure. In addition, all housing finance providers in India are prohibited from charging pre-payment penalties on loans with variable interest rates, which has led to a high incidence of balance transfer, which results in a high turnover of loan assets between lenders, causing lenders to incur increased origination costs. In addition, increased difficulties for customers in refinancing their existing housing loan from another bank or financial institution, may also adversely affect our balance transfer loan originations. As competition in the housing finance sector intensifies, some of our customers with variable interest rate loans may not be able to find balance transfer options at comparably lower interest rates or other financing alternatives. As a result, they may be exposed to the risks associated with increases in EMIs, which may lead to increased delinquency or default rates. Increased delinquency rates may also result in deterioration in credit quality of our loan portfolio, which could have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

25. Our Company, our Promoters and our Directors are involved in certain legal and other proceedings. Any adverse outcome in such proceedings may have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

In the ordinary course of business, our Company is involved in certain legal proceedings, which are pending at different levels of adjudication before various courts, tribunals and statutory, regulatory and other judicial authorities in India, and, if determined adversely, could materially adversely affect our reputation, business, results of operations and financial condition. We can give no assurance that these legal proceedings will be decided favorably or that any further liability may arise from these claims in the future.

The summary of outstanding matters set out below includes details of criminal proceedings, tax proceedings, statutory and regulatory actions and other material pending litigation involving our Company. According to the Materiality Policy, any outstanding litigation, other than criminal proceedings, statutory or regulatory actions and taxation matters, is considered material if the monetary amount of claim by or against the entity or person in any such pending matter is in excess of ₹ 4.52 million or if an adverse outcome of any such litigation could materially and adversely affect our business, prospects, operations, financial position or reputation.

* To the extent quantifiable.

Further, in the past, certain complaints have been sent to NHB and our credit rating agencies and certain queries have been sent by the lenders in relation to our business. We have satisfactorily responded to and clarified these matters with such agencies. We cannot assure you that such matters will not occur in the future and cause volatility in the price of our Equity Shares.

Involvement in such proceedings could divert our management’s time and attention and consume financial resources. Further, an adverse judgment in these proceedings could have an adverse impact on our business, results of operations and financial condition. For details, in relation to the proceedings involving our Company and Directors, see “Outstanding Litigation and Material Developments” on page 298.

We cannot assure you that any of the outstanding material litigation matters will be settled in our favour or in favour of our Company, Directors or Promoters, as applicable, or that no additional liability will arise out of these proceedings.

26. We are dependent on a number of Key Managerial Personnel and our senior management, and the loss of, or our inability to attract or retain such persons could adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Our performance depends largely on the efforts and abilities of our Key Managerial Personnel, senior management, and our operational personnel. We believe that the inputs and experience of our senior management are valuable for the development of our business, operations and the strategic directions taken by our Company. Further, our underwriting team currently comprises only four personnel and certain applications and software that we use are developed in-house by our employees. We cannot assure you that these individuals or any other member of our senior management team will not leave us or join a competitor or that we will be able to retain such personnel or find adequate replacements in a timely manner, or at all. We may require a long period of time to hire and train replacement personnel when qualified personnel terminate their employment with our Company. We may also be required to increase our levels of employee compensation more rapidly than in the past to remain competitive in attracting employees that our business requires. The NHB during its previous inspections has highlighted the need for our Company to put in place necessary succession planning for the senior executives and second level functionaries. The loss of, or inability to attract or retain such persons may have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

27. Our operations could be adversely affected by strikes or increased wage demands by our employees or any other kind of disputes with our employees.

As of September 30, 2019, we employed 738 personnel across our operations. Although we have not experienced any material employee unrest in the past, we cannot assure you that we will not experience disruptions in work due to disputes or other problems with our work force, which may adversely affect our ability to continue our business operations. Any employee unrest directed against us, could directly or indirectly prevent or hinder our normal operating activities, and, if not resolved in a timely manner, could lead to disruptions in our operations. These actions are impossible for us to predict or control and any such event could adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

28. Our Promoters may not have adequate experience in the business activities undertaken by our Company.

While our Company, including our operations, is managed by professionals, TN V LLP is primarily engaged in the business of making investments and is registered with SEBI as a Category II Alternative Investment Fund, while Aether is primarily engaged in the business of investing in Indian companies through the FDI route. Due to the nature of their core business activities, our Promoters may not have adequate experience in the business activities undertaken by our Company. For details, see “Our Promoters and Promoter Group” on page 176.

29. We propose to utilize the Net Proceeds of the Fresh Issue to maintain the minimum capital adequacy ratio and to meet future capital requirements arising out of the growth in our business and not for any specified projects.

The Net Proceeds of the Fresh Issue will be utilised to increase our Company’s Tier I capital base to maintain the minimum capital adequacy ratio in accordance with Regulation 30 of the NHB Directions and to meet our future capital requirements which are expected to arise out of growth of our business and assets, primarily our housing loans and other loans, and to ensure compliance with the NHB Directions. Consequently, we will not be using the Net Proceeds for any specified projects. For details, see “Objects of the Offer” on page 76.

30. Our insurance coverage may not be sufficient or may not adequately protect us against all material hazards, which may adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

We believe that the insurance coverage we maintain is reasonably adequate to cover the normal risks associated with the operation of our businesses. Even if we have insurance for the incident giving rise to the loss, we may be required to pay a significant deductible on any claim for recovery of such a loss, or the amount of the loss may exceed our coverage for the loss. However, we cannot assure you that any claim under the insurance policies maintained by us will be honored fully, in part or on time, or that we have obtained sufficient insurance to cover all potential losses. In addition, our insurance coverage expires from time to time. We apply for the renewal of our insurance coverage in the normal course of our business, but we cannot assure you that such renewals will be granted in a timely manner, or at acceptable cost, or at all. To the extent that we suffer loss or damage, or successful assertion of one or more large claims against us for events for which we are not insured, or for which we did not obtain or maintain insurance, or which is not covered by insurance, exceeds our insurance coverage or where our insurance claims are rejected, the loss would have to be borne by us and our results of operations, financial condition and cash flows could be adversely affected.

31. We conduct our business operations on leased premises, including our Registered and Corporate Office, and our inability to renew such leases may adversely affect our operations.

As of September 30, 2019, we conducted our operations through 65 branches, of which 40 have been taken on a lease and 25 have been taken on leave and license basis. The leave and license agreements in relation to our Registered and Corporate Office, read with the addendums thereto, are valid until April 30, 2021. Any adverse impact on the title of the owners from whose premises we operate, breach of the contractual terms of any agreements, or if any of the owners of these premises do not renew the agreements under which we occupy the premises, or if they seek to renew such agreements on terms and conditions unfavourable to us, or if they terminate our agreements, we may suffer a disruption in our operations and will have to look for alternate premises. We may be unable to relocate our offices in a timely manner or at an acceptable cost, which may adversely affect our business and results of operations.

32. Fluctuations in the market values of our investments could adversely affect our result of operations and financial condition.

As part of our treasury management, we have formulated a board-approved investment policy in accordance with the NHB Directions. Our investment policy prescribes permissible investment assets such as mutual funds, fixed deposits, non-convertible debentures, subject to restrictions prescribed by our internal policies. The value of these investments depends on several factors beyond our control, including the domestic and international economic and political scenario, inflationary expectations and monetary policies. Any decline in the value of these investments may have an adverse effect on our results of operations and financial condition.

33. The bankruptcy code in India may affect our rights to recover loans from our customers.

The Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016 (“IBC”) was notified on August 5, 2016. The IBC offers a uniform and comprehensive insolvency legislation encompassing all companies, partnerships and individuals (other than financial firms). It allows creditors to assess the viability of a debtor as a business decision, and agree upon a plan for its revival or a speedy liquidation. The IBC creates a new institutional framework, consisting of a regulator, insolvency professionals, information utilities and adjudicatory mechanisms, which will facilitate a formal and time-bound insolvency resolution and liquidation process.

In case insolvency proceedings are initiated against a debtor to our Company or a debtor files for voluntary insolvency, we may not have complete control over the recovery of amounts due to us. Under the IBC, upon invocation of an insolvency resolution process, a committee of creditors is constituted by the interim resolution professional, wherein each financial creditor is given a voting share proportionate to the debts owed to it. Any decision of the committee of creditors must be taken by a vote of not less than 75% of the voting share of all financial creditors. Any resolution plan approved by committee of creditors is binding upon all creditors, even if they vote against it.

In case a liquidation process is opted for, the IBC provides for a fixed order of priority in which proceeds from the sale of the debtor’s assets are to be distributed. Before sale proceeds are distributed to a secured creditor, they are to be distributed for the costs of the insolvency resolution and liquidation processes and debts owed to workmen and other employees. Further, under this process, dues owed to the Central and State Governments rank below the claims of secured creditors, workmen and other employee dues and unsecured financial creditors. Further, pursuant to an amendment to the IBC, allottees in a real estate project are considered on par with financial creditors. Specifically, in relation to cases where we have extended construction finance to developers or builders for specific projects, allottees in such real estate projects will be considered on par with our Company in terms of priority of repayment. Moreover, other secured creditors may decide to opt out of the process, in which case they are permitted to realize their security interests in priority. Additionally, in cases where proceedings under the IBC are initiated against the builders or developers of project where the allottees of the apartments are our borrowers and if the builder or developer fails to deliver the project, there may be delay in recovery of amounts from such borrowers.

Accordingly, if the provisions of the IBC are invoked against any of the borrowers of our Company, it may affect our Company’s ability to recover our loans from the borrowers and enforcement of our Company’s rights will be subject to the IBC.

34. Our inability to detect money-laundering and other illegal activities fully and on a timely basis may expose us to additional liability and adversely affect our business and reputation.

We are required to comply with applicable anti-money-laundering (“AML”) and anti-terrorism laws and other regulations in India. In the ordinary course of our operations, we run the risk of failing to comply with the prescribed KYC procedures and the consequent risk of fraud and money laundering by dishonest customers and assessment of penalties or imposition of sanctions against us for such compliance failures despite having implemented systems and controls designed to prevent the occurrence of these risks. Further, the NHB has during a previous inspection, observed that effective KYC implementation was not in place with proper management oversight, systems and controls and training at our Company. Although we have responded to the NHB stating that effective KYC implementation is in place and we believe that we have adequate internal policies, processes and systems in place to prevent and detect any AML activity and ensure KYC compliance, we cannot assure you that we will be able to fully control instances of any potential or attempted violation by other parties. Any inability on our part to detect such activities fully and on a timely basis, may subject us to regulatory actions including imposition of fines and penalties and adversely affect our business and reputation.

35. We have in the past entered into related party transactions and may continue to do so in the future, which may potentially involve conflicts of interest with the equity shareholders.

We have entered into various transactions with related parties. While we believe that all such transactions have been conducted on an arm's length basis, in accordance with our related party transactions policy and contain commercially reasonable terms, we cannot assure you that we could not have achieved more favorable terms had such transactions been entered into with unrelated parties. It is likely that we may enter into related party transactions in the future. Although all related party transactions that we may enter into post-listing, will be subject to board or shareholder approval, as necessary under the Companies Act and the Listing Regulations, we cannot assure you that such transactions, individually or in the aggregate, will not have an adverse effect on our financial condition and results of operations or that we could not have achieved more favorable terms if such transactions had not been entered into with related parties. For details of the related party transactions and as reported in the Restated Financial Information, see "Restated Financial Information" on page 204.

36. Our Promoters, Directors and Key Managerial Personnel have interests in us other than the reimbursement of expenses incurred and normal remuneration and benefits.

Our Promoters, Directors and Key Managerial Personnel may be deemed to be interested to the extent of Equity Shares held by them, directly or indirectly, in our Company, as well as to the extent of any dividends, bonuses or other distributions on such shareholding. Additionally, some of our Directors and Key Managerial Personnel may also be regarded as interested to the extent of employee stock options granted by our Company and which may be granted to them from time to time pursuant to the ESOP Schemes, as applicable. For details, see "Capital Structure" on page 57.

We cannot assure you that our Promoters, Directors and our Key Managerial Personnel, if they are also our shareholders, will exercise their rights as shareholders to the benefit and best interest of our Company. For details, see "Our Promoters and Promoter Group", "Our Management – Interests of Directors" and "Our Management – Interests of Key Managerial Personnel" on pages 176, 166 and 174.

37. Our ability to pay dividends in the future will depend on our earnings, financial condition, working capital requirements, capital expenditures and restrictive covenants of our financing arrangements.

Our ability to pay dividends in the future will depend on our earnings, financial condition, cash flow, working capital requirements, capital expenditure and restrictive covenants of our financing arrangements. Any future determination as to the declaration and payment of dividends will be at the discretion of our Board and will depend on factors that our Board deems relevant, including among others, our future earnings, financial condition, cash requirements, business prospects and any other financing arrangements. Additionally, our ability to pay dividends may also be restricted by the terms of financing arrangements that we may enter into. For details, see "Financial Indebtedness" on page 273. Dividends distributed by us will attract dividend distribution tax at rates applicable from time to time and may be subject to other requirements prescribed by the NHB or RBI, as the case may be. We cannot assure you that we will be able to pay dividends in the future. For further details, see "Dividend Policy" on page 182.

38. We have had negative net cash flows in the past and may continue to have negative cash flows in the future.

39. We have referred to the data derived from industry reports commissioned from CRISIL Limited and ICRA Limited.

We have commissioned the services of independent third party research agencies CRISIL Limited and ICRA Limited and have relied on the report titled "CRISIL Research – Industry Report on Affordable Housing Finance, November 2019” and ICRA’s Report on Mortgage Finance Market for industry related data in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus. These reports use certain methodologies for market sizing and forecasting. Neither we, nor any of the Lead Managers have independently verified such data and therefore, while we believe them to be true, we cannot assure you that they are complete or reliable. Accordingly, investors should read the industry related disclosure in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus in this context. Industry sources and publications are also prepared based on information as of specific dates and may no longer be current or reflect current trends. Industry sources and publications may also base their information on estimates, projections, forecasts and assumptions that may prove to be incorrect. While industry sources take due care and caution while preparing their reports, they do not guarantee the accuracy, adequacy or completeness of the data. Accordingly, investors should not place undue reliance on, or base their investment decision solely on this information.

40. Our Promoters and some of our Directors may have interests in entities in businesses similar to ours, which may result in conflicts of interest with us.

Our Promoters and some of our Directors may have investments or interests in entities engaged in businesses similar to ours, including in other geographies or across the financial services sector in general, which may, in the future, result in conflicts of interest with us. For details, see “Our Promoters and Promoter Group” and “Our Management – Interests of Directors” on pages 176 and 166.

41. During the last 12 months preceding the date of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus, our Company has issued Equity Shares at a price that may be lower than the Offer Price.

We have, in the last 12 months prior to filing this Draft Red Herring Prospectus, issued Equity Shares at a price that could be lower than the Offer Price. For details, see “Capital Structure - Equity Shares issued in the preceding one year below the Offer Price” on page 59. The prices at which Equity Shares have been issued by us in the last one year should not be taken to be indicative of the Price Band, Offer Price and the trading price of our Equity Shares after listing.

42. Our Promoters will continue to hold a significant equity stake in our Company after the Offer.

Following completion of the Offer, our Promoters, TN V LLP and Aether, will continue to hold a significant percentage of our Equity Share capital. Our Promoters will therefore have the ability to influence our operations including the ability to approve significant actions at Board and at shareholders’ meetings such as issuing Equity Shares, paying dividends, and determining business plans and mergers and acquisitions strategies. In addition, if our Promoters do not act together, such matters requiring shareholders’ approval may be delayed or may not occur at all, which could adversely affect our business.

Further, upon listing of the Equity Shares on recognized stock exchanges, pursuant to the Shareholders’ Agreement, the amendments thereto and the Articles of Association, TN V LLP and Aether shall have the right to nominate Directors on our Board, subject to their shareholding at the time. For details in relation to rights to nominate Directors, “History and Certain Corporate Matters - Summary of Key Agreements” beginning on page 159. The trading price of our Equity Shares could be adversely affected if potential new investors are disinclined to invest in us because they perceive disadvantages to a large shareholding being concentrated in our Promoters. For details of our Equity Shares held by our Promoters, see “Capital Structure” on page 57. For details of interests of our Promoters in our Company, see “Our Promoters and Promoter Group” on page 176.

43. We, together with our Shareholders, are required to comply with certain restrictive covenants in relation to their shareholding, under our financing agreements.

Under certain agreements in relation to the refinancing availed from the NHB, we are required to submit an undertaking from the shareholders who hold 20% or more of the Equity Share capital to the effect that any dilution of 10% or more, requires prior approval from the NHB. In terms of such requirement, our Promoters and Bessemer have provided such undertakings to the NHB. Further, under certain agreements in relation to the refinancing availed by us from the NHB, P.S. Jayakumar, one of the Selling Shareholders and one of our initial founders, is required to obtain approval of the NHB for any change in his shareholding in the Company. While such entities and individual have applied and received such approvals from the NHB (“NHB Approvals”) in connection with the Offer, such approvals are subject to the approval of the RBI. Additionally, our Promoters have undertaken that they shall not affect any dilution of more than 10% without prior approval of certain of our lenders, which have been obtained in connection with the Offer. In addition to restricting the transferability of shareholding of such shareholders, such restrictions could discourage or prevent a change in control, merger, consolidation, takeover or other business combination involving us, which might be beneficial to our Shareholders.

44. Our Company will not receive any proceeds from the Offer for Sale. The Selling Shareholders are selling Equity Shares in the Offer for Sale and will receive proceeds as part of the Offer for Sale.

The Offer includes an Offer for Sale of Equity Shares by the Selling Shareholders. The proceeds from the Offer for Sale will be paid to the Selling Shareholders, in proportion to their respective portion of the Offered Shares transferred by each of them in the Offer for Sale, and we will not receive any such proceeds. For further details, see “Objects of the Offer” and “Capital Structure” beginning on pages 76 and 57, respectively.

External Risk Factors

Risks Related to India

45. Political, economic or other factors that are beyond our control may have an adverse effect on our business and results of operations.

The Indian economy and capital markets are influenced by economic, political and market conditions in India and globally. Our Company is incorporated in India, and all of our assets and employees are located in India. As a result, we are dependent on prevailing economic conditions in India and our results of operations are affected by factors influencing the Indian economy. Further, the following external risks may have an adverse impact on our business and results of operations, should any of them materialize:

- increase in interest rates may adversely affect our access to capital and increase our borrowing costs, which may constrain our ability to grow our business and operate profitably;
- downgrade of India’s sovereign debt rating by an independent agency;
- political instability, resulting from a change in governmental or economic and fiscal policies, may adversely affect economic conditions in India. In recent years, India has implemented various economic and political reforms. Reforms in relation to land acquisition policies and trade barriers have led to increased incidents of social unrest in India over which we have no control;
- civil unrest, acts of violence, terrorist attacks, regional conflicts or situations or war; and
- India has experienced natural calamities such as earthquakes, tsunamis, floods and drought in recent years.

Any slowdown or perceived slowdown in the Indian economy, or in specific sectors of the Indian economy, could adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition and the price of the Equity Shares. Our performance and the growth of our business depend on the overall performance of the Indian economy as well as the economies of the regional markets in which we operate.

46. The growth rate of India’s housing finance industry may not be sustainable.

We expect the housing finance industry in India to continue to grow as a result of anticipated growth in India’s economy, increases in household income and demographic changes. In addition, the Government of India is pursuing various social welfare schemes and initiatives to create an enabling and supportive environment to both enhance the flow of credit to the housing sector and increase home ownership in India. Various Central Government policies and initiatives such as “Smart Cities” and the “Pradhan Mantri Awas Yojana” or the “Housing for all by 2022” scheme have reinforced the primacy of the housing sector and the need to provide housing to all and are expected to promote affordable housing through partnerships with private sector entities. However, it is not clear how certain trends and events, such as the pace of India’s economic growth, the development of domestic capital markets and the on-going reform will affect India’s housing finance industry. In addition, there can be no assurance that the Government policies and initiatives for the housing finance industry will continue at the same or expected pace in the future. Consequently, there can be no assurance that the growth and development of India’s housing finance industry will be sustainable.

47. Changing laws, rules and regulations and legal uncertainties, including adverse application of corporate and tax laws, may adversely affect our business, results of operations and prospects.

The regulatory and policy environment in which we operate is evolving and subject to change. Such changes, including the instances mentioned below, may adversely affect our business, results of operations and prospects, to the extent that we are unable to suitably respond to and comply with any such changes in applicable law and policy. For example:

- the GAAR became effective from April 1, 2017. The tax consequences of the GAAR provisions being applied to an arrangement could result in denial of tax benefit amongst other consequences. In the absence of any precedents on the subject, the application of these provisions is uncertain. If the GAAR provisions are made applicable to our Company, it may have an adverse tax impact on us; and

- the Government of India has implemented a comprehensive national GST regime that combines taxes and levies by the Central and State Governments into a unified rate structure. In this regard, the Constitution (One hundred and first Amendment) Act, 2016 enables the Government of India and state governments to introduce GST. Any future increases or amendments may affect the overall tax efficiency of companies operating in India and may result in significant additional taxes becoming payable. If, as a result of a particular tax risk materializing, the tax costs associated with certain transactions are greater than anticipated, it could affect the profitability of such transactions.
- The Finance (No. 2) Act, 2019 (the “Finance Act”), passed by the Parliament and which has received the assent of the President of India, has introduced various amendments to legislations. Amongst others, the Finance Act includes amendments to the NHB Act (“NHB Act Amendments”) which have transferred the regulation authority over the housing finance sector from NHB to RBI. The NHB Act Amendments have come into force August 9, 2019. Pursuant to the NHB Act Amendments, amongst others, (i) HFCs are required to apply to the RBI for registration under the NHB Act, in place of NHB; (ii) the RBI has the power to determine the percentage of assets to be maintained in terms of its investments and its reserve fund to be maintained; (iii) the RBI has the power to determine policy and issue instructions in relation to housing finance institutions; and (iv) the RBI has the power to regulate by specifying conditions or prohibit the issue by any housing finance institution which is a company of any prospectus or advertisement soliciting deposits of money from the public. However, the NHB Act Amendments, retain certain powers with the NHB, in addition to conferring such powers on the RBI, such as power to conduct inspections and request for documents from the HFCs. This may result in a change in policy and interpretations with respect to regulations governing HFCs.

Unfavourable changes in or interpretations of existing, or the promulgation of new, laws, rules and regulations including foreign investment and stamp duty laws governing our business and operations could result in us being deemed to be in contravention of such laws and may require us to apply for additional approvals. We may incur increased costs and other burdens relating to compliance with such new requirements, which may also require significant management time and other resources, and any failure to comply may adversely affect our business, results of operations and prospects. Uncertainty in the application, interpretation or implementation of any amendment to, or change in, governing law, regulation or policy, including by reason of an absence, or a limited body, of administrative or judicial precedent may be time consuming as well as costly for us to resolve and may impact the viability of our current business or restrict our ability to grow our businesses in the future.

48. Investors may not be able to enforce a judgment of a foreign court against our Company outside India.

Our Company is incorporated under the laws of India. Our Company’s assets are located in India and a majority of our Company’s Directors and Key Managerial Personnel are residents of India. As a result, it may not be possible for investors to effect service of process upon our Company or such persons in jurisdictions outside India, or to enforce against them judgments obtained in courts outside India. Moreover, it is unlikely that a court in India would award damages on the same basis as a foreign court if an action were brought in India or that an Indian court would enforce foreign judgments if it viewed the amount of damages as excessive or inconsistent with Indian public policy.

India has reciprocal recognition and enforcement of judgments in civil and commercial matters with a limited number of jurisdictions, which includes, the United Kingdom, Singapore and Hong Kong. A judgment from certain specified courts located in a jurisdiction with reciprocity must meet certain requirements of the Civil Code. The United States and India do not currently have a treaty providing for reciprocal recognition and enforcement of judgments in civil and commercial matters. Therefore, a final judgment for the payment of money rendered by any federal or state court in a non-reciprocating territory, such as the United States, for civil liability, whether or not predicated solely upon the general securities laws of the United States, would not be enforceable in India under the Civil Code as a decree of an Indian court.

The United Kingdom, Singapore and Hong Kong have been declared by the Government of India to be reciprocating territories for purposes of Section 44A of the Civil Code. A judgment of a court of a country which is not a reciprocating territory may be enforced in India only by a suit on the judgment under Section 13 of the Civil Code, and not by proceedings in execution. Section 13 of the Civil Code provides that foreign judgments shall be conclusive regarding any matter directly adjudicated on except (i) where the judgment has not been pronounced by a court of competent jurisdiction, (ii) where the judgment has not been given on the merits of the case, (iii) where it appears on the face of the proceedings that the judgment is founded on an incorrect view of international law or refusal to recognize the law of India in cases to which such law is applicable, (iv) where the proceedings in which the judgment was obtained were opposed to natural justice, (v) where the judgment has been obtained by fraud or (vi) where the judgment sustains a claim founded on a breach of any law then in force in India. Under the Civil Code, a court in India shall, on the production of any document purporting to be a certified copy of a foreign judgment, presume that the judgment was pronounced by a court of competent jurisdiction, unless the contrary appears on record. The Civil Code only permits the enforcement of monetary decrees, not being in the nature of any amounts payable in respect of taxes, other charges, finances or penalties. Judgments or decrees from jurisdictions which do not have reciprocal recognition with India cannot be enforced by proceedings in execution in India. Therefore, a final judgment for the payment of money rendered by any court in a non-reciprocating territory for civil liability, whether or not predicated solely upon the general laws of the non-reciprocating territory, would not be enforceable in India. Even if an investor obtained a judgment in such a jurisdiction against us, our officers or directors, it may be required to institute a new proceeding in India and obtain a decree from an Indian court.

However, the party in whose favor such final judgment is rendered may bring a new suit in a competent court in India based on a final judgment that has been obtained in the United States or other such jurisdiction within three years of obtaining such final judgment. It is unlikely that an Indian court would award damages on the same basis as a foreign court if an action is brought in India. Moreover, it is unlikely that an Indian court would award damages to the extent awarded in a final judgment rendered outside India if it believes that the amount of damages awarded were excessive or inconsistent with Indian practice. In addition, any person seeking to enforce a foreign judgment in India is required to obtain the prior approval of the RBI to repatriate any amount recovered.

49. Under Indian law, foreign investors are subject to investment restrictions that limit our ability to attract foreign investors, which may adversely affect the trading price of the Equity Shares.

Foreign ownership of Indian securities is subject to Government regulation. Under foreign exchange regulations currently in force in India, transfer of shares between non-residents and residents are freely permitted (subject to certain exceptions), if they comply with the pricing and reporting requirements specified by the RBI. If a transfer of shares is not in compliance with such requirements and does not fall under any of the exceptions specified by the RBI, then the RBI's prior approval is required. Additionally, shareholders who seek to convert Rupee proceeds from a sale of shares in India into foreign currency and repatriate that foreign currency from India require a no-objection or a tax clearance certificate from the Indian income tax authorities. As provided in the foreign exchange controls currently in effect in India, the RBI has provided that the price at which the Equity Shares are transferred be calculated in accordance with internationally accepted pricing methodology for the valuation of shares at an arm's length basis, and a higher (or lower, as applicable) price per share may not be permitted. We cannot assure you that any required approval from the RBI or any other governmental agency can be obtained on any particular term or at all. For further details, see "Restrictions on Foreign Ownership of Indian Securities" on page 340.

50. Significant differences exist between Ind AS and other accounting principles, such as US GAAP and IFRS, which may be material to investors' assessments of our financial condition.

The financial statements included in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus have been prepared in accordance with Ind AS. We have not attempted to quantify the impact of US GAAP or IFRS on the financial data included in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus, nor do we provide a reconciliation of our financial statements to those of US GAAP or IFRS. US GAAP and IFRS differ in significant respects from Ind AS. Accordingly, the degree to which the Ind AS financial statements, which are restated as per the SEBI ICDR Regulations included in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus, will provide meaningful information is entirely dependent on the reader's level of familiarity with Indian accounting practices. Any reliance by persons not familiar with Indian accounting practices on the financial disclosures presented in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus should be limited accordingly.

51. Rights of shareholders under Indian laws may differ to those under the laws of other jurisdictions.

Indian legal principles related to corporate procedures, directors' fiduciary duties and liabilities, and shareholders' rights may differ from those that would apply to a company in another jurisdiction. Shareholders' rights including in relation to class actions, under Indian law may not be similar to the shareholders' rights under the laws of other countries or jurisdictions.

Risks Related to the Offer

52. The Offer Price of the Equity Shares may not be indicative of the market price of the Equity Shares after the Offer.

The Offer Price of the Equity Shares will be determined by our Company and the Promoter Selling Shareholders in consultation with the Lead Managers, and through the Book Building Process. This price will be based on numerous factors, as described under "Basis for Offer Price" on page 80 and may not be indicative of the market price for the Equity Shares after the Offer. The market price of the Equity Shares could be subject to significant fluctuations after the Offer, and may decline below the Offer Price. We cannot assure you that the investor will be able to resell their Equity Shares at or above the Offer Price.

53. The Equity Shares have never been publicly traded, and, after the Offer, the Equity Shares may experience price and volume fluctuations, and an active trading market for the Equity Shares may not develop.

Prior to the Offer, there has been no public market for the Equity Shares, and an active trading market on the Stock Exchanges may not develop or be sustained after the Offer. Listing and quotation does not guarantee that a market for the Equity Shares will develop, or if developed, the liquidity of such market for the Equity Shares. The Offer Price of the Equity Shares is proposed to be determined through a book-building process and may not be indicative of the market price of the Equity Shares at the time of commencement of trading of the Equity Shares or at any time thereafter. The market price of the Equity Shares may be subject to significant fluctuations in response to, among other factors, variations in our operating results of our Company, market conditions specific to the industry we operate in, developments relating to India, volatility in securities markets in jurisdictions other than India, variations in the growth rate of financial indicators, variations in revenue or earnings estimates by research publications, and changes in economic, legal and other regulatory factors.

54. Fluctuation in the exchange rate between the Indian Rupee and foreign currencies may have an adverse effect on the value of our Equity Shares, independent of our operating results.

On listing, our Equity Shares will be quoted in Indian Rupees on the Stock Exchanges. Any dividends in respect of our Equity Shares will also be paid in Indian Rupees and subsequently converted into the relevant foreign currency for repatriation, if required. Any adverse movement in currency exchange rates during the time that it takes to undertake such conversion may reduce the net dividend to foreign investors. In addition, any adverse movement in currency exchange rates during a delay in repatriating outside India the proceeds from a sale of Equity Shares, for example, because of a delay in regulatory approvals that may be required for the sale of Equity Shares may reduce the proceeds received by Equity Shareholders. For example, the exchange rate between the Rupee and the U.S. dollar has fluctuated in recent years and may continue to fluctuate substantially in the future, which may have an adverse effect on the returns on our Equity Shares, independent of our operating results.

55. Any future issuance of Equity Shares, or convertible securities or other equity-linked securities by us may dilute your shareholding and adversely affect the trading price of the Equity Shares.

Any future issuance of the Equity Shares, convertible securities or securities linked to the Equity Shares by us, including through exercise of employee stock options may dilute your shareholding in our Company, adversely affect the trading price of the Equity Shares and our ability to raise capital through an issue of our securities. In addition, any perception by investors that such issuances or sales might occur could also affect the trading price of the Equity Shares. We cannot assure you that we will not issue additional Equity Shares. The disposal of Equity Shares by any of our Promoters and Promoter Group, or the perception that such sales may occur may significantly affect the trading price of the Equity Shares. Except as disclosed in “Capital Structure” on page 57, we cannot assure you that our Promoters and Promoter Group will not dispose of, pledge or encumber their Equity Shares in the future.

56. Holders of Equity Shares may be restricted in their ability to exercise pre-emptive rights under Indian law and thereby suffer future dilution of their ownership position.

A public company incorporated in India must offer its equity shareholders pre-emptive rights to subscribe and pay for a proportionate number of equity shares to maintain their existing ownership percentages prior to issuance of any new equity shares, unless the pre-emptive rights have been waived by the adoption of a special resolution by holders of three-fourths of the equity shares voting on such resolution.

However, if the law of the jurisdiction that you are in does not permit the exercise of such pre-emptive rights without our filing an offering document or registration statement with the applicable authority in such jurisdiction, you will be unable to exercise such pre-emptive rights, unless we make such a filing. If we elect not to file a registration statement, the new securities may be issued to a custodian, who may sell the securities for your benefit. The value such custodian receives on the sale of any such securities and the related transaction costs cannot be predicted. To the extent that you are unable to exercise pre-emptive rights granted in respect of our Equity Shares, your proportional interests in our Company would be diluted.

57. QIBs and Non-Institutional Investors are not permitted to withdraw or lower their Bids (in terms of quantity of Equity Shares or the Bid Amount) at any stage after submitting a Bid.

Pursuant to the SEBI ICDR Regulations, QIBs and Non-Institutional Investors are not permitted to withdraw or lower their Bids (in terms of quantity of Equity Shares or the Bid Amount) at any stage after submitting a Bid. RIBs can revise or withdraw their Bids during the Bid/Offer Period. While our Company is required to complete Allotment pursuant to the Offer within such period as may be prescribed under applicable law, events affecting the Bidders’ decision to invest in the Equity Shares, including adverse changes in international or national monetary policy, financial, political or economic conditions, our business, results of operation or financial condition may arise between the date of submission of the Bid and Allotment. Our Company may complete the Allotment of the Equity Shares even if such events occur, and such events limit the Bidders' ability to sell the Equity Shares Allotted pursuant to the Offer or cause the trading price of the Equity Shares to decline on listing.

Details of the Objects of the Fresh Issue

The details in relation to objects of the Fresh Issue are set forth herein below.

Augment our capital base

We are a housing finance company in India and are registered with the NHB and are a notified financial institution under the SARFAESI Act. We primarily offer customers home loans for the purchase or construction of homes. For details, see “Our Business” on page 132.

As per the NHB Directions, we are required to maintain a minimum capital adequacy ratio, consisting of Tier I capital and Tier II capital. Regulation 30 of the NHB Directions currently requires all HFCs to comply with a CRAR, consisting of Tier I and Tier II capital, of not less than 13% of its aggregate risk weighted assets and of risk adjusted value of off-balance sheet items, on or before March 31, 2020, 14% on or before March 31, 2021 and 15% on or before March 31, 2022 and thereafter. At a minimum, Tier I capital of an HFC cannot be less than 10%. Further, we are required to ensure that the total Tier II capital at any point of time, should not exceed 100% of Tier – I capital. For details, see “Key Regulations and Policies in India” on page 151.

As of September 30, 2019, our Company’s CRAR - Tier I capital, in accordance with the Restated Financial Information, was 46.8%. The Net Proceeds are proposed to be utilized for increasing our capital base. We anticipate that the Net Proceeds will be sufficient to satisfy our Company’s Tier- I capital requirements for Financial Year 2020.

The Net Proceeds will be utilised to increase our Company’s Tier I capital base to meet our future capital requirements which are expected to arise out of growth of our business and assets, primarily our housing loans and other mortgage loans, and to ensure compliance with the NHB Directions.

Accordingly, the Net Proceeds are proposed to be utilized for increasing our Company’s capital base which will be utilized towards our Company’s business and growth including towards onwards lending, payment of operating expenditure, purchase of assets and repayment of outstanding loans and interest thereon as part of our business activities.

Overview of the Indian Economy

India’s gross domestic product (“GDP”), at constant 2011-2012 prices, has grown at a CAGR of 7.5% over the past five years. Private consumption and investment drove India’s GDP growth from Fiscal 2014 to Fiscal 2019. Low inflation, benign interest rates and revision in salaries of government employees as per the Seventh Pay Commission recommendations strengthened growth in private consumption. Investments saw a gradual pick-up in the last few years, most of which was led by government spending either through budgetary resources or by pushing public sector enterprises to take on capital expenditure. Exports, which had briefly picked up in 2017 and the first half of 2018 with recovering global growth, lost momentum since the second half of 2018 as rising US-China trade tensions slowed global growth. While slowdown in fixed investment, private consumption and export growth weighed down growth in the last quarter of Fiscal 2019, higher government consumption and slow import growth provided support.

The following graph sets our GDP growth over Fiscals 2014 to 2024 (constant 2011-2012 prices):

Note: E-Provisional estimates, P-Projected

According to CRISIL, GDP growth shall remain subdued in Fiscal 2020 on account of weakening global momentum, and weak first quarter performance indicated by high frequency data. GDP growth in the first quarter of Fiscal 2020 estimate at 5.0%, which is the slowest in 25 quarters, on account of decline in domestic private consumption demand and manufacturing, halving of merchandise exports growth, and a high-base effect from the previous year. Growth may pick up in the second half of Fiscal 2020, supported by softer interest rates and budgetary measures to push consumption. Under the assumption that the second quarter will see some mild pick-up in growth that will continue through the year, CRISIL Research have forecasted growth for Fiscal 2020 at 6.3%. An easing monetary policy, improved transmission of rate cuts, and the Government’s minimum income support scheme to farmers would also feed into consumption.

The following graph sets forth growth trend of nominal per capita GDP for the periods indicated below:

The prospects for the Indian economy are good in the long term. As per the International Monetary Fund forecast in October 2019, India's GDP is expected to grow at a CAGR of 7.3% over the next five years, higher than many emerging economies such as Brazil, Russia, and China. This growth in GDP will be supported by factors including, reform measures by the Government, benign inflation, rising consumer aspirations and needs, increasing urbanisation, key structural reforms such as implementation of the Goods and Services Tax ("GST") and the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016 ("IBC"), increasing digitalisation will improve the efficiency in the Indian economy leading to faster growth, and policies aimed towards greater formalisation of the Indian economy. (Source: CRISIL Report)

Sector Wise GDP Growth Rates in the First Quarter of Fiscal 2020

Growth of India's GDP (at constant 2011-2012 prices) declined sharply to a 25-quarter low 5.0% in the first quarter of Fiscal 2020 in year-on-year terms from 8.0% in the first quarter of Fiscal 2019. This unfavourable GDP print reflected the subdued expansion in private final consumption expenditure (+3.1%; a 28-quarter low), and gross fixed capital formation (+4.0%), which together accounted for approximately 88% of the India's GDP in the first quarter of Fiscal 2020. Moreover, the pace of growth of GDP displayed a substantial sequential decline in the first quarter of Fiscal 2020 relative to the pace of 5.8%, in the fourth quarter of Fiscal 2019 (Source: ICRA Report).

The following table sets out growth of India's GDP and their components over the periods indicated below (in %, constant 2011-2012 prices, year-on-year):

	Q1 Fiscal 2019	Q2 Fiscal 2019	Q3 Fiscal 2019	Q4 Fiscal 2019	Q1 Fiscal 2020
Private Final Consumption Expenditure ("PFCE")	7.3%	9.8%	8.1%	7.2%	3.1%
Government Final Consumption Expenditure ("GFCE")	6.6%	10.9%	6.5%	13.1%	8.8%
Exports	10.2%	12.7%	16.7%	10.6%	5.7%
less Imports	11.0%	22.9%	14.5%	13.3%	4.2%
Gross Fixed Capital Formation ("GFCF")	13.3%	11.8%	11.7%	3.6%	4.0%
GDP	8.0%	7.0%	6.6%	5.8%	5.0%

Note: After disaggregating GDP into its expenditure components, such as PFCE, GFCE and GFCF, the residual component that remains is termed as Discrepancies. The latter can vary from positive to negative in various years. Fluctuation in the discrepancies figure from one year to the next can affect the growth of the various subcomponents of GDP.

State Wise GDP Contribution

GDP growth has been varied across states with Andhra Pradesh growing at the fastest rate of 11.2% CAGR (over Fiscals 2015 to 2019), followed by Karnataka (11.0%), Telangana (10.4%), Gujarat (10.4%) and Odisha (9.6%). As per the Ministry of Statistics and Programme Implementation, India's overall GDP per capita at constant prices stood at ₹ 105,688 in Fiscal 2019. Compared with this, states such as Delhi, Haryana and Karnataka have significantly higher real per capita income ("PCI") than other states as well as the PCI of India, as illustrated below:

Growth Trends of Gross Fixed Capital Formation by Indian Household Sector in Dwellings, Other buildings and Structures

The growth trends of gross fixed capital formation (“GFCF”) by the Indian household sector, particularly in dwellings, other buildings and structures (at constant 2011-2012 prices), has displayed considerable volatility in the recent years. After contracting by 5.3% in Fiscal 2013, GFCF by households in dwellings, other buildings and structures (at constant 2011-2012 prices) rebounded to a year-on-year growth of 2.4% in Fiscal 2014. However, the following two fiscals witnessed a reversal in this trend, with household GFCF in dwellings, other buildings and structures contracting by 0.2% and a steep 20.1%, respectively, in Fiscals 2015 and 2016. Subsequently, GFCF by households in dwellings, other buildings and structures recovered to a muted expansion of 0.1% in Fiscal 2017 (Source: ICRA Report).

Key Structural Reforms: Long-Term Positives for Indian Economy

Financial Inclusion. The Government has two key schemes to increase financial inclusion – the Pradhan Mantri Jan Dhan Yojana (“PMJDY”) and Pradhan Mantri Jeevan Jyoti Bima Yojana (“PMJJBY”). The PMJDY’s mission is to ensure that every household in India has a bank account, can access their account from anywhere and has affordable access to all financial services such as savings and deposit accounts, remittance, credit and insurance. PMJDY focuses on household coverage as against earlier schemes that focused on coverage of villages. As on June 26, 2019, 360 million new accounts have been opened, of which 59% are in rural and semi-urban areas with total deposits of ₹ 996 billion. The PMJJBY is a one-year life insurance scheme that offers a life cover of ₹ 0.2 million at a premium of ₹ 330 per annum per member, which can be renewed every year. More than 100 million people have registered for these two social security schemes. The Government also has an accident insurance scheme, the Pradhan Mantri Suraksha Bima Yojana (“PMSBY”), which offers ₹ 0.2 million cover for death and full disability at a premium of ₹ 12 annually.

Implementation of GST. Introduced on July 1, 2017, GST is an indirect tax regime that subsumed multiple cascading taxes levied by the Central and State Governments. Its implementation has resulted in structural changes in the supply chain and logistics network in India.

Thrust on Affordable Housing. The Government has launched an affordable housing initiative called the Pradhan Mantri Awas Yojana – Urban (“PMAY-U”) that promises houses for all by 2022. As part of the scheme, the Government has been giving incentives to developers to build houses that the poor can afford. The scheme also offers homebuyers’ credit-linked subsidy schemes (“CLSS”).

IBC. IBC is a reform that structurally strengthens identification and resolution of stressed assets in India. It enhances the credit enforcement structure and provides certainty to the timelines for resolution of insolvency. It attempts to simplify legal processes, preserves value for creditors and provides them with greater certainty of outcome. The code is a strong message to borrowers to adhere to credit discipline. The effective implementation of the IBC is expected to enhance investors' confidence in India.

Reduction in Tax Rates for Domestic Companies and New Manufacturing Companies. On September 20, 2019, the Finance Minister announced the Taxation Laws (Amendment) Ordinance 2019 to make certain amendments in the Income Tax Act, 1961 to allow any domestic company an option to pay income tax at the rate of 22% subject to condition that they will not avail any exemption or incentive. The effective tax rate for these companies shall be 25.17% inclusive of surcharge and cess. Also, such companies shall not be required to pay minimum alternate tax. In order to attract fresh investment in manufacturing and thereby provide boost to 'Make-in-India' initiative of the Government, another new provision has been inserted in the Income Tax Act with effect from Fiscal 2020, which allows any new domestic company incorporated on or after October 1, 2019 making fresh investment in manufacturing, an option to pay income tax at the rate of 15%. This benefit is available to companies which do not avail any exemption or incentive and commences their production on or before March 31, 2023. The effective tax rate for these companies shall be 17.01% inclusive of surcharge and cess. Also, such companies shall not be required to pay minimum alternate tax. Further, in order to provide relief to companies that continue to avail exemptions or incentives, the rate of minimum alternate tax has been reduced from existing 18.5% to 15.0%. Digitisation: Catalyst for the Next Growth Cycle

Technology is expected to play a pivotal role in taking the financial sector to the next level of growth, by helping surmount the challenges stemming from India's vast geography, which makes physical footprints in smaller locations commercially unviable. With increasing smartphone penetration and faster data speeds, consumers are now embracing digitisation as they find it more convenient.

Mobile and internet penetration: Higher mobile penetration, improved connectivity and faster and cheaper data speed have helped India begin its shift from being a cash-dominated economy to a digital one, supported by the Aadhaar and bank account penetration. India has approximately 1.2 billion mobile users, of which, 41% use smartphones. CRISIL Research expects the share of smartphones to increase significantly in the coming years. The total number of internet users in the country is more than 400 million.

The following graph sets forth increased adoption of smartphones:

The following graph sets forth data subscribers as a proportion of overall subscribers:

(Source: CRISIL Report)

Rise in 4G penetration and smartphone usage: Digital revolution has paved the way for digital payments. India had more than 1.2 billion wireless subscribers as of March 2018, and the number is growing at a decent pace every year. The reach of mobile network, internet and electricity is also helping digital payments expand to remote areas. Mobile data consumption in India has grown approximately 25 times in the past five fiscals. CRISIL Research expects the number to double to more than 900 million by Fiscal 2024, given the low penetration.

According to NITI Aayog report of January 2017, digital payments and per capita transactions in India are amongst the lowest (11 non-cash transactions per capita per annum) compared to China (26), Mexico (32), South Africa (70), Brazil (142), UK (355) and Singapore (728).

CRISIL Research expects the share of mobile banking and prepaid payment instruments to increase drastically in the coming years. Improved data connectivity, lower digital payment penetration and proactive Government measures are expected to drive digital adoption in India. Players with better mobile and digital platforms are expected to draw more customers and emerge as winners in the long term.

The Housing Scenario in India

As per Census of India, 2011, the number of households increased from 192 million in 2001 to 247 million in 2011, at a CAGR of 1.3%. During the same period, housing stock increased from 187 million (2001) units to 245 million (2011). Out of these 245 million houses, approximately 61 million houses are obsolescent or congested or non-serviceable.

The Housing Shortage in India

Despite the constant focus on the housing segment, housing in India is far from adequate. The GoI, in its Twelfth Five Year Plan (2012 to 2017), accorded this issue utmost importance and focused on increasing the amount of housing units available both in the urban as well as the rural sector. As per the estimates of the Twelfth Five Year Plan, the shortage of housing in the urban segment stood at 18.78 million. The economically weaker section (“EWS”) accounts for three-fourths of the shortage and the lower income group (“LIG”) approximately accounts for a quarter of housing shortage.

As per the estimates of the Twelfth Five Year Plan, 10 states accounted for approximately 76% of the urban housing shortage. Uttar Pradesh has a housing shortage of over three million, followed by Maharashtra (1.94 million), West Bengal (1.33 million), Andhra Pradesh (1.27 million) and Tamil Nadu (1.25 million).

The following graph sets out state-wise urban housing shortage:

Household Sizes and Number of Dwelling Rooms

With increased urbanisation, India is also moving towards higher nuclearisation leading to smaller family sizes. This is also reflected in the steady reduction in average household size from 5.5 members per household as of 1991 to 5.3 members in 2001 to 4.8 members, as per Census 2011. Furthermore, according to the Census of India, 2011, majority of the Indian households live in a one-room or two-room house. According to the National Sample Survey Organisation (“NSSO”) Survey on Housing Conditions conducted in 2012, the average floor area of a dwelling unit was 40.03 sq. m in rural India and 39.20 sq. m in urban India during 2012. The average household size in India was 4.5. It was 4.8 in rural India and 4.2 in urban India. The states of Uttar Pradesh and Jammu and Kashmir had the highest average household size of 5.9 and 5.6 respectively, whereas in the states of Andhra Pradesh and Tamil Nadu, the average household size was 4.1 and 4.0 respectively.

The following graph sets out state-wise average household size:

India's Mortgage Penetration Lower than Other Economies

As of March 2019, the total outstanding retail housing loans in India was ₹ 18.7 trillion, translating into a mortgage-to-GDP ratio of 12.4%. While the ratio has improved over the last few years, it is still lower than several other emerging and developed economies. CRISIL Research analysis indicates the mortgage penetration in India is 9 to 11 years behind other regional emerging markets such as China. Going forward, CRISIL Research expects a steady and gradual increase in mortgage penetration due to various structural drivers, such as a young population, smaller family sizes, increased urbanisation and rising income levels.

The following graph sets forth Mortgage-to-GDP ratio in India compared with other countries (2017):

Note: (*) – As of calendar year 2019, (^) As of calendar year 2016

Rise in Per Capita Income to Drive the Growth of Mortgage Penetration in India

The mortgage penetration in China is correlated to the GDP per capita of the country. The GDP-to-mortgage ratio of China has grown from 12% in 2008 to 26% in 2017. The per capita income of the country has increased from USD 7,900 to USD 15,300 during the same period. India has gone through a similar trajectory with mortgage penetration in the country increasing from 6% in 2008 to 9% in 2017 that is correlated to the increase in per capita income of the country from USD 3,900 in 2008 to USD 6,500 in 2017. CRISIL Research expects that India will continue on this trajectory to reach mortgage penetration of 15% by Fiscal 2024.

The following graph sets forth mortgage penetration levels (2008-2017):

(Source: CRISIL Report)

India's Mortgage Penetration Expected to Touch 15% by 2024

In Fiscal 2019, India's mortgage-to-GDP ratio stood at 12.4%. Though low compared with other developing countries, it has significantly improved from 6.5% in Fiscal 2009. The factors that contributed to the improvement are rising incomes, improving affordability, growing urbanisation and nuclearisation of families, emergence of tier-II and tier-III cities, ease of financing, tax incentives, and widening reach of financiers. Given the expected steady growth, CRISIL Research projects the ratio at 15.2% by Fiscal 2024.

The following graph sets forth trend in Mortgage-to-GDP ratio in India (2005-2024P):

Factors Affecting Mortgage-to-GDP Ratio in India

Mortgage penetration in India is lower than other emerging economies owing to lower per capita income and higher proportion of informal employment in the country. However, CRISIL Research believes rising urbanisation, growing disposable income, and favourable demographics will lead to higher mortgage penetration going forward.

Low per capita GDP in India: An analysis by CRISIL Research indicates that housing loan penetration increases at relatively higher levels of per capita GDP. In other words, India's lower per capita income acts as a constraint to deeper mortgage penetration.

Relatively high house prices: Housing demand has a direct relationship with affordability of homes and annual income. Though affordability of homes has improved in the last few years due to real estate prices remaining stagnant and rising incomes, home prices are obstinately high in several parts of the country. Affordability is arrived at dividing home price with average annual income.

High percentage of population in informal employment: Higher proportion of informal employment makes income assessment difficult and increases credit risk premiums, thereby impacting the mortgage market growth. According to a report by the International Labour Organisation (“ILO”), the overall proportion of informal workers in total employment is nearly 92% in India based on a survey conducted in 2011 to 2012. These informal workers includes workers in the unorganised sector and informal workers in organised sector (i.e. workers without access to social security).

Information asymmetry in smaller cities: Data availability in India has improved with access to a number of online property portals and databases. However, information asymmetry persists, especially in smaller cities, where reliable valuation is also generally difficult to obtain.

Inadequate legal infrastructure: According to the World Bank’s Ease of Doing Business index, India ranks low in registering property. A country’s legal and regulatory support that ensures ease in dealing with property-related matters and cost-effective foreclosure of loans in a timely manner is critical for development of the housing loan market. However, India lags behind in this respect. (Source: CRISIL Report)

State-Wise Mortgage Penetration in India

The mortgage-to-GDP ratio as of March 2018 varies widely for the top 15 states ranging between 5.7% and 15.6%. Maharashtra has the highest mortgage penetration with the ratio at 15.6% followed by Karnataka (12.4%), Telangana (12.0%), Tamil Nadu (11.1%) and Delhi (10.5%).

The following table sets forth state-wise Mortgage-to-GDP ratio (Fiscal 2018):

States	Per Capita Income (₹ '000)	Home mortgage loan outstanding as a % of GDP
Maharashtra	176	15.6%
Karnataka	188	12.4%
Telangana	181	12.0%

Trends on Affordability for Major Cities

Housing demand has a direct relationship with affordability of homes and annual income. Though affordability of homes has improved in the last few years due to real estate prices remaining stagnant and rising incomes, home prices are obstinately high in several parts of the country. Affordability is arrived at dividing home price with average income.

Indian Housing Finance Market

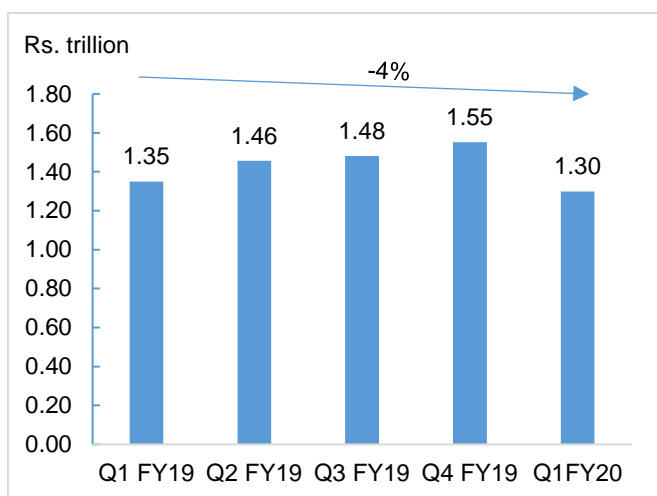

The Indian housing finance market experienced a healthy growth in housing loan outstanding of approximately 20% over Fiscals 2015 to 2019 on account of a rise in disposable income, healthy demand and a greater number of players entering the segment. CRISIL Research expects housing loans outstanding to grow to ₹ 28.4 trillion by Fiscal 2022, at 15% CAGR in the next three years. With ticket sizes expected to remain stagnant, the growth in home loans is expected to be entirely volume-driven. First-time borrowers, who currently account for around 60% of the market by value and 70% by volume, would continue to drive the growth.

The following graphs set forth growth in housing loan disbursement and credit outstanding over periods indicated below:

Growth in housing loan disbursement Growth in credit outstanding

The home loan disbursements in the first quarter of Fiscal 2020 observed a de-growth of 4% on year because of the tight liquidity conditions faced by NBFCs and HFCs. Over the same period, the credit outstanding grew by 18%, as illustrated by the following graphs:

(Source: CRISIL Report)

Market Share of Various Players in Housing Finance

The following graphs set forth market share of various players based on housing loan outstanding and housing loan disbursement:

Market share based on housing loan outstanding

Market share based on housing loan disbursement

Note: The above classification of player groups is done as per the RBI. Others primarily include foreign banks, non-banking financing companies, regional rural banks, and cooperative banks.

Although public sector banks lead in terms of value, in terms of volume, housing finance companies (“HFCs”) have the highest market share compared with other lending institutions. The market share of HFCs, in terms of volume, have increased from 35% in Fiscal 2015 to 47% in Fiscal 2019, which can be attributed to rising focus of HFCs on lower ticket size loans and their relatively stronger market presence in this category compared with banks. (Source: CRISIL Report)

Market Share Growth of HFCs Loses Momentum due to Liquidity Crisis

With tightened liquidity post the Infrastructure Leasing and Financial Services (“IL&FS”) default in September 2018, HFCs have encountered structural challenges in the form of increased refinancing risk and asset-liability mismatch, which slowed down disbursements in Fiscal 2019. HFCs' access to funds from the debt capital markets has also declined considerably, especially for those companies with high negative asset liability management (“ALM”) mismatches. Consequently, several players in the industry have been focusing on managing ALM rather than growing their book. Resultantly, overall credit growth in housing loans for HFCs declined 8% on-year in Fiscal 2019. Hence, of the total amount of home loan outstanding of ₹ 18.7 trillion as of March 2019, HFCs accounted for 39% share.

Note: Market share is based on retail finance-housing outstanding.

Share of Top 15 States in Housing Loan Outstanding and Loan Disbursement

The housing loan market remains fairly concentrated in top 15 states which account for approximately 93% of the loan outstanding as of March 2019. Maharashtra tops with the overall share of 23% followed by Karnataka (10%), Tamil Nadu (9%), Gujarat (8%) and Telangana (6%). Cumulatively, the top four states account for over half the housing loans outstanding.

The following table sets forth the share of few states in housing loan outstanding and housing loan disbursement:

Growth Drivers for Housing Finance

Higher transparency in the sector, increasing affordability and urbanisation, and government incentives is expected to push up the housing finance market over the next five years.

Rising Urbanisation. The share of urban population in relation to the total population has been consistently rising over the years. The urban population was 377 million in 2011, marking a CAGR of 2.8%; rural population was 833 million, up at a CAGR of 1.16%. Urbanisation levels rose from 28% in 2001 to about 31% in 2011. A United Nations report, World Urbanization Prospects: The 2011 Revision, expects nearly 36% of the country's population to live in urban areas by 2020. This percentage is expected to increase further in the years to come, thereby translating into higher demand for housing and related amenities in the urban areas.

The following graph sets forth the urban and rural growth over the period indicated:

Favourable demographics: Currently, India has one of the largest young population in the world, with a median age of 28 years. CRISIL Research expects that approximately 90% of Indians will be below the age of 60 years by 2020, of which 63% will be between 15 and 59 years. Comparatively, as of 2012, US, China and Brazil had 74%, 62% and 78% of their population below the age of 60 years.

The following graph sets forth India’s demographic dividend (2001-2031P):

Rising Nuclearisation. Nuclearisation refers to formation of multiple single families out of one large joint family. Each family lives in a separate house, while the ancestral house may be retained or partitioned to buy new houses. Nuclearisation in urban areas is primarily driven by changing lifestyle of people, individualism, changing social/cultural attitudes, and increased mobility of labour in search of better employment opportunities. These trends are expected to continue in future. Average household size has fallen from 5.5 in 1991 to 5.3 in 2001 and 4.8 in 2011, as per Census 2011.

Changing Floor Space Requirement. Floor space requirement is dependent on the family size as well as affordability determined by income levels. With increasing nuclearisation, the per capita floor space area required reduces as the family size shrinks. As income rises, people shift to bigger houses, thus increasing demand. For lower income groups, floor space required is marginally higher in rural areas than in urban areas. This may be attributed to lower prices in rural areas.

Rising Demand for Independent Houses. Indians traditionally prefer to live in independent houses. However, the increase in population density, especially in urban areas, has increased the demand for flats. This will continue to drive the demand for such homes, which are often self-constructed, especially in the smaller cities.

Declining Age of Home Loan Borrowers. Average age of borrowers has been declining over the years and was estimated at 33-34 years in Fiscal 2018. CRISIL Research expects this figure to decline further to 30 years in Fiscal 2024 with growth in salaries and people's strengthening preference for accumulating assets, both for investment purpose and tax benefits. (Source: CRISIL Report)

Government Initiatives

The Government’s scheme to provide housing for all by 2022 and various steps taken to implement it are expected to boost sales of affordable and low-cost housing units. This is expected to, consequently, increase the demand for loans. Under the “Housing for All” mission, the Government has introduced CLSS as a demand-side intervention in order to expand institutional credit flow and meet the urban demand.

Affordable Housing. Under the PMAY-U, the target was to construct 10 million houses over Fiscals 2016 to 2022. Of this, 8.4 million have been sanctioned as of July 2019. Of the sanctioned houses, 2.6 million have been constructed and 2.2 million are under construction. The flow of funds from the Government remains crucial for the scheme’s success.

Interest Subsidy under PMAY. Under the “Housing for All” scheme, in order to expand institutional credit flow to the urban population, the Government has introduced the CLSS as a demand-side intervention. The subsidy will be provided on home loans for eligible urban population to acquire and construct houses. For loans of up to ₹ 0.6 million for EWS and LIG beneficiaries, the interest subsidy has been fixed at 6.5% for eligible borrowers buying a home of up to 60 sq. m carpet area. In case the beneficiary takes a loan higher than ₹ 0.6 million, no subsidy would be available on the additional amount.

In February 2017, the CLSS was extended to include middle-income group (“MIG”) households with incomes ranging in ₹ 0.6 to 1.8 million per annum. This move is expected to boost the loan disbursements over the coming fiscals.

Category	Annual Household Income (₹)	Loan Amount (₹)	Interest Subsidy	Size of the proposed house (carpet area; sq. mt)
EWS and LWG	Up to 0.6 million	0.6 million	6.5%	60
MIG 1	Between 0.6 – 1.2 million	0.9 million	4%	160
MIG 2	Between 1.2 – 1.8 million	1.2 million	3%	200

Last Mile Affordable Housing Funding Package and Relaxation of External Commercial Borrowings Guidelines. The Government has announced ₹ 100 billion special window to provide last-mile funding for the completion of ongoing housing projects that are non-NPA, non-NCLT and are net worth positive in affordable and middle-income category. The Government will contribute about ₹ 100 billion and outside investors, such as Life Insurance Corporation of India, private capital and sovereign wealth funds and development finance institutions, will contribute roughly the same amount. The objective of this move is to focus on the construction of unfinished units, and this move is expected to benefit roughly 0.35 million projects in India. The Government also announced that the guidelines of External Commercial Borrowings (“ECB”) would be relaxed to facilitate financing of home buyers. This will be carried out in consultation with the RBI to help identify eligible beneficiaries under PMAY. The relaxation to be provided will be in addition to the existing norms for the ECB for affordable housing.

Tax Incentives. The Government has traditionally used tax concessions to promote the housing and housing finance sectors. In the Union Budget for Fiscal 2020, the Government enhanced interest deduction on loans taken until March 31, 2020, for purchase of houses valued up to ₹ 4.5 million to ₹ 0.35 million from ₹ 0.2 million. Other tax benefits available for home loan consumers include: (i) annual interest payments of up to ₹ 200,000 (₹ 300,000 for senior citizens) on housing loans can be claimed as a deduction from taxable income; (ii) principal repayments of up to ₹ 150,000 on a housing loan are allowed as a deduction from gross total income; and (iii) an additional deduction in respect of interest of ₹ 50,000 per annum has been provided exclusively for first-time home buyers, given the property value is up to ₹ 5 million and the loan is up to ₹ 3.5 million.

Real Estate (Regulation and Development) Act, 2016. The implementation of the Real Estate (Regulation and Development) Act (the “RERA Act”) in 2016 had a direct impact on the supply-demand dynamics in the sector. The RERA Act is expected to improve transparency, timely delivery, and organized operations over time. The RERA Act does not permit developers to launch new projects unless they are registered with the real estate authority. The RERA Act also puts an end to fund diversion across projects as it mandates 70% of the funds collected from customers for a specific project to be maintained in a separate escrow account, and used only for the same project.

GST. GST is expected to bring in transparency and simplicity on account of the availability of input tax credit (“ITC”) paid on inputs, capital goods and input services. A drastic 700 bps reduction in GST from 8% to 1% for under-construction affordable housing projects (effective rate after deducting one-third for land cost) and from 12% to 5% for other under-construction housing projects (effective rate after deducting one-third for land cost) with effect from April 2019 has reduced the differential between GST for ready possession and under-construction properties, and is likely to increase end-user demand.

Facility of Corpus Withdrawal by Employees' Provident Fund Organisation. To promote the “Housing for All” by 2022 scheme, the Government has streamlined and eased various related means for people to avail benefits and, in turn, promote the housing sector. In a similar effort, the Employees' Provident Fund Organisation (“EPFO”), in 2017, allowed its members to withdraw up to 90% of their provident fund accumulations (if it is less than the cost of the property) to make down payment for a house. To help boost the housing sector, only fresh purchases are allowed this facility and not purchases from the secondary market. EPFO has also allowed its members to use their provident fund contributions to pay monthly equated monthly instalments for home loans. (Source: CRISIL Report)

Regulator Initiatives

Regulatory Authority on HFCs Shifted from NHB to the RBI. The Union Budget 2019-2020 announced the transfer of regulatory power on HFCs from NHB to the RBI. This is expected to result in more streamlined regulations and implementation as well as better risk management framework for HFCs. The RBI Act will be amended to give the central bank powers to regulate HFCs. This move is expected to ensure there is greater parity in regulations for NBFCs and HFCs.

Increase in Public Sector Lending Eligibility. The RBI has increased (under the notification released in June 2018) the eligibility for public sector lending (“PSL”) in housing loans with a view to converge PSL guidelines with PMAY. The eligibility has been increased from ₹ 2.8 million to ₹ 3.5 million for metropolitan centres and from ₹ 2 million to ₹ 2.5 million for other centres. The cost of dwelling unit has been capped at ₹ 4.5 million in metropolitan centres and at ₹ 3 million in other centres.

Low Risk Weight and Standard Assets Provisioning on Home Loans. Since 2013, risk weight for housing loans has been continuously reduced in a progressive manner. As of August 2019, the risk weight for housing loans with a loan-to-value (“LTV”) ratio lower than or equal to 80% is 35% for home loans up to ₹ 7.5 million, while for home loans greater than ₹ 7.5 million with LTV less than or equal to 75%, the risk weight is 50%. In case the LTV for loans up to ₹ 3.0 million is greater than 80%, the risk weight is 50%. The steep reduction in risk weights, from 75% to 125% prior to 2013, indicates the superior experience with the asset quality of housing loans and the comfort of the regulators with the asset class. Lower risk weight has enabled HFCs and banks to lend more against their capital. Furthermore, in June 2017, the RBI lowered the standard assets provisioning on individual housing loans to 0.25% from 0.4% earlier.

NHB's Refinance Schemes to Aid Borrowing Cost for HFCs Catering to Affordable Housing Segment. While access to the debt markets allows large HFCs to mobilise resources at competitive rates, niche HFCs have benefited from the NHB's refinance schemes. The NHB runs various schemes under which it refinances banks and HFCs.

Increased Refinancing Limits. NHB has raised refinancing target from ₹ 240 billion in July 2018 to ₹ 300 billion for July 2019. Further, the RBI has increased the ceiling for lending to a single NBFC from 10% to 15% until December 2019. The RBI has also reduced the minimum holding requirement for NBFCs raising funds through securitisation of loans of original maturity above five years. The NBFCs will now be allowed to securitise loans after showing six months of repayments against the earlier requirement of 12 months.

Access to SARFAESI Helps HFCs Accelerate Recoveries. Securitisation and Reconstruction of Financial Assets and Enforcement of Securities Interest (“SARFAESI”) Act, 2002, allows lenders in India auction commercial or residential properties to recover loans. For HFCs, SARFAESI recovery is allowed for all loans of greater than ₹ 0.10 million ticket size. Over time, SARFAESI has proved to be an effective tool in the lender’s hands and has acted as a deterrent against wilful defaulters. (Source: CRISIL Report)

Government’s Thrust to Housing Sector through PMAY

PMAY-U, for ensuring housing for all in urban areas, was launched on June 25, 2015, to be implemented during 2015 to 2022. The mission provides central assistance to implementing agencies through states/union territories and central nodal agencies for providing houses to all eligible families/beneficiaries.

PMAY-U: Status

PMAY-U was launched with a target of building 12 million houses in urban areas across the country over seven years from 2015 to 2022. As of July 29, 2019, the progress of PMAY-U is represented below:

Houses sanctioned	8.5 million
Houses grounded	4.8 million
Houses completed	2.6 million
Total investment	₹ 4,960 billion
Central assistance released	₹ 514 billion

PMAY-U Housing Demand and Targets

As per the publicly available documents, under PMAY-U, demand reported so far by states/union territories is around 11.2 million. As on July 29, 2019, the number of houses sanctioned is 8.5 million and the number of houses where construction is completed is 2.6 million, which adds to 23% of the reported demand. To achieve the target, 8.6 million houses still need to be constructed. According to a statement of the Housing and Urban Affairs Minister in June, all the houses will be sanctioned by the first quarter of next year. The construction of houses and delivery of houses is expected to be completed by 2022. (Source: CRISIL Report)

Government Expenditure on PMAY-U

To achieve the target for housing for all by 2022, the Central Government needs to contribute a whopping ₹ 1.5 trillion in seven fiscals through 2022, at an average ₹ 0.15 million per house. As on July 29, 2019, the Government has already sanctioned ₹ 1.32 trillion. However, the central assistance released is about ₹ 0.52 trillion, which amounts to only one-third of the required assistance. Approximately ₹ 1 trillion still needs to be released from the Government to achieve the target by 2022.

Budgetary Allocation of Funds under PMAY-U

The following graph sets out the budgetary allocation under PMAY-U:

Note: B-Budgeted, P-Projected, IEBR may include bonds raised through entities such as Housing and Urban Development Corporation Limited. (Source: CRISIL Report)

Momentum in Implementation of PMAY-U

The implementation of PMAY-U gained momentum last year. Project investment of about ₹ 3,327 billion was approved from January 2018 to March 2019. Also, the number of housing units sanctioned and completed were the highest in the above period. A major driver for this progress is the extra budgetary resources of ₹ 250 billion provided by the Government.

PMAY-U Offers High Potential for HFCs

The scheme’s massive scale has supported growth in allied industries such as cement, steel and also housing finance disbursements. For example, in Fiscal 2019, aggregate disbursements by financiers under PMAY was ₹ 153 billion, accounting for approximately 3% of the total housing loans disbursed during the fiscal. Over the next few years as well, the scheme offers huge potential for growth for HFCs, given the quantum of construction activity envisaged. Most beneficiaries under the scheme would have relatively low-income levels, and, therefore, financiers focusing on this class of borrowers would benefit the most.

The following graph depicts that HFCs account for majority share in overall PMAY disbursement:

Distribution of Housing Demand

Faster growth in smaller districts and muted demand for high-ticket housing in metros have led to increased share of smaller districts (tier-II and below cities) in housing loans over the last couple of years. The top 50 districts in the country account for 72% of the housing demand in the country for the fiscal year 2019. Share of smaller districts in the home loan disbursements has grown in the last two years, as illustrated in the graph below. CRISIL Research expects the trend to continue going forward.

The following graph sets out district-wise share in housing loans:

- 1) The districts have been classified on the basis of home loan disbursements in Fiscal 2019.
- 2) Mumbai Metropolitan Region (“MMR”), National Capital Region (“NCR”), Bengaluru and Kanpur have each been considered as one district.
- 3) MMR includes Thane and Mumbai, NCR includes Delhi, Gurugram, Gautam Buddha Nagar, Ghaziabad and Faridabad, Bengaluru includes Bengaluru Urban and Bengaluru Rural, Kanpur includes Kanpur Nagar and Kanpur Dehat.

Healthy Housing Finance Market Growth

The housing loan market grew at approximately 18% CAGR between Fiscals 2014 and 2019. The share of the higher ticket segment increased from 44% in Fiscal 2015 to 54% in Fiscal 2019. The expansion in share was driven by increased housing project launches in the premium segment. The market share of higher ticket size segment is slowly increasing in terms of volume but more than 80% of the market share still lies with the lower ticket size segment (less than ₹ 2.5 million).

The following graph sets forth the ticket size-wise loan outstanding mix in value and volume terms:

HFCs are Transitioning their Product Mix Towards Higher-Yielding Assets

CRISIL Research estimates that housing loans account for approximately 60% of the HFCs' total loan portfolio. Loan against property ("LAP"), the fastest growing product in the HFC portfolio, comprised approximately 20% of the HFCs' loan portfolio as of Fiscal 2019, up significantly from 12% share four years ago. The share of developer loans and other corporate loans remained relatively stable at approximately 20%. Over the next two to three years, with HFCs increasingly looking at conserving liquidity and getting cautious on funding developers, CRISIL Research expect the share of developer loans in the overall outstanding loans to come down. The growth in the LAP portfolio of HFCs is also likely to moderate, given growing concerns on asset quality. (Source: CRISIL Report)

HFCs' Asset Quality Better than Overall Market

As compared with the asset quality in housing loans of all financiers, the asset quality of loans extended by the HFCs is better, with 1.8% of gross non-performing assets ("GNPAs") as a proportion of advances in the housing loan segment, and 3.3% of GNPAs in the LAP segment, as of March 2019. However, the GNPAs for HFCs have been rising through the past three years; a similar trend was visible in all player groups, including public sector banks, private banks, and NBFCs.

The following graph compares asset quality across lenders, as of March 2019:

Roll Rates Indicate Improving Asset Quality

An analysis of roll rate for the industry in Fiscal 2019 indicates a significant decrease of loans rolled forward in each bucket. For example, the percentage of loans rolled forward from 1 to 29 days past due (“DPD”) bucket to 30-59 DPD bucket decreased from 19.7% in April 2018 to 13.6% in March 2019. In other buckets as well, such a trend was observed indicating a steady improvement in the asset quality scenario. Also, the roll forward rates came down steadily, indicating an improvement in the asset quality scenario. The movement in the roll backward rates suggest an improvement in asset quality as well. For example, the percentage of loans rolled backward from 60 to 89 DPD bucket to 30 to 59 DPD bucket rose from 5.5% in April 2018 to 10.6% in March 2019. A similar trend was observed in most other buckets as well.

The following table sets our roll rates for the industry in Fiscal 2019:

HFCs and NBFCs Weather Strong Headwinds

Following demonetisation in November 2016, the GNPA ratio of NBFCs and HFCs gradually rose, from 1.42% in the second quarter of Fiscal 2017 to 1.86% in third quarter of Fiscal 2018. Financiers, though, did not face any major impact on disbursement after the event of demonetisation.

The following graph sets forth GNPA% for NBFCs and HFCs in home loans:

However, the liquidity crisis following a series of defaults by IL&FS in September 2018 had a considerable impact on NBFCs and HFCs. Access to funds was hugely impacted, which led to higher cost of funds. Disbursements declined 17% on-quarter in the third quarter of Fiscal 2019, immediately after being hit by the liquidity crisis, thereafter recovering with 11% on-quarter growth in the last quarter of Fiscal 2019. Moreover, several NBFCs and HFCs increased their interest rates post the event. Due to the liquidity crunch in the market, which led to the contraction of credit supply, the disbursements declined 11% on-quarter in the first quarter of Fiscal 2020.

The following graph sets forth disbursement growth of HFCs and NBFCs (on-quarter):

Non-banks are expected to reduce their dependence on short-term funding sources post the recent liquidity crunch, which was primarily owing to improper asset-liability maturity management. Because of limited access to funds, HFCs and NBFCs shifted towards securitisation as a mechanism to raise funds to meet their liquidity requirements. In fact, the securitisation and direct assignment of mortgages more than doubled to approximately ₹ 930 billion in Fiscal 2019, from approximately ₹ 357 billion the previous fiscal. State-Wise Analysis of HFC Groups in Overall Housing Finance Industry

HFCs have seen steady growth in the past four years with a CAGR of 23% in overall housing finance industry. But there are wide variations across states and districts within the state that indicate the intensity of the presence of the HFCs and their impact. In the overall housing finance industry, the credit extended by HFCs is approximately ₹ 7.3 trillion, as of March 2019. The top 15 states have a market share of 89% in terms of credit outstanding of HFCs in the industry. Maharashtra is at the top with a market share of 25%, followed by Tamil Nadu (10%), Karnataka (9%), Uttar Pradesh (7%) and Gujarat (7%).

Affordable Housing Finance (Ticket Size of ₹ 2.5 Million and Below)

India's mortgage market can broadly be divided into two segments by ticket size of the housing loan at the time of disbursement - loans with ticket size of more than ₹ 2.5 million, and loans with ticket size of ₹ 2.5 million and below. The former can be defined as "normal mortgage loans", which is prominent in the metro and urban areas, and the latter, which generally includes outskirts of these areas and semi-urban and rural areas, can be defined as "affordable housing loans".

The following graphs set forth share of affordable housing in outstanding housing loans (in volume terms) and credit outstanding:

Share of affordable housing in outstanding housing Share of affordable housing in credit outstanding (June 2019) loans (in volume terms)

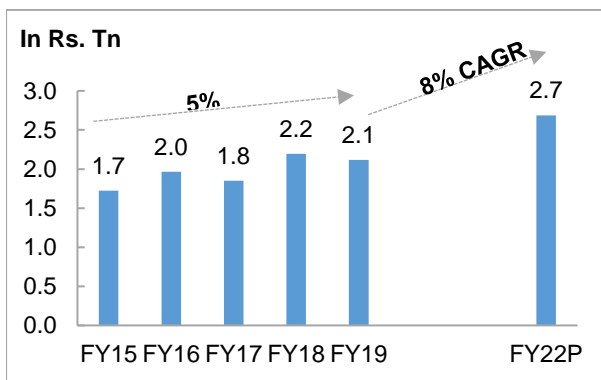

(Source: CRISIL Report)

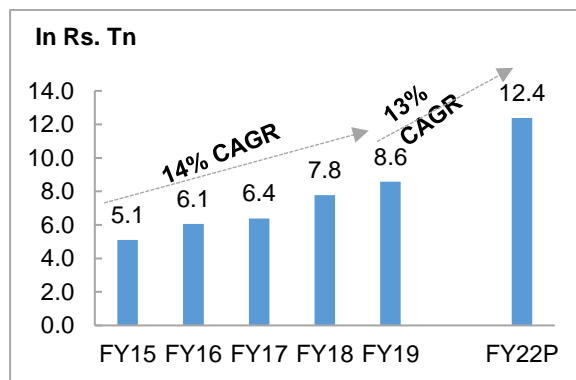

Overall, disbursement of the affordable segment grew at 5% CAGR between Fiscals 2015 and 2019, to ₹ 2.1 trillion. Home loan disbursement saw slight volatility owing to demonetisation in Fiscal 2017 and the recent liquidity crisis post September 2018. Up to Fiscal 2020, CRISIL Research projects disbursements to grow at 8% CAGR to ₹ 2.7 trillion. During Fiscals 2015 to 2019, affordable housing outstanding credit grew at a healthy 14% CAGR to ₹ 8.6 trillion, mainly driven by increase in penetration of financiers majorly in rural and semi-urban areas (with some financiers in outskirts of urban areas as well), Government push to promote “Housing for All” by 2022, and improved affordability of borrowers. In terms of volume, the number of loans outstanding in the affordable housing segment grew from 7.3 million in Fiscal 2015 to 11.9 million in Fiscal 2019. By Fiscal 2022, CRISIL Research expects outstanding credit to increase at approximately 13% CAGR to ₹ 12.4 trillion. Growth would be driven by improved supply and demand of affordable houses, Government impetus to the segment through various incentives given to developers and first-time homebuyers, Government initiatives towards affordable housing such as PMAY, increased number of financiers with strong growth and deeper penetration across geographies and improving buyer affordability because of expected rise in income levels.

The following graphs set out growth of disbursement and outstanding credit of affordable housing segment:

Increasing Market Share of HFCs

As a result of their faster growth, HFCs have been able to increase their share in the market from 34% in Fiscal 2015 to 39% in Fiscal 2019 in terms of outstanding affordable home loans. CRISIL Research expects that the above fundamental strengths will help HFCs maintain a strong market presence in the future as well.

Affordable Housing Loans Outstanding of HFCs to Grow at 17% CAGR

While overall affordable loan disbursements have grown at a modest 5% CAGR between Fiscals 2015 and 2019, HFCs have managed to grow their affordable housing loan portfolio at a faster 11% CAGR on account of deeper reach, focused approach, and expertise in this niche segment. This period from 2015 to 2019 saw two macro events, demonetisation and the NBFC liquidity crisis which had a higher impact on affordable HFCs as compared to normal HFCs because of their different target customer segments. Over the next three fiscals, CRISIL Research forecasts disbursements to grow at 11% CAGR. In terms of credit outstanding, HFCs registered a healthy growth of 18% CAGR in affordable housing loans over the past five years, driven by strong disbursements. CRISIL Research expects this trend to continue, with HFCs' affordable housing loans book projected to reach ₹ 5.3 trillion by Fiscal 2022, which is a 17% CAGR. Overall disbursement volume in Fiscal 2019 under affordable housing category was 2.0 million units.

The following graphs set out growth of disbursement and outstanding credit of affordable housing segment of HFCs:

Although the demand side fundamentals have remained robust, the credit supply the contraction in credit supply has led to lower disbursements in Q1 Fiscal 2020 compared to Q1 Fiscal 2019. The disbursement de-growth is more pronounced for housing finance companies as they faced strong headwinds because of the liquidity crunch in the system.

HFCs affordable disbursement observed an on-year de-growth of 23% in Q1 Fiscal 2020... leading to a growth of 9% in HFC's affordable credit outstanding over the same period

Affordable vs Normal Housing Finance Players

The type of borrower's profile and higher risk-taking ability of affordable housing players lead these financiers to charge higher yields in comparison to that charged by normal housing players.

Difference in Operational Parameters for Affordable Housing Finance Players and Normal Housing Finance Players

CRISIL Research estimates the proportion of direct sales teams ("DSTs") in sourcing business for affordable housing at approximately 70% in comparison with approximately 60% for normal housing players. In terms of customer profile, affordable players have higher share of self-employed customers (45%) in comparison to normal housing players (40%), which makes their portfolio relatively riskier (due to uncertainty of cash inflows for self-employed customers). This also leads to lower approval rates and lower loan-to-value ratio.

Critical Success Factors in Affordable Housing Finance

Understanding of Micro-Markets: Given the target borrower's profile, players need to have a clear and deeper understanding of the micro-markets and develop a strong local network. The strong network helps players to source business from niche customer category by having references from their existing customers. It is observed that successful players in the segment generally focus on a few geographies where they have a good understanding and scale up gradually to manage costs and asset quality better.

Customer Risk: Customers in the affordable housing finance segment are generally in formal sector jobs with low incomes, or are self-employed (carpenter, plumber, vegetable vendor, driver), or are people who may not have income proofs. Given the lack of income proofs, the underwriting process typically requires detailed personal discussion with the borrower as well as acquaintances and neighbours in order to assess the source of income and pattern of cash inflows and outflows as well as the stability and habits of the customer. Given the nature of the process, operating costs are typically very high; therefore, players who are, over a period of time, able to achieve a fair degree of standardisation in the process by building models revolving around specific customer profiles and/or geographies are likely to better manage operating costs.

Collateral Risk Assessment: Properties under the affordable housing segment sometimes lack proper property titles, especially in the outskirts of large cities, semi-urban and rural areas. With better availability of information and due diligence by the technical team, players can mitigate the risk. While lenders do take appropriate due diligence measures to safeguard against this risk while sanctioning the loan, there have been instances of borrowers mortgaging the same property with multiple lenders. As of now, registration of charge on underlying property is undertaken by lenders on selective basis (high-ticket loans or in case of corporate borrowers) only. The RBI directive to register the charge on the underlying property with a central registry instead of the currently followed process will help mitigate this risk to a large extent.

Collection Efficiency: Given that players in the segment typically cater to the lower income customer segment, many of whom may not be financially literate, a strong focus on collections and monitoring risk of default at customer level is vital to manage asset quality. It is observed that events that impact the economy as a whole (such as demonetisation) and local factors (natural calamities or other events in the place of employment/work of the borrower) have a disproportionate impact on asset quality in the segment. Therefore, players are increasingly using analytical and monitoring tools enabled by technology to better predict default risk. In addition, there is an increasing focus on pushing customers to make EMI payment through ECS. (Source: CRISIL Report)

Technology Usage in Affordable Housing Finance Industry

Players in the affordable housing finance industry have increased their focus on adoption of technological in different segments of the lending value chain to increase operating efficiency. In order to assess the intensity of technology usage across the industry, CRISIL Research carried out an analysis based on eight unique parameters encompassing the entire customer journey starting from sourcing, loan application and approval, data capture, collections and engaging with customers digitally. As per CRISIL Research analysis, the Indian affordable housing finance industry is still at a fairly modest stage as far as technological evolution and adoption, is concerned. While players have made progress in areas such as existence of paperless lead to approval process, third party data integration, cashless and digital collections, tracking of customer loan status on real time basis and presence over social media, they still lag behind on empowering all relevant stakeholders with mobility solutions and intensity of data capture through digital medium. The proportion of leads generated through digital channels is still very low (less than 10%), and even amongst leads generated, conversion is below the 10% mark.

Furthermore, the usage of cloud for data capture and processing, concepts such as data lake (a central repository where data stored in its natural/raw format) and usage of machine learning algorithms (to predict early warnings and likelihood of customer default) is still at a very nascent stage in India as compared to players in developed markets such as the US and UK. While entities are leveraging their data and using analytics for branch and portfolio performance tracking, and customer-level behaviour tracking, they may still not be in a position to optimally apply data analytics on a real-time basis in the absence of a data lake.

The following table assesses the intensity of technology usage in affordable housing finance industry:

Asset Quality in Affordable Housing

In the affordable housing segment, the GNPA's are higher than that in the normal housing segment. Higher share of surrogate usage, difficulty in credit profile assessment and higher share of self-employed customers lead to a higher GNPA ratio of 2.7% as of June 2019 in this segment compared with 1.9% as of June 2019 in the normal housing segment.

The following graph compares the asset quality in normal and affordable housing segment:

(Source: CRISIL Report)

Asset Quality has Worsened in the Last Few Years, but Significant Variation in Player-Level NPAs

The GNPA ratio of overall HFCs is 1.8%, as of March 2019, which is lower than 2.1% of GNPA's as a proportion of advances in the overall housing finance industry. The GNPA ratio of HFCs has increased gradually from 1.2%, as of March 2015, to 1.8%, as of March 2019. Among the HFCs, there is a fair amount of variation in the asset quality of various HFC groups. The GNPA ratio is the least for large HFCs, followed by medium HFCs. Small HFCs have the highest amount of GNPA as a proportion of total advances (6.0% as of March 2019), majorly due to high penetration in the low-income group segment where credit assessment is a challenge. For affordable HFCs, GNPA stood at 4.1% of average advances, as of March 2019.

In the affordable housing loans segment as well, the GNPA ratio of all player groups has increased over a period of time. The GNPA's for the HFCs as a whole stood at 1.9%, as of March 2019, up from 1.3%, as of March 2015. Among the HFCs, large HFCs have the least GNPA as a proportion of total advances in this segment as well, followed by medium HFCs. Small HFCs have the highest GNPA ratio of 6.5%, as of March 2019, up from 3.9%, as of March 2015. The GNPA ratio of the affordable HFC group was 4.8%, as of March 2019, which is lower than that for smaller HFCs.

While asset quality for the industry as a whole has deteriorated, there is a significant variation in GNPA across players. For example, while GNPA's for affordable HFCs was 4.1%, as of March 2019, a number of players reported asset quality much better than the industry average. Even when looking at asset quality on a two-year lagged basis (current year GNPA divided by the portfolio two years back), some affordable HFCs reported significantly better asset quality than the overall player group-level NPAs. Conversely, a few players reported much inferior asset quality vis-a-vis the industry.

Player Group-Wise Trend in Asset Quality in Affordable Housing Loans

The following graph sets out player group-wise trend in asset quality in affordable housing loans:

As demand for home loans largely comes from first-time buyers, who stay in property purchase, asset quality in this segment has remained healthy historically. However, due to the seasoning of portfolios of rapidly growing HFCs, many of which are focused on relatively riskier customers compared with the prime, salaried segment, delinquency rates have depicted an upward trend. Moreover, due to their presence in a few geographies, small and affordable HFCs are more susceptible to local events and developments that impact the repayment behaviour compared with their larger counterparts. CRISIL Research believes that the ability to manage credit costs by appropriately leveraging information availability as also technology and data analytics will be a key differentiator among players in the affordable-housing finance segment. HFCs Resort to Securitisation Post-Liquidity Crisis

The non-banks are expected to reduce their dependence on short-term funding sources post the recent liquidity crunch that occurred majorly because of improper asset-liability maturity management. Because of limited access to funds, the HFCs and NBFCs shifted towards securitisation as a mechanism to raise funds to meet their liquidity requirements. In fact, the securitisation and direct assignment of mortgages more than doubled on-year in Fiscal 2019.

Profitability Analysis

Higher Returns and Lesser Competition Compared with Traditional Home Loan Market makes the Affordable Housing Segment Attractive for HFCs

Housing loans are considered to be a safer asset class compared with other asset classes such as vehicle loans, construction equipment loans and personal loans, as borrowing is usually for a self-occupied residential property of the borrower, where the propensity of default is relatively lower. Among the peer group set (large, medium, small and affordable), affordable HFCs have highest profitability (“RoA”). The higher RoA of affordable HFCs, 2.2% in Fiscal 2019, as opposed to 2.0% for the HFCs as a whole, can be attributed to their relatively higher net interest margins (“NIMs”), despite higher cost of funds, given the higher interest rates charged. All the player groups reported a decline in RoA in Fiscal 2019 compared with the previous year, because of an increase in interest expenses following the default by IL&FS. For medium and smaller HFCs, higher credit costs along with a contraction in NIMs led to lower profitability, while for affordable HFCs, the decline in profitability is due to increase in opex and higher credit costs.

CRISIL Research expects the industry’s profitability to gradually improve. The cost of funds, which has shot up since the second half of Fiscal 2019, is expected to gradually normalise, once risk aversion wanes and capital availability for better-performing HFCs improves. Additionally, for players in the affordable-housing finance category, opex too would moderate, as business volumes increase and the level of standardisation in credit assessment increases.

The following graphs set forth RoA across player groups:

Our Competitive Strengths

Our principal competitive strengths are as follows:

Technology Driven Company with Scalable Operating Model

We are a technology driven affordable housing finance company and have built a scalable operating model, which enables us to expand our operations and drive growth in revenue with lower incremental costs. We have established a differentiated technology framework with customized systems and tools, enhancing convenience for our customers as well as increasing operational efficiency. During the six months ended September 30, 2019 and the last three financial years, we invested ₹ 146.65 million in our information technology systems.

We are able to digitally capture over 100 data points of a customer in addition to credit bureau data, observations of our front end teams and feedback from our underwriting and management teams. We capture and store all our data on a cloud services platform. We have entered into arrangements with third party service providers through whom we obtain additional information such as fraud related data, banking, investment and taxation related data, and vehicle ownership of customers, which enables us with underwriting, and to identify areas of concern and take quick and accurate decisions. Our integrated customer relationship management and loan management system provides us with a holistic view of our customers and ensures connectivity and uniformity across our branches. We have also deployed proprietary machine learning customer-scoring models to assist us with effective credit underwriting. The seamless integration and availability of data across platforms and users enables us to process loans in a paperless manner and with quick turn around times.

We offer mobility solutions through dedicated mobile applications for our customers to enable quick and transparent loan related transactions, as well as for our sales channels to facilitate easy capture of leads and access to real time status of loans.

We use a data lake, to store the data from all our different applications. This expedites data consolidation, visualization, machine learning model development, and model implementation. The data lake also facilitates detailed analytics leading to better operational decisions.

Our information technology systems allow us to leverage economies of scale to increase productivity and reduce turn around times and transaction costs. Our systems are designed to facilitate a sanction within an average turn-around-time of 48 hours, which we calculate from the time we collate all customer information in our database to the sanctioning of the loan. In addition, our digital service delivery mechanisms and operating model brings uniformity in our operations, increases customer satisfaction and positions us well to expand our business in geographies that offer growth opportunities.

Customer Centric Organizational Commitment

We are a customer centric organization and have developed strong relationships with our customers by addressing their key concerns in availing housing finance. We target first time home buyers who find it difficult to disrupt their work routines to apply for a loan and comprehend the terms of a loan transaction. In order to address such concerns, we have set up an easy and customer friendly process right from the loan application stage to disbursement of the loan. Our front-end teams, which comprise our relationship managers, customer service managers and branch managers are well educated, trained and able to effectively assess all sources of a customer's income and guide them on aspects of obtaining financing. We also review documents relating to assets of the customer such as property deeds, life insurance policies, vehicle ownership and business ownership for the purpose of credit evaluation. We have set up a paperless process to onboard customers efficiently and our managers' conduct home and workplace visits to ensure minimal disruption to a customer's daily routine. We believe that these initiatives have assisted us in establishing a strong reputation as a customer friendly organization and growing our business and Gross Loan Assets at a rapid pace.

We maintain high levels of transparency in our interactions with customers and this has helped us increase customer satisfaction and loyalty as reflected in our net promoter scores. We conduct mandatory counselling sessions at our branches to educate customers on the key terms of their loan agreements and to familiarize them with the entire loan disbursement and repayment process. We have a dedicated mobile application for customers where they can carry out a number of functions, including accessing their loan statements, prepaying loans without any prepayment charges and raising service requests. We have a centralized repository of all the queries posted by our existing and potential customers and these are mapped to their respective loan accounts. We endeavor to address a significant majority of customer queries within 24 hours. Our customer centric approach has been a key driver of our growth and helped us differentiate ourselves from competition and achieve superior net promoter scores.

Deep Penetration in the Largest Housing Finance Markets, with Diversified Sourcing Channels

We commenced our operations in August 2010 and as of September 30, 2019, we had a network of 65 branches covering over 60 districts in 11 states and a union territory in India. We have successfully adopted a strategy of contiguous expansion across regions over the years and have strategically expanded to relevant geographies by evaluating areas with high economic growth and substantial demand for affordable housing finance, along with industry portfolio-at-risk levels and socio economic risk profile. Before setting up a new branch in a district, we conduct an in-depth study of the micro markets around the branch to assess potential demand for housing finance and target regions with increasing urbanization and housing projects. We also engage with property valuers and legal advisors to obtain a better understanding of local markets and the quality of the underlying collateral. We believe that our management team’s understanding of the local characteristics of these micro geographies has allowed us to address the needs of our customers and penetrate deeper into such markets. According to the CRISIL Report, the 60 districts in the 11 states and union territory in which we are present accounted for approximately 48% of the affordable housing finance market in India and have a high per capita income with rising levels of urbanization. Our widespread network of full service branches allows us to service our existing customers, attract new customers and apply best practices developed in one region to other regions.

We have demonstrated our ability to successfully identify new regions to set up branches and grow our market share in such regions. For example, during the last three financial years, we identified Jaipur, Ahmedabad, Surat, Indore, Nagpur, Raipur, Hyderabad, Bengaluru and Chennai to set up our branches and as of September 30, 2019, 62.2% of our Gross Loan Assets were from such branches. The following table reflects the improvement in our market share, in terms of origination of home loans in the bucket size of ₹ 500,000 to ₹ 2,500,000, for the periods indicated:

Branch Location	Our market share during Q1 FY18	Our market share during Q1 FY20
Jaipur	0.1%	2.6%
Ahmedabad	1.7%	3.5%
Surat	1.7%	6.5%
Indore	0.2%	2.7%
Nagpur	0.9%	2.6%
Raipur	0.3%	1.7%
Hyderabad	0.2%	1.4%
Bengaluru	0.2%	2.3%
Chennai	1.0%	2.2%

For details of the market size of home loans in the cities above, see “Industry Overview – Indian Housing Finance Market – Healthy Housing Finance Market Growth” beginning on page 103. Our market share represents the percentage of the origination of our home loans over the market size in such cities, as provided in the CRISIL Report.

We utilize a diverse range of lead sourcing channels such as connectors, architects, contractors, affordable housing developers, in addition to conducting loan camps and micro marketing activities, and utilizing employee and customer referrals and branch walk-in customers. Connectors are third-parties who provide us with customer leads on a commission basis paid only when a loan is disbursed and they do not assist in the loan application process. Our connectors are generally individuals such as insurance agents, tax practitioners and local shopkeepers. Our network of connectors has increased from over 470 active connectors as of March 31, 2018 to over 1,000 active connectors as of September 30, 2019, and we manage their leads effectively through our connector application. For the six months ended September 30, 2019 and the financial year 2019, we sanctioned 6,093 and 9,555 loans on account of leads generated through 1,431 and 1,331 connectors, respectively. We have also entered into arrangements with certain digital lead aggregators and other digital players within the housing and real estate ecosystem, which helps us source leads with embedded customer data.

Our presence in relevant housing finance markets in India, diversified lead sourcing channels and our ability to build up our market share has resulted in an increase in the Gross Loan Assets and disbursements over the last three financial years.

Centralized, Data Science Backed Underwriting Process

We serve salaried customers in low and middle-income groups which account for 72.6% of our Gross Loan Assets, and self-employed customers account for 24.6% of our Gross Loan Assets, as of September 30, 2019. We believe that having a large customer base of salaried customers has led to low Stage 3 Loan Assets as a result of predictability of their cash flows. Our salaried customers are typically employed by small firms or work in junior positions in larger companies, while our self-employed customers are generally small business owners. We spend considerable time to understand the formal and informal income sources of such customers as well as that of their family members, stability of their employment, savings capacity and repayment track record with their formal and informal borrowings to take an informed decision to approve or decline a housing loan after collating all customer information in our database. We have employed well-trained and educated front-end teams to visit a customer's residence and workplace and gather detailed information to enable us to make right decision on several parameters, including the size of the loan. We believe that having a centralized team of underwriters ensures consistency in implementing our underwriting principles. Hence, we have set up a centralized data science backed underwriting process.

Our customer relationship management system is integrated with our loan management system, which is set up on a leading cloud based customer relationship platform. An integrated system enables us to have a holistic view of our customers through the entire lifecycle of the loan. This system acts as a single portal for all internal and external customer related interactions and data. Our technology platforms enable us to digitally capture over 100 data points of a customer such as photographs, videos, scanned collateral documents, taxation documents and vehicle ownership details from the inception of the lead. We have also entered into arrangements with third party database service providers through which we obtain additional information of customers. The integration of such data helps us derive a holistic view of our customers, carry out fraud checks and effectively assess the credit worthiness of customers. Further, we utilize proprietary machine learning and customer scoring models to assist us with our credit assessment process.

All our financed properties are geo-tagged and we use a machine learning backed property price predictor, which has helped us reduce our turn around time for approving loans, as well as achieve a higher accuracy in determining the loan-to-value ratio. Our systems are designed to facilitate a sanction within an average turn-around-time of 48 hours, which we calculate from the time we collate all customer information in our database to sanctioning the loan. A majority of the housing finance loans that we disburse are for affordable houses that fall within the purview of the Pradhan Mantri Awas Yojana where buyers are entitled to certain government subsidies, which further reduces our loan-to-value ratio once the PMAY subsidy gets disbursed. Our housing loans, loans against property, developer finance loans and loans for purchase of commercial property had an average loan-to-value at the time of the sanctioning of the loan of 73.8%, 33.4%, 39.0% and 59.8%, as of September 30, 2019, respectively. As part of our credit policy, we limit our exposure to properties that are under construction, which we believe helps in maintaining our asset quality. As of September 30, 2019, completed homes comprised 85.3% of our Gross Loan Assets, while properties under construction accounted for 14.7% of our Gross Loan Assets. Our robust underwriting and loan approval process have helped us reduce bounce rates from 14.9% for the first quarter of the financial year 2017 to 10.0% for the second quarter of the financial year 2020.

Technology Driven Collections System

We have set up a robust collections management system wherein substantially all of our collections for the financial year 2019 were non-cash based, which eases stress on monitoring financial transactions and reduces our cash management risk. All our borrowers register for an automated debit facility and we track the status of installments collected on a real time basis through a collection module in our system. We employ a structured collection process wherein we remind our customers of their payment schedules and to maintain adequate balance in their account on the due date, through automated calls and text messages. We perform predictive analytics to predict the probability of default, which helps us in obtaining early signals of potential defaults and initiate appropriate action to mitigate risks. Our collections process is completely managed by our branch teams and a significant portion of our front end team incentives are also dependent on collections.

We initiate recovery action immediately after a customer defaults in their monthly payment and the severity of our action increases as the number of days past due increase. At one day past due, our front end teams call customers and visit them to understand reasons for the default and for recovery of the dues. At 30 days past due, while our employees continue to engage with the customer, we send them a default notice. At 60 days past due, we send a loan recall letter and our employees reiterate the repercussions of loan default to the customer. Thereafter, we seek to resolve cases by initiating legal action through SARFAESI at 90 days past due. As of September 30, 2019, our 30 days past due was at 1.5% of our Gross Loan Assets and 90 days past due was at 0.9% of our Gross Loan Assets.

Our effective credit risk management is reflected in our portfolio quality indicators such as high repayment rates, and low rates of Stage 3 Loan Assets and Stage 3 Loan Assets (Net) across economic cycles and events such as demonetization and the implementation of RERA. As of September 30, 2019 and March 31, 2019, 2018 and 2017, our Stage 3 Loan Assets expressed as a percentage of our Gross Loan Assets were 0.9%, 0.7%, 0.6% and 0.7%, while our Stage 3 Loan Assets (Net) expressed as a percentage of our Net Loan Assets were 0.7%, 0.5%, 0.5% and 0.6%, respectively.

We intend to launch a customer self-onboarding application through which a customer can make a loan application and upload relevant documents. We have also entered into arrangements with certain digital lead aggregators and other digital companies in the housing and real estate ecosystem such as Homelane, Paisa Bazaar, Quikr India, Credit Mantri and Aapka Painter, which helps us source leads embedded with customer data.

We intend to further strengthen and invest in technology to accelerate our growth, improve customer experience and continue to achieve industry-leading turn around times in our operations. We are focused on creating an end-to-end digital process for housing loans encompassing digital marketing, exhaustive customer data capture through API integrations with third-party databases such as Hunter and Perfios, automated underwriting via machine learning algorithms and instant approvals through mobility solutions. We will continue to invest in systems to capture and collate data and development of analytics tools.

We aim to upgrade and automate our existing loan application processing and credit assessment systems by developing advanced underwriting algorithms. We will further enhance our mobility solutions to improve customer experience and sales productivity. As a result of our technology platforms and initiatives, we believe that we will be able to increase the scale and effectiveness of our operations without a proportionate increase in our operational expenses.

Expand Our Branch Network in Large Affordable Housing Markets

We intend to expand our business in a contiguous manner into regions with increasing urbanization, growing commercial activity and rising household incomes. Before setting up new branches, we will continue to conduct in-depth studies and market research to assess potential demand for our products and engage with local property valuers and legal advisors. We currently operate 65 branches covering 11 states and a union territory in India, of which we had set up 29 branches between April 1, 2017 and September 30, 2019 and we expect our future growth to be from such branches as we continue to gain market share. We also intend to increase the number of our branches to 90 by the end of the financial year 2021, in order to achieve deeper penetration in our existing 11 states and union territory. Our new branches will be set up to increase presence in existing districts as well as cover 20 new districts that have high growth potential. We believe that this high-density model would allow us to grow our business with lower costs and increase our profitability.

Grow the Productivity of Our Existing Branches

We focus on increasing the productivity of our existing branches to drive our growth. We categorize our branches into large branches, mid-sized branches and small branches, on the basis of the Gross Loan Assets of each branch, and we track key performance indicators such as growth in Gross Loan Assets and disbursements per branch to determine branch productivity. While some of our branches currently operate at optimum levels, we intend to focus on improving productivity at our newer branches. As of September 30, 2019, we had 19 large branches operating with average Gross Loan Assets of ₹ 983.44 million, 19 mid-sized branches operating with average Gross Loan Assets of ₹ 471.54 million, and 27 small branches operating with average Gross Loan Assets of ₹ 129.23 million. We believe that we have set up a scalable operating model, which will assist us in expanding our operations with lower incremental costs to drive efficiency and profitability.

Diversify Sources of Borrowings to Optimize Borrowing Costs

We have historically secured funding from private and public sector banks, the NHB and through assignment transactions. As of September 30, 2019, we did not have any outstanding debt securities. As we continue to increase the scale of our operations, we intend to diversify the sources of our funding to reduce dependence on term loans and optimize our capital costs. To diversify sources of capital, we seek to obtain funding through the issuance of non-convertible debentures and external commercial borrowings. We also intend to continue to further increase our lender base, which has grown from 10 as of March 31, 2017 to 14 as of September 30, 2019. We have been able to reduce our average cost of borrowings (excluding assignments) from 9.8% as of March 31, 2017 to 8.5% as of March 31, 2019, due to factors including an improvement in our credit ratings and our financial performance.

We are focused on improving our asset and liability management to ensure that we continue to have a positive asset-liability position. We believe that this will help us improve our credit ratings further and reduce the average cost of our borrowings.

Focus on Enhancing Our Risk Management Framework

As we increase the scale of our operations and expand into new geographies, we intend to focus on enhancing our risk management framework to maintain the credit quality of our loan portfolio. Our risk management initiatives will include obtaining a better understanding of the geographies in which we are present and the ones where we intend to expand to, improving the credit scoring models and algorithms that we have currently deployed, improving our collection techniques and our property underwriting procedures.

Credit assessment is crucial to our operations since several of our customers are new to credit or belong to low and middle-income groups. Our strength in credit assessment is derived from our well-educated and trained front-end teams who spend time with our prospective customers and provide a detailed assessment of their income sources, employment stability, savings and repayment capacity. We will continue to invest in hiring and training people to ensure that we maintain our proficiency in credit assessment.

We also intend to continue serving salaried customers in the 11 states and a union territory in which we are currently present. As of September 30, 2019, 72.6% of our Gross Loan Assets came from salaried customers. We believe that salaried customers are more resilient from a credit quality perspective and this will help us build a robust loan portfolio.

Before setting up a new branch in a district, we conduct an in-depth study of the micro markets around the branch to assess potential demand for housing finance and target regions with increasing urbanization and housing demand. We have increased the scale of our operations and grown our branches by adopting a strategy of contiguous expansion across regions and we set up branches strategically to be accessible to customers. For example, in Chennai, we commenced our operations in 2012 in the Tambaram area where our first branch is located. Thereafter, we set up our second branch at Avadi in 2016 and added two more branches at Perambur and Tiruvallur to be closer to customers and we currently have four branches catering to the Chennai market. The following map illustrates the growth of our branch network in Chennai over the years:

We categorize our branches into large branches, mid-sized branches and small branches, on the basis of the Gross Loan Assets of each branch, and track key performance indicators such as growth of Gross Loan Assets and disbursements per branch to determine branch productivity. As of September 30, 2019, we had 19 large branches operating with average Gross Loan Assets of ₹ 983.44 million, 19 mid-sized branches operating with average Gross Loan Assets of ₹ 471.54 million, and 27 small branches operating with average Gross Loan Assets of ₹ 129.23 million.

They visit a customer's home and place of work to verify and record customer related information and are responsible for collections from their branch portfolio. Our customer service managers are responsible for counselling customers, disbursements, cross selling and customer service functions. They educate a customer on the loan process and documentation required. They also manage relationships with builders and customers during the disbursement process. They act as the initial point of contact for any customer complaints or queries. Our branch managers are responsible for the overall functioning of the branch and act as the CEO of the branch. They oversee functions such as business development, sales, our processes, collections and handle escalations in builder and customer service functions.

Origination Channels

We utilize a diverse range of lead sourcing channels such as connectors, architects, contractors, affordable housing developers, in addition to conducting loan camps, micro marketing activities, employee and customer referrals and branch walk-in customers. Our network of connectors has increased from over 470 connectors as of March 31, 2018 to over 1,000 connectors as of September 30, 2019, and we manage their leads effectively through our connector mobile application. For the six months ended September 30, 2019 and the financial year 2019, we sanctioned 6,093 and 9,555 loans on account of leads generated through 1,431 and 1,331 connectors, respectively.

Our salaried customers are typically employed by small firms or work in junior positions in larger companies, while our self-employed customers are small business owners. Our customers find it difficult to disrupt their work routines to apply for a loan and comprehend the terms of a loan transaction. Our customers typically face difficulties in disrupting their work routines in order to apply for a loan and comprehending the terms of a loan agreement. To address such concerns, we have set up a customer friendly process right from the loan application stage to disbursement of the loan. Our front-end teams, which comprise our relationship managers, customer service managers and branch managers are well educated, trained and able to holistically assess their sources of income and effectively guide customers on all aspects of a housing loan. We have set up a paperless process to onboard customers efficiently and our managers conduct home and workplace visits to ensure minimal disruption to a customer's daily routine. We conduct a detailed evaluation of all formal and informal sources of our customer's income to determine the right size of the loan. We also review documents relating to assets of the customer such as life insurance policies, property deeds, vehicle ownership and ownership of the business, for the purpose of credit evaluation.

We have an integrated customer relationship management and loan management system, which serves as a single portal for all internal and external customer related interactions. Our systems are designed to facilitate a sanction within an average turn-around-time of 48 hours, which we calculate from the time we collate all customer information in our database to sanctioning the loan.

We maintain high levels of transparency in our interactions with customers and conduct mandatory counselling sessions to educate our customers on the key terms of their loan agreements. We offer mobility solutions through dedicated mobile applications for our customers to enable quick and transparent loan related transactions. As of September 30, 2019, our customer mobile application 'Home First Customer Portal' had approximately 16,200 active registrations comprising approximately 44% of our customer base and currently has a rating of 4.1 on the Google Play Store. Through our mobile application, customers can also prepay loans without any prepayment charges.

All our customers are mapped to a dedicated relationship manager, backed by a customer service manager and all customer queries are recorded on our system and linked to respective customer loan accounts to provide an omni-channel view on the customer. We endeavor to address a significant majority of customer queries within 24 hours.

As a result of our expertise, experience, business model and a customer centric approach, we are able to effectively serve customers and achieve superior net promoter scores. We have commissioned Ormax Consultants Private Limited ("Ormax") to determine our net promoter score with effect from January 2018. Ormax determines our net promoter scores on a periodic basis through telephonically administered questionnaires by selecting recent customers from our database on a random basis.

Case Studies

Case Study Type: Formal Salaried

Borrower: At the time of sanctioning the loan, our customer was a 44-year old school teacher in Bengaluru who had several years of teaching experience. She also offered private home tuitions for several students at her residence. Private tuitions were a steady way of earning additional income to support her family, which included her husband and two children who were pursuing higher education. Her monthly income was ₹ 19,348. She also received additional income from conducting private tuitions. Her husband worked as a maintenance officer in an aerospace laboratory and earned approximately ₹ 13,000 per month.

Her story: This customer had received a plot from her parents through a gift deed and started the construction of the home. By the time the construction of the first floor was completed, she was short of funds and needed a loan to continue the work.

How did we assist her: The valuation report specified the property value to be approximately ₹ 4 million and she required a loan of ₹ 1.5 million for construction. She was introduced to our Company by one of our connectors, who passed on the lead to a relationship manager. The relationship manager counselled the couple over the phone on their loan eligibility, made them aware of the easy monthly prepayment facilities and made an appointment to visit their home. The relationship manager verified her employment at the school and made a visit to her residence to verify the home tuition classes. On obtaining relevant verification, he scanned all the original KYC and other important documents available and logged in the case for the final approval.

Unlike traditional institutions that rely only on the salary income, we were able to assess her creditworthiness based on her total income sources (salary, private tuition, and husband's income). The total assessed income was ₹ 49,000 per month and we were able to sanction a loan of ₹ 1.5 million for a tenure of 20 years at a rate of interest of 13%, which resulted in an EMI of ₹ 17,574. The LTV in this case was 37.6%. We believe the couple were satisfied with our prompt service and continue to use our mobile application for matters related to their loan.

Case Study Type: Informal Salaried

Borrower: At the time of sanctioning the loan, our customer was a 32-year old diamond polisher in Surat with over a decade of work experience. He received a salary of ₹ 20,000 per month, which we had verified with his employer. His wife also worked as a diamond polisher and received a salary of ₹ 9,000 per month. Both salaries were paid in cash.

His story: This customer wanted to purchase his own house worth ₹ 1 million and was introduced to our Company by one of our connectors.

How did we assist them: We obtained a third party valuation report, which determined the value of the property to be approximately ₹ 1 million and the couple required a loan of ₹ 0.8 million to purchase the property. Our relationship manager spoke to the couple to counsel them on the process of obtaining a loan from our Company and informed them of the easy monthly prepayment facilities as well as the Pradhan Mantri Awas Yojna - Credit Linked Subsidy Scheme. Our relationship manager conducted a workplace visit for the couple. He also visited their place of residence, scanned original KYC and other documents available and logged in the opportunity in our cloud based CRM for final approval.

Unlike traditional institutions that rely only on the documented income, we were able to assess the couple's creditworthiness holistically. Their total assessed income was ₹ 29,000 per month and we sanctioned a loan of ₹ 0.8 million for a tenure of 20 years at a rate of interest of 13.5%, which resulted in an EMI of ₹ 9,659. We also assisted them in applying for the PMAY subsidy of ₹ 267,280, which would reduce their EMIs by ₹ 3,500 per month.

Case Study Type: Self Employed

Borrower: At the time of sanctioning the loan, our customer was a 36-year old iron fabricator and ran his own fabrication unit in Chennai having developed his welding business over several years. He fabricated items such as iron gates, rolling shutters and window grills and had employed other people in his workshop. He also worked on orders from corporate customers. His business had a turnover of approximately ₹ 1.50 million per month, which we verified through purchase orders, bulk order invoices and bank statements. After deducting his business expenses, he had a documented income of ₹ 40,000 per month.

His story: This customer was living with his family in a rented house with a monthly rental of ₹ 8,000. The customer's wife was a homemaker and the couple had two children who were studying in school. Although the borrower had only completed his education until the tenth grade, he had a keen business sense. He was looking for a ready possession property in the range of ₹ 1 million to ₹ 1.2 million. He was introduced to our Company by someone from the builder's office.

How did we assist him: We obtained a third party valuation report, which determined the value of the property to be approximately ₹ 1.2 million. The borrower required the maximum loan that was possible to purchase the property. Our relationship manager visited the borrower's workshop to understand the scale of his business and verified the stock at the workshop. The borrower appeared to be technology savvy and was using online directory services to generate more leads for his business. Our relationship manager also visited his residence and then logged in the opportunity in our cloud based CRM for final approval, along with the KYC documents, shop ownership license and other investment documents. We were able to sanction the borrower a loan of ₹ 0.93 million within four hours from the receipt of all necessary documentation and submission of the case for approval. The loan was for a tenure of 20 years at a rate of interest of 14.5%, which resulted in an EMI of ₹ 11,904.

Case Study Type: Formal Salaried

Borrower: At the time of sanctioning the loan, our customer was a 33-year old quality analyst, who had completed his graduation and worked at a business process outsourcing company for nine years. He received a monthly salary of ₹ 30,000, which was evidenced by his salary slips and bank account statements. The borrower had a wife and a toddler and lived in a rented house in suburban Mumbai.

His story: The borrower lived in a small house with very basic amenities and shared toilets. He wanted to purchase a small house in the urban peripheries of Mumbai, which would at least have a clean toilet for his family to use. He had saved ₹ 224,000 to be used as a down payment and was looking for a ready possession property worth ₹ 1 million with the help of a home loan. While booking his property, the builder's sales representative referred him to our Company for a home loan.

How did we assist him: Upon receiving the lead, our relationship manager spoke to the borrower and counseled him on the process of obtaining a loan from our Company. The borrower was also informed of our easy monthly prepayment facilities and Pradhan Mantri Awas Yojana - Credit Linked Subsidy Scheme. Our relationship manager checked all the borrower's documents and educated him on the dos and don'ts of a home loan since he was a first time borrower. Our relationship manager then scanned all the relevant documentation and logged in the opportunity in our cloud based CRM for final approval. We were able to sanction the borrower a loan of ₹ 0.89 million for a property, which was valued by a third party valuer at ₹ 1.16 million, within four hours from the receipt of all necessary documentation and submission of the case for approval. The loan was for a tenure of 20 years at a rate of interest of 11.9%, which resulted in an EMI of ₹ 9,760. We also assisted the borrower with applying for a PMAY subsidy of ₹ 214,756, which reduced his EMIs by ₹ 2,000 per month.

Loan-to-Value (LTV) Ratio, EMI and Tenure of Housing Loans

The NHB Directions prescribe the maximum permissible parameters of the loan amount that can be provided to housing loan customers. A property with market value of up to ₹ 3.00 million is permitted to have a maximum LTV ratio of up to 90.0%, property with market value between ₹ 3.00 million and ₹ 7.50 million is permitted to have maximum LTV ratio of up to 80.0% and property with market value above ₹ 7.50 million is permitted to have maximum LTV ratio of up to 75.0%.

We set an LTV ratio range for each of our loan products that is within the relevant range prescribed by the regulatory authorities. Our housing loans, loans against property, developer finance loans and loans for purchase of commercial property had an average loan-to-value on Gross Loan Assets of 58.4%, 31.7%, 21.4% and 54.0%, as of September 30, 2019, respectively.

The amount and LTV of the loan is subject to our credit assessment of the customer and factors including value of the collateral and regulatory limits. Loans are required to be repaid in equated monthly installments ("EMIs") over an agreed period. The size of the EMI depends on the size of loan, interest rate and tenure of loan.

The tenure of our housing loans, loans against property, developer finance loans and loans for purchase of commercial property can be for a period up to 25, 15, 3 and 15 years, respectively, and vary according to the purpose of the loan, the customer's age and the customer segment.

Interest Rates, Fees and Collateral for Housing Loans

We offer customers housing loans at variable interest rates. We determine our reference rate from time to time based on market conditions and price our loans at either a discount or a premium to our reference rate, adjusted for the risk of each customer's profile.

We require our customers to pay certain processing fees and charges prior to the disbursement of the loans at different stages of the loan application to cover the initial cost of underwriting the loan. These fees and charges are subject to periodic changes based on market conditions and regulatory requirements. We provide our housing loan customers the option to prepay their loans without any prepayment charges through our auto-prepay feature on our mobile application. Auto-prepay enables customers to prepay their loans from amounts starting as low as ₹ 500 on a monthly basis. This feature was introduced with the initiative to facilitate pre-payments in a manner that would benefit customers in the long-term by reducing their overall loan tenure and interest payable. Auto-prepay is an auto-debit service where customers can set their monthly pre-payment amount that would be deducted from their bank account. This amount would be in addition to their EMI. We also provide easy balance transfer options with no pre-payment charges for our housing loan customers.

The underlying collateral for a loan is the property towards which the loan is provided. The security for loans is created either through an equitable mortgage by way of deposit of title deeds or a registered mortgage of immovable property.

Credit Approval and Disbursement

We have set up a robust credit approval process comprising the following stages:

Initial Screening and Pre-Sanction Check

Fresh customer leads are logged into our system by our relationship managers. All customer interaction and scanning and review of customer documents are done by our in-house team of well-educated and trained relationship managers. We do not employ intermediaries or third-parties for customer interaction or loan documentation. Each lead is checked against KYC, credit bureau and other third-party databases to establish customer credentials. We have set up an efficient paperless process to onboard and verify customers and determine eligibility. Our relationship managers conduct home and workplace visits to verify living conditions, employment and income of potential customers.

The completed digital loan application is submitted by our relationship managers along with their commentary on residence and workplace visits and personal discussion with the customer. This is cross checked by our underwriting and operations team for a number of factors including completeness of application form, KYC, eligibility, fraud check, credit bureau, income assessment, loan-to-value, value of collateral, bank statements, debt burden and third party databases for income and asset ownership.

Customer Credit Underwriting

We have a centralized underwriting team assisted by data science backed customer-scoring model to evaluate a customer's ability to repay the loan and maintain consistency in underwriting procedures across branches and regions. We have an integrated customer relationship management and loan management system, which serves as a single platform for all internal and external customer related interactions and allow our underwriters to conduct the credit appraisal process in a quick and efficient manner. Our technology platform enables us to digitally capture over 100 data points of a customer from inception of the lead. We have also integrated our systems with third-party databases to obtain additional customer data points. This helps us gather data to assess credit worthiness of the customers and conduct a fraud check in case of any discrepancies. Further, we utilize proprietary machine learning credit scoring models to assist us with our credit assessment process. The model bifurcates customers into different categories based on the level of risk, which is then reviewed by our underwriters to make a final decision.

Property Underwriting and Disbursement Process

We assess the value of the collateral at the time of sanctioning the loan and conduct additional checks before disbursing the loan and giving final approval of the property. Our teams initiate a legal and technical assessment through third party vendors to verify the authenticity of the technical documents, legal title to the collateral property and its market value. We use an application for geo tagging of properties and a proprietary machine learning backed property price predictor to initially determine the value of the collateral property, which helps us to reduce our turnaround time for approving loans, as well as improve our accuracy in determining the loan to value ratio.

Before disbursement, our teams obtain original documents, legal and technical reports and further information pertaining to disbursement from the property developer or the customer. We further verify the stage of construction, legal and technical reports and other documents including demand letter, no-objection certificate and possession letter from the developer. Thereafter, we seek consent from the customer to disburse the loan amount to the builder.

Loan Collection and Monitoring

We have set up a robust and tiered, collections management system with prescribed collection action at each stage of severity of default. All our borrowers register for an automated debit facility, which reduces our cash management risk, and we track the status of installments collected on a real time basis through a collections module. Approximately 94% of our collections for the financial year 2019 were non-cash based. We employ a structured collection process wherein we remind our customers of their payment schedules through text messages and automated calls to maintain adequate balance in their account on the due date. We also use our proprietary machine learning model to predict probability of bounce, which helps us in obtaining early signals of potential bounce and initiate action such as pre-emptive reminder calls made by branch teams. Our collection process is completely managed by our branch teams and a significant portion of our employee incentives are dependent on collections.

We initiate recovery action immediately after the customer defaults in their monthly payment and the severity of our action increases as the number of days past due increase. At one day past due, our front-end field teams call customers and initiate visits to understand reasons for default and recovery of the dues. At 30 days past due, while our employees continue to engage with the customer, we send a default notice or loan recall notice depending upon the severity of the case. At 60 days past due, we send a pre-SARFAESI notice and our employees increase the visit frequency and reiterate the repercussions of the loan default to the customer. Thereafter, at 90 days past due, we seek to resolve cases by initiating legal action through SARFAESI. As of September 30, 2019, our 30 days past due was at 1.5% of our Gross Loan Assets and 90 days past due was at 0.9% of our Gross Loan Assets.

Capital Adequacy Ratios

The NHB Directions require HFCs to comply with a capital to risk (weighted) assets ratio, or CRAR, consisting of Tier I and Tier II capital. Under these requirements, an HFC's Tier I and Tier II capital may not be less than 13% on or before March 31, 2020; 14% on or before March 31, 2021 and 15% on or before March 31, 2022 of the sum of the HFC's risk-weighted assets and the risk-adjusted value of off-balance sheet items, as applicable, with a minimum requirement of Tier I capital of 10.0% on risk-weighted assets. Further, the NHB Directions require that the Tier II capital may not exceed the Tier I capital.

The following table sets forth certain details of our CRAR in accordance with NHB guidelines, as of the dates indicated:

The Risk Management Committee was formed to assess the Company's risk profile and key areas of risk, recommend to the Board the adoption of risk assessment and rating procedures with acceptable levels of risk, articulate the Company's policy for oversight and management of business risk, develop and implement a risk management framework and internal control system, conduct special investigations into areas of corporate risk and breakdowns in internal controls, review management's response to our auditor's recommendations and verify whether such recommendations were adopted.

Asset and Liability Management Committee: The Asset and Liability Management Committee was formed to monitor and manage our liquidity position by identifying short-term liquidity gaps and implementing immediate actions to correct such gaps, diversifying our sources of funding to facilitate flexibility in meeting our funding requirements, and maintaining strong capital adequacy.

Credit Committee: The Credit Committee was formed to ensure effective credit risk management and health of our portfolio through a process of monitoring adherence to the credit policy, comprehensive credit risk assessment, monitoring portfolio quality, credit limits and policy recommendations, collateral quality and credit exposure limits and imparting training on credit evaluation.

Grievance Redressal Committee: The Grievance Redressal Committee was formed to manage reputation risk, address customer complaints in a timely manner, to ensure that customers are aware of ways to escalate their grievances within our Company and their rights to alternate remedies, to ensure service quality by dealing with all complaints efficiently and fairly and adherence to company policies by our employees.

Risk Management

Risk management forms an integral part of our business. As a lending institution, we face financial and non-financial risks. We have established a risk management and audit framework to identify, assess, monitor and manage various types of internal and external risks. We conduct regular training of our staff members with respect to risk related matters, as part of our risk management process.

Credit Risk

We manage credit risks by using a set of credit procedures and guidelines, laid down in our credit policy, to ensure effective credit risk management and health of our portfolio. The adherence to the policy and various process is monitored and appraised in credit committee meetings on a quarterly basis. The policy is amended periodically and to ensure compliance with the guidelines of NHB as well as other regulatory bodies.

We have implemented a structured credit approval process, including multi-step customer verification and comprehensive credit risk assessment, which encompasses analysis of relevant quantitative and qualitative information to ascertain the credit worthiness of a potential customer. As part of our multi-step customer verification, we have established a process by which separate set of verifications are conducted by a relationship manager and customer service officer to ensure the quality of customers acquired.

Portfolio quality, credit limits, collateral quality and credit exposure limits are regularly monitored at various levels. Our staff also undergoes regular training on credit evaluation as part of our risk management process.

Portfolio Concentration Risk

We manage portfolio concentration risk by maintaining a diversified portfolio of loans across various states, cities, products, developers and projects. We have diversified our presence to 11 states and a union territory as of September 30, 2019, and offer customers loans for the purchase of homes, loans against property, developer finance loans and loans for purchase of commercial property. We have a process of defining and monitoring loan exposure to developers and projects. In addition, we utilize a diverse range of lead sourcing channels, which comprise home loan connectors, walk-in customers at our branches, builders, contractors, our marketing initiatives, and employee and customer referrals.

Market Risk

We manage market risk by only investing in liquid funds or fixed deposits of banks, in line with our investment policy. Our strategy for managing market risk involves implementing stringent controls and limits, regular reporting of positions, regular independent review of all controls and limits, and testing and auditing of all pricing, risk management and accounting systems.

Liquidity Risk

Liquidity risk arises primarily due to asset-liability mismatch caused by a difference in the maturity profile of our assets and liabilities. This risk may arise from the unexpected increase in the cost of funding on asset portfolio at the appropriate maturity and the risk of being unable to liquidate a position in a timely manner and at a reasonable price.

We monitor liquidity risk through our Asset and Liability Management Committee. Monitoring liquidity risk involves categorizing all assets and liabilities into different maturity profiles and evaluating them for any mismatches in any particular maturities, particularly in the short-term. We actively monitor our liquidity position to ensure that we can meet all borrower and lender-related funding requirements.

We have an Asset Liability Management Policy in place, to manage the liquidity risk, which provides for several risk management measures including short term liquidity forecasts which is done to identify any short-term liquidity gaps and implementing immediate actions to correct such gaps, diversifying our sources of funding to facilitate flexibility in meeting our funding requirements, and maintaining strong capital adequacy.

Operational Risk

We have an operational risk management policy in place, which sets out processes and controls that are required to be monitored at different points of time in relation to people, systems and processes. The policy is amended from time to time in order to be compliant with the guidelines of NHB as well as other regulatory bodies. We also attempt to mitigate operational risk by maintaining a comprehensive system of internal controls, establishing systems and procedures to monitor transactions, conducting employee rotation, maintaining key back-up procedures, undertaking contingency planning and maintaining a comprehensive insurance cover. We have implemented a whistle blower policy to encourage our employees to report non-compliances of our processes and controls. We also have a recovery system and staff accountability formats for following up of defaulting loan accounts and recovery through SARFAESI.

In addition, we have appointed independent audit firms to conduct internal and process audits at a number of our offices to assess adequacy of and compliance with our internal controls, procedures and processes, as well as all applicable statutory and regulatory guidelines. Reports of the internal auditors as well as the action taken on the matters reported upon are discussed and reviewed in the Audit Committee meetings.

Compliance Risk

Non-compliance with regulatory and statutory requirements, including the NHB and RBI regulations could result in stringent actions and penalties from the regulatory and statutory authorities. We have a robust corporate governance process in place to ensure that we are compliant with all the applicable laws, rules, regulations and guidelines.

Reputation Risk

We manage reputation risk by training and instructing our employees to adhere to our Fair Practices Code. We also have a grievance redressal mechanism in place, to address any customer complaints, which is communicated to all our customers. In addition, we have established a central service team, who pro-actively reach out to customers, to ensure service quality as well as adherence to company policies by our branch employees.

Information Technology Risk

We have a well-established IT infrastructure that ensures performance stability and flexibility as well as IT security. We have an elaborate IT policy in place, which sets out processes and controls that are required to be maintained in relation to the IT systems. The policy is amended from time to time in order to be compliant with the guidelines of NHB as well as other regulatory bodies. In addition, we conduct an IT audit once every two years with effect from the financial year 2019, to determine issues and process level gaps, if any.

As part of our IT risk management process, we consider the information (in IT assets or IT systems) at risk, determine the consequence of compromise of such information, identify threat, recommend appropriate security controls and safeguards, and determine the reduced residual risk remaining after the controls and safeguards are implemented. We also train our new and existing staff in our IT policies, procedures and codes of conduct.

Information Technology

We have established a differentiated technology framework with customized systems and tools, enhancing convenience for our customers, increasing operational efficiency as well as reducing turnaround times and transaction costs. During the six months ended September 30, 2019 and the last three financial years, we invested ₹ 146.65 million in our information technology systems.

We capture and store all our data on a cloud services platform, which helps in usability and accessibility of such data, results in cost savings and improved underwriting practices. We have integrated our systems with third-party databases to obtain additional customer data.

Our integrated customer relationship management and loan management system provides us with a holistic view of all our customers and ensures connectivity and uniformity across our branches. We utilize proprietary machine learning and customer scoring models to assist us with our credit assessment process. The integration of such data across platforms enables us to process loans in a paperless manner and with low turn around times.

We offer mobility solutions through dedicated mobile applications for our customers to enable quick and transparent loan related transactions, as well as for connectors who generate leads for us. As of September 30, 2019, our customer mobile application had approximately 16,200 monthly active users comprising approximately 44% of our customer base. We use a data lake, which helps us with all stages of the data life cycle of loan consolidation, visualization, machine learning model development, and model implementation. We can perform real-time analytics to generate customized reports and make better operational decisions.

We also use an application for the geo tagging of properties and a machine learning backed property price predictor, which has helped us reduce our turnaround time for approving loans, as well as improve our accuracy in determining the loan-to-value ratio.

Intellectual Property

We own a combination of trademarks to establish and protect our brands, logos, marketing designs and internet domain names. As at September 30, 2019, we have registered five trademarks, each under class 36 granted by the Registrar of Trademarks under the Trademarks Act, 1999 including “Home First”, “HFFC,” “Auto prepay”, “HFFC We’ll take you home” and “No Anxiety On Loans” and one pending trademark application under class 36 to be granted by the Registrar of Trademarks under the Trademarks Act, 1999 for “Homefirst We’ll take you home”.

Marketing

Our marketing initiatives include placing advertisements on hoardings, regional newspapers and distribution of leaflets and posters. We conduct customer referral programs and loan melas to spread awareness of our products. We also run lead generation campaigns on social media platforms.

Competition

The housing finance industry in India is highly competitive. We face competition from other HFCs, NBFCs small finance banks, as well as scheduled commercial banks. We generally compete on the basis of the range of product offerings, interest rates, fees and customer service, as well as for skilled employees, with our competitors. Our primary competitors include Aavas Financiers Limited, Aspire Home Finance Corporation Limited, Aadhar Housing Finance Limited and Aptus Value Housing Finance India Limited.

See “Risk Factors – Internal Risk Factors – The Indian housing finance industry is highly competitive and our inability to compete effectively could adversely affect our business and results of operations.” on page 26.

Insurance

We maintain insurance policies that we believe are customary for companies operating in our industry. Our principal types of coverage include insurance for burglary, engineering, portable equipment, electronic equipment, standard fire and special peril insurance, group personal accident insurance, group health insurance, public liability insurance, fidelity insurance, machine breakdown insurance, package insurance policy and directors’ and officers’ liability insurance. In addition, we have a money insurance policy pertaining to cash in safes and in transit.

See “Risk Factors – Internal Risk Factors – Our insurance coverage may not be sufficient or may not adequately protect us against all material hazards, which may adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.” on page 34.

Introduction - Registration as an HFC and generally applicable regulations

Our Company is a HFC with a certificate of registration granted by the NHB pursuant to which our Company was allowed to commence and carry on the business of a housing finance institution without accepting public deposits. Our Company is primarily engaged in the business of providing loans and advances for housing activities.

The NHB was set up pursuant to the NHB Act, as a principal agency to promote housing finance institutions and to provide financial and other support to such institutions. In terms of the NHB Act, the primary objectives of the NHB are (i) to facilitate finance and other resources for development of housing and create a framework for institutions for enhancing the quality of credit and affordability; and (ii) to regulate and supervise the activities of HFCs. In line with these objectives and in terms of the NHB Act, the NHB has issued the NHB Directions, which amongst others, set out matters relating to acceptance of deposits by HFCs, prudential norms for income recognition, accounting standards, provision for bad and doubtful assets, capital adequacy and concentration of credit and investments to be observed by the HFCs and matters ancillary and incidental thereto.

Pursuant to the Finance (No. 2) Act, 2019, the NHB Act has been amended, pursuant to the NHB Act Amendments, to transfer the regulating authority for the housing finance sector from NHB to RBI. Accordingly, amongst others, (i) HFCs are now required to apply to the RBI for registration under the NHB Act, in place of the NHB; and (ii) the RBI has now been conferred the power (a) to determine the percentage of assets to be maintained in terms of its investments and its reserve fund to be maintained; and (b) to regulate, by specifying conditions or prohibit the issue by any HFC of any prospectus or advertisement soliciting deposits of money from the public. However, the NHB Act Amendments, retain certain powers with the NHB, in addition to conferring such powers on the RBI, such as power to conduct inspections and request for documents from the HFCs.

Further, pursuant to the notification of the RBI dated November 19, 2019 and the amendments to the 'Master Directions - Exemptions from the RBI Act, 1934' issued by the RBI on November 11, 2019, the provisions of Chapter IIIB of the RBI Act are applicable to NBFCs which are housing finance institutions (other than the provisions of Section 45 -IA of the RBI Act). Chapter IIIB of the RBI Act, amongst others, confers on the RBI powers to determine policy and issue directions in relation to NBFCs and in terms of such chapter, NBFCs (including our Company) are bound to follow the policy so determined and the directions so issued.

Accordingly, activities of HFCs, are primarily regulated by the RBI and the NHB, including various aspects of our business such as capital adequacy, sourcing of funds, on-boarding of customers, credit approval and risk management and asset classification and provisioning. Certain other generally applicable legislations as set out below also regulate other aspects of our business such as recovery of debt and taxation.

Capital adequacy

As per the NHB Directions, we are required to maintain a minimum capital adequacy ratio, consisting of tier I capital and tier II capital. Currently HFCs are required to comply with a CRAR, consisting of tier I and tier II capital, of not less than 13% of its aggregate risk weighted assets and of risk adjusted value of off-balance sheet items, on or before March 31, 2020, 14% on or before March 31, 2021 and 15% on or before March 31, 2022 and thereafter. At a minimum, tier I capital of HFCs cannot be less than 10%. Further, the total tier II capital at any point of time, should not exceed 100% of tier - I capital.

Source of funds

HFCs can generally raise funds through borrowing or by raising equity. The sourcing of funds by HFCs are subject to regulation primarily by the NHB and the RBI. The limits on borrowings by HFCs are primarily governed by the NHB Directions. The NHB Directions currently permit HFCs to borrow up to 14 times their NOF until March 31, 2020 and after which this limit shall be further reduced to 13 times of their NOF until March 31, 2021 and subsequently to 12 times of their NOF until March 31, 2022. Further, the NHB NCD Directions require HFCs to have in place a board approved policy for resource planning and accordingly, the resource raising activities of our Company are primarily governed by our internal resource planning policy which aims to ensure a strategic and smooth management of interest rate risk and liquidity risk.

Term Loans:

In terms of the Master Circular – Housing Finance dated July 1, 2015 issued by the RBI, banks are permitted to grant term loans to HFCs taking into account (long-term) debt-equity ratio, track record, recovery performance and other relevant factors including the other applicable regulatory guidelines.

NHB Refinance:

NHB offers refinance assistance to primary lending institutions (“PLIs”) in respect of their housing loans to individuals, and also for their loans to other institutions for housing finance and construction finance for affordable housing. HFCs registered with the NHB, being a PLI, are eligible to obtain refinance from the NHB in respect of their direct lending for up to 100% of the housing loan sanctioned and disbursed by HFCs for acquisition or construction of new housing units and for upgradation or major repairs, in accordance with the Refinance Scheme. The NHB provides such refinance assistance in terms of its various refinance schemes such as the Regular Refinance Scheme, Special Urban Housing Refinance Scheme for Low Income Households and the Affordable Housing Fund, each of which set out certain restrictions applicable to loans provided by the HFCs in terms of their loan size, tenure, location of property and the ultimate borrower in some cases. The terms of the re-finance assistance, such as the tenure and interest rate applicable is subject to eligibility of the loans under the respective schemes. For instance, while the Regular Refinance Scheme provides for refinance assistance in respect of housing loans extended by HFCs for, amongst others, construction and purchase of dwelling units with no restrictions on loan size, location and the ultimate borrowers of such loans, the Affordable Housing Fund includes eligibility conditions based on the annual household income of the borrowers depending on the location of the property being in urban or rural areas, as prescribed thereunder.

However, in terms of the NHB Act, the NHB may require the HFCs to discharge in full their liabilities to the NHB in certain instances, such as if there is a reasonable apprehension that the HFC is unable to pay its debts or if the NHB thinks it is necessary to protect the interests of the NHB. Further, in terms of the NHB Act, in entering into such borrowing arrangements with HFCs, the NHB may impose such conditions as it may think necessary or expedient for protecting the interests of the NHB.

Other borrowings:

Further, in the future, we may also raise funds by way of issue of NCDs on a private placement basis. Such issue of NCDs is regulated by the NHB NCD Directions, which amongst others, includes eligibility requirements and conditions in relation to the credit rating and maturity of such NCDs.

External commercial borrowings (“ECB”) are commercial loans raised by eligible resident entities from recognised non-resident entities in terms of the ECB Master Directions. While availing of such ECBs, HFCs are required to conform to parameters such as minimum maturity, permitted and non-permitted end-uses, maximum all-in-cost ceiling set out in the ECB Master Directions.

Raising Equity:

In addition to raising funds through borrowings, HFCs may also raise funds by way of issue of its equity shares. In terms of the Housing Finance Companies - Approval of Acquisition or Transfer of Control (NHB) Directions, 2016 dated July 1, 2019 issued by the NHB, HFCs are required to comply with restrictions on, amongst others, change in shareholding or management of the HFC. The prior written permission of the NHB would be required for any change in shareholding, including progressive increases over time, which would result in acquisition or transfer of shareholding of 26% (10%, in case of HFCs, accepting or holding public deposits) or more of the paid-up equity capital. No such prior approval would be required in case such change is caused by buyback of shares or reduction in capital, which has been approved by a competent court and subsequently, reported to the NHB not later than one month from the date of its occurrence

On-boarding of customers and marketing

Advertising, Marketing and Sales:

The Guidelines on Fair Practices Code dated July 1, 2019 issued by the NHB (“Fair Practices Code”), seeks to promote good and fair practices by setting minimum standards in dealing with customers, increase transparency, encourage market forces to achieve higher operating standards and promote fair and cordial relationship between customer and HFCs, and foster confidence in the housing finance system. HFCs are required to ensure that advertising and promotional material is clear and not misleading and that privacy and confidentiality of the customers’ information is maintained. Further, whenever loans are given, HFCs should explain to the customer the repayment process, including the amount, tenure and periodicity of repayment.

The Fair Practices Code also prescribes certain requirements applicable at the time of applications for loans, loan appraisal and disbursement of loans. For instance, HFCs are required to include in the loan application forms all necessary information so that the applicant may make a meaningful comparison with the terms offered by other HFCs, to devise a system of giving acknowledgement for receipt of all loan applications and to communicate in writing the reasons for rejection of the application.

KYC and AML:

In terms of the provisions of the PMLA and the Prevention of Money Laundering (Maintenance of Records) Rules, 2005, HFCs are required to follow certain customer identification procedures while undertaking a transaction either by establishing an account based relationship or otherwise by monitoring their transactions. Further, the guidelines on 'Know Your Customer' & 'Anti-Money Laundering Measures' for HFCs issued by the NHB by way of its circular dated March 11, 2019, require HFCs to frame a policy on 'Know Your Customer' and 'Anti Money Laundering Measures' ("KYC-AML Policy") duly approved by its board of directors. Further, such KYC-AML Policy is required to include four key elements (i) customer acceptance policy, which includes requirements applicable at the time of opening of the account by the customers and client due diligence requirements; (ii) risk management, which requires risk categorization of customers, anti money laundering measures, proper management oversight and implementation of appropriate internal systems and controls; (iii) customer identification procedures, when commencement of an account based relationship, when there is a doubt about the authenticity or adequacy of the customer identification data or when selling third party products; and (iv) client due diligence procedures, which involves obtaining certain identification documents (such as PAN or Aadhaar number) from the individual when he establishes an account based relationship or when dealing with the individual who is the 'beneficial owner', authorised signatory or power of attorney holder related to the legal entity.

Credit Approval and Disbursement

The granting of housing loans and disbursements of such loans by HFCs is primarily governed by the directions and circulars issued by the NHB, such as the NHB Directions and the Fair Practices Code. In terms of the NHB Directions, amongst others, (i) no HFC may grant housing loans to individuals of up to ₹ 3 million with an LTV ratio exceeding 90%, of between ₹ 3 million to ₹ 7.50 million with LTV ratio exceeding 80%, and above ₹ 7.50 million with LTV ratio exceeding 75%; (ii) no HFC shall lend to any single borrower an amount exceeding 15% of its owned fund, and to any single group of borrowers, an amount exceeding 25% of its owned fund; and (iii) all HFCs must ensure that disbursement of housing loans sanctioned to individuals should be closely linked to the stages of construction of the housing projects/ houses and upfront disbursement should not be made in cases of incomplete/ under-construction/ greenfield housing projects/ houses. Further, the Fair Practices Code requires HFCs to convey certain terms and conditions at the time of sanction of loans such as the annualised interest rate, EMI structure and prepayment charges. Further, our internal Credit Policy lays down parameters, procedures and systems for providing finance to individuals and persons for construction, repair and development of a house for residential purposes and to builders in respect of their projects for constructing residential and commercial properties.

Further, in terms of the Master Direction - Priority Sector Lending - Targets and Classification dated July 7, 2016 issued by the RBI, priority sector advances and loans granted by scheduled commercial banks regulated by the RBI to HFCs approved by NHB for the purpose of refinance, for on-lending for purchase, construction or reconstruction of individual dwelling units or for slum clearance and rehabilitation of slum dwellers, are subject to an aggregate loan limit of ₹ 2 million per borrower.

Asset classification, Provisioning and Income Recognition

In terms of circulars issued by the NHB, HFCs are required to comply with the provisions of Ind AS, as notified by the MCA from time to time, including the date of implementation notified by the MCA by its notification dated March 30, 2016. Accordingly, the financial reporting of financial assets, financial liabilities, provisioning and income recognition is primarily governed by Indian Accounting Standard (Ind AS) 109. For further details, see "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Conditional and Results of Operations" beginning on page 275.

However, for regulatory and supervisory purposes, including various kinds of reporting to the NHB, HFCs are required to follow the relevant provisions of NHB Act and NHB Directions including framework on prudential norms and other related circulars issued in this regard by the NHB from time to time. Every HFC is required to, after taking into account the degree of well-defined credit weaknesses and extent of dependence on collateral security for realization, classify its lease or hire purchase assets, loans and advances and any other forms of credit into standard assets, sub-standard assets, doubtful assets, and loss assets. Further, every HFC is required to make provisions against sub-standard assets, doubtful assets and loss assets in accordance with provisioning requirements after taking into account the time lag between an account becoming NPA, its recognition as such, the realization of the security, and the erosion over time in the value of security charged.

The NHB Directions require that income recognition be based on recognized accounting principles. Amongst others, income including interest, discount or any other charges on NPA shall be recognized only when it is actually realised. Any such income recognized before the asset became NPA and remaining unrealized shall be reversed.

Risk Management Framework

Asset Liability Management:

The NHB has, by way of its circular dated October 11, 2010, prescribed guidelines for asset liability management system in HFCs ("ALM Guidelines"). In terms of the ALM Guidelines, HFCs are exposed to several major risks in the course of their business - credit risk, interest rate risk, equity/commodity price risk, liquidity risk and operational risk. In terms of the ALM guidelines, the asset liability management (“ALM”) process involves, amongst others, (i) ALM information systems, which includes management information systems and availability of information and accuracy, adequacy and expediency thereof; (ii) ALM organisation, which includes involvement of top level management; and (iii) identification, measurement and management of risks and having in place risk policies and tolerance levels. Further, the scope of the ALM function of the HFC includes, amongst others, liquidity risk management, management of market risks, funding and capital planning, profit planning and growth projection, forecasting and analysing ‘what if scenario’ and preparation of contingency plans.

Corporate Governance:

The Master Circular - Housing Finance Companies – Corporate Governance (NHB) Directions, 2016 dated July 1, 2019 (the “Corporate Governance Directions”) issued by the NHB apply to every non-public deposit accepting HFC with assets size of ₹ 500 million and above, as per the last audited balance sheet, and all public deposit accepting / holding HFCs (“Applicable HFC”). Applicable HFCs are required to constitute, amongst others, an audit committee, an asset liability management committee and a risk management committee. The audit committee must ensure that an information system audit of the internal systems and processes is conducted at least once in two years to assess operational risks faced.

At regular intervals, as may be prescribed, the progress made in putting in place a progressive risk management system and risk management policy and strategy followed by the Applicable HFC must be placed before the board of directors. The Applicable HFCs are also required to adhere to certain other norms in connection with disclosure, transparency and rotation of partners of the statutory audit firm. The Applicable HFCs are also required to frame internal guidelines on corporate governance standards which are also to be put up on their website for information of various stakeholders.

Recovery of dues

In the event customers do not adhere to the repayment schedule for loans provided by HFCs, the Fair Practices Code requires HFCs and its members and staff to follow the defined process provided under the applicable law during collection and security repossession. In the event, the HFC hires recovery agents for this purpose, they are required to comply with guidelines issued by the NHB in this regard by its circular dated July 14, 2008, which includes requirements such as due diligence while hiring such recovery agents, training of recovery agents and regulating the methods employed by such recovery agents.

SARFAESI Act:

The SARFAESI Act, read with the Security Interest Enforcement Rules, 2002, as amended, governs securitization of assets in India. Any securitization or reconstruction company may acquire assets of a bank or financial institution, including HFCs, by either entering into an agreement with such bank or financial institution for transfer of such assets to the company or by issuing a debenture or bond or other security in the nature of debentures, for consideration, as per such terms and conditions as may be mutually agreed. If a bank or financial institution is a lender in relation to financial assets acquired by the securitization/reconstruction company, such company shall be deemed to be the lender in relation to those financial assets. For HFCs, SARFAESI recovery is allowed for all loans of greater than ₹ 0.10 million ticket size.

Further, the SARFAESI Act provides for the enforcement of security interest without the intervention of the courts. Under the provisions of the SARFAESI Act, a secured creditor, such as an HFC, can recover dues from its borrowers by taking any of the measures as provided therein, including (i) taking possession of the secured assets or (ii) taking over the management of the secured assets. Rights, with respect to the enforcement of security interest, under the SARFAESI Act cannot be enforced unless the account of the borrower has been classified as a non performing asset in the books of account of the secured creditor in accordance with the directions or guidelines issued by the RBI or any other applicable regulatory authority. In the event that the secured creditor is unable to recover the entire sum due by exercise of the remedies under the SARFAESI Act in relation to the assets secured, such secured creditor may approach the relevant court for the recovery of the balance amounts. A secured creditor may also simultaneously pursue its remedies under the SARFAESI Act.

Recovery of Debts due to Banks and Financial Institutions Act, 1993 (“DRT Act”)

Under the DRT Act, the procedures for recovery of debt have been prescribed and time frames have been fixed for speedy disposal of cases. The DRT Act prescribes the rules for establishment of DRTs, procedure for making application to Debt Recovery Tribunals (“DRTs”), powers of DRTs and modes of recovery of debts determined by DRTs, including attachment and sale of movable and immovable properties of defendants, arrest of defendants, defendants’ detention in prison and appointment of receivers for management of the movable or immovable properties of defendants. The DRT Act also provides that a bank or public financial institution, such as an HFC, having a claim to recover its debt may join an ongoing proceeding filed by some other bank or public financial institution against its debtor at any stage of the proceedings before the final order is passed by making an application to the DRT.

Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016, as amended (the “IBC”)

The IBC empowers creditors, whether secured, unsecured, domestic, international, financial or operational, to trigger resolution processes, enables resolution processes to start at the earliest sign of financial distress, provides for a single forum to oversee insolvency and liquidation proceedings, enables a calm period where new proceedings do not derail existing ones, provides for replacement of the existing management during insolvency proceedings while maintaining the enterprise as a going concern, offers a finite time limit within which the debtor’s viability can be assessed and prescribes a linear liquidation mechanism.

The restated financial information is presented in Indian Rupees (INR) and all values are rounded to the nearest millions, except where otherwise indicated.

Basis of measurement

The restated financial information has been prepared on the historical cost basis except for certain financial instruments which are measured at fair values.

1.2 Use of estimates

The preparation of financial information requires the management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of revenues, expenses, assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent liabilities, at the end of the reporting period. Although these estimates are based on the management’s best knowledge of current events and actions, uncertainty about these assumptions and estimates could result in the outcomes requiring a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets or liabilities in future periods. Examples of these estimates include useful lives of property, plant and equipment, expected credit loss allowance, future obligations under employee retirement benefit plans, income taxes, etc. Actual results could differ from these estimates. Any revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which such revisions are made.

1.3 Financial instruments

i) Financial assets

Initial recognition and measurement

Financial assets are recognised when the Company becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the financial instrument and are measured initially at fair value adjusted for transaction costs, except for those financial assets classified as at FVTPL. Transaction costs directly attributable to the acquisition of financial assets classified as FVTPL are recognised immediately in Statement of profit and loss.

Home First Finance Company India Limited

(Formerly known as Home First Finance Company India Private Limited)

Annexure 5- Summary of Significant accounting policies and other explanatory information

Classification

The Company classifies its financial assets in the following measurement categories:

- those to be measured subsequently at fair value (either through other comprehensive income, or through statement of profit or loss), and
- those measured at amortised cost.

Subsequent measurement

Financial instruments at amortised cost – the financial instrument is measured at the amortised cost if both the following conditions are met:

- The asset is held within a business model whose objective is to hold assets for collecting contractual cash flows, and
- Contractual terms of the asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest (SPPI) on the principal amount outstanding.

After initial measurement, such financial assets are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest rate (EIR) method. All the debt instruments of the Company are measured at amortised cost.

Financial instruments at FVTPL/FVOCI - For assets measured at fair value, gains and losses will either be recorded in statement of profit and loss or other comprehensive income. Investments in equity instruments are classified as FVTPL unless the Company irrevocably elects at initial recognition to present subsequent changes in fair value through other comprehensive income for investments in equity instruments which are not held for trading.

Reclassifications within classes of financial assets

A change in the business model would lead to a prospective re-classification of the financial asset and accordingly the measurement principles applicable to the new classification will be applied. During the current financial year and previous accounting period there was no change in the business model under which the Company holds financial assets and therefore no reclassifications were made.

Impairment of financial assets

The measurement of impairment losses across all categories of financial assets requires judgement, in particular, the estimation of the amount and timing of future cash flows and collateral values when determining impairment losses and the assessment of a significant increase in credit risk. These estimates are driven by a number of factors, changes in which can result in different levels of allowances.

The Company's ECL calculations are outputs of complex models with a number of underlying assumptions regarding the choice of variable inputs and their interdependencies.

The measurement of ECL is calculated using three main components:

- (i) probability of default (PD)
- (ii) loss given default (LGD) and
- (iii) the exposure at default (EAD).

Home First Finance Company India Limited

(Formerly known as Home First Finance Company India Private Limited)

Annexure 5- Summary of Significant accounting policies and other explanatory information

The 12-month ECL is calculated by multiplying the 12-month PD, LGD and the EAD. The 12 month and lifetime PDs represent the PD occurring over the next 12 months and the remaining maturity of the instrument respectively. The EAD represents the expected balance at default, taking into account the repayment of principal and interest from the balance sheet date to the default event together with any expected drawdowns of committed facilities. The LGD represents expected losses on the EAD given the event of default, taking into account, among other attributes, the mitigating effect of collateral value at the time it is expected to be realised and the time value of money.

The Company applies a three-stage approach to measure ECL on financial assets accounted for at amortised cost and FVTOCI. Assets migrate through the following three stages based on the change in credit quality since initial recognition.

The Company has provided ECL on the undisbursed loan commitments classified under Stage 1.

Stage 1: 12-months ECL

For exposures where there has not been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition and that are not credit impaired upon origination, the portion of the lifetime ECL associated with the probability of default events occurring within the next 12 months is recognised. Exposures with days past due (DPD) less than or equal to 29 days are classified as stage 1. The Company has identified zero bucket and bucket with DPD less than or equal to 29 days as two separate buckets.

Stage 2: Life time ECL – not credit impaired

For credit exposures where there has been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition but that are not credit impaired, a lifetime ECL is recognised. Exposures with DPD equal to 30 days but less than or equal to 89 days are classified as stage 2. At each reporting date, the Company assesses whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk for financial asset since initial recognition by comparing the risk of default occurring over the expected life between the reporting date and the date of initial recognition. The Company has identified cases with DPD equal to or more than 30 days and less than or equal to 59 days and cases with DPD equal to or more than 60 days and less than or equal to 89 days as two separate buckets.

Stage 3: Lifetime ECL – credit impaired

Financial asset is assessed as credit impaired when one or more events that have a detrimental impact on the estimated future cash flows of that asset have occurred. For financial asset that have become credit impaired, a lifetime ECL is recognised on principal outstanding as at period end. Exposures with DPD equal to or more than 90 days are classified as stage 3.

Exposures are considered to have resulted in a significant increase in credit risk and are moved to Stage 2 when the accounts are overdue for more than 30 days Accounts that are overdue for 90 days or more are moved to Stage 3.

Inputs, assumptions and estimation techniques used for estimating ECL: Refer Annexure 6 - note 4.

De-recognition of financial assets

A financial asset is derecognised only when

- The Company has transferred the rights to receive cash flows from the financial asset or
- retains the contractual rights to receive the cash flows of the financial asset, but assumes a contractual obligation to pay the cash flows to one or more recipients.

Home First Finance Company India Limited

(Formerly known as Home First Finance Company India Private Limited)

Annexure 5- Summary of Significant accounting policies and other explanatory information

Where the Company has transferred an asset, the Company evaluates whether it has transferred substantially all risks and rewards of ownership of the financial asset. In such cases, the financial asset is derecognised. Where the entity has not transferred substantially all risks and rewards of ownership of the financial asset, the financial asset is not derecognised.

Where the Company has neither transferred a financial asset nor retains substantially all risks and rewards of ownership of the financial asset, the financial asset is derecognised if the Company has not retained control of the financial asset. Where the Company retains control of the financial asset, the asset is continued to be recognised to the extent of continuing involvement in the financial asset.

On derecognition of a financial asset in its entirety, the difference between the carrying amount (measured at the date of derecognition) and the consideration received (including any new asset obtained less any new liability assumed) shall be recognised in the statement of profit or loss.

On derecognition of a part of financial asset in its entirety, the previous carrying amount of the larger financial asset shall be allocated between the part that continues to be recognised and the part that is derecognised, on the basis of the relative fair values of those parts on the date of the transfer. For this purpose, a retained servicing asset shall be treated as a part that continues to be recognised. The difference between the carrying amount (measured at the date of derecognition) allocated to the part derecognised and the consideration received for the part derecognised (including any new asset obtained less any new liability assumed) shall be recognised in the statement of profit or loss.

Write offs

Impaired loans and receivables are written off, against the related allowance for loan impairment on completion of the Company's internal processes and when the Company concludes that there is no longer any realistic prospect of recovery of part or all of the loan. For loans that are individually assessed for impairment, the timing of write off is determined on a case by case basis. A write-off constitutes a de-recognition event. The Company has a right to apply enforcement activities to recover such written off financial assets. Subsequent recoveries of amounts previously written off are credited to the income statement.

ii) Financial liability

A financial liability is a contractual obligation to deliver cash or another financial asset or to exchange financial assets or financial liabilities with another entity under conditions that are potentially unfavourable to the Company or a contract that will or may be settled in the Company's own equity instruments and is a non-derivative contract for which the Company is or may be obliged to deliver a variable number of its own equity instruments, or a derivative contract over own equity that will or may be settled other than by the exchange of a fixed amount of cash (or another financial asset) for a fixed number of the Company's own equity instruments.

Classification

The Company classifies its financial liability as "Financial liability measured at amortised cost" except for those classified as financial liabilities measured at fair value through profit and loss (FVTPL).

Initial recognition and measurement

Financial liability is recognised initially at cost of acquisition net of transaction costs and incomes that is attributable to the acquisition of the financial liability. Cost equates the fair value on acquisition.

Home First Finance Company India Limited

(Formerly known as Home First Finance Company India Private Limited)

Annexure 5- Summary of Significant accounting policies and other explanatory information

De-recognition of financial liabilities

The Company derecognises financial liabilities when, and only when, the Company's obligations are discharged, cancelled or have expired. The difference between the carrying amount of the financial liability derecognised and the consideration paid and payable is recognised in the statement of profit or loss.

Fair value of financial instruments

The fair value of financial instruments is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction in the principal (or most advantageous) market at the measurement date under current market conditions (i.e., an exit price) regardless of whether that price is directly observable or estimated using another valuation technique. When the fair values of financial assets and financial liabilities cannot be derived from active markets, they are determined using a variety of valuation techniques that include the use of valuation models. The inputs to these models are taken from observable markets where possible, but where this is not feasible, estimation is required in establishing fair values. Judgements and estimates include considerations of liquidity and model inputs related to items such as credit risk (both own and counterparty), funding value adjustments, correlation and volatility. For further details about determination of fair value please see Note 30.

Offsetting financial instruments

Financial assets and liabilities are offset and the net amount is reported in the balance sheet where there is a legally enforceable right to offset the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis or realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously. The legally enforceable right must not be contingent on future events and must be enforceable in the normal course of business and in the event of default, insolvency or bankruptcy of the Company or the counterparty.

1.4 Property, plant and equipment and other intangible assets and depreciation /amortisation

Property, plant and equipment and Intangible assets are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation, amortisation and impairment losses. Cost includes purchase price, inward freight, taxes and expenses incidental to acquisition and installation, up to the point the asset is ready for its intended use.

Cost of property, plant and equipment and intangible assets not ready for their intended use before such date is disclosed under Capital work-in-progress.

Depreciation in respect of assets is provided on the straight-line method as per the over the useful life of the assets. The Company has used the following useful lives to provide depreciation /amortisation on its property, plant and equipment and intangible asset:

Property, plant and equipment	Estimated useful life (In years)
Furniture and fixtures	10
Office equipment	5
Computers	3
Leasehold improvements	Over the lease period
Intangible assets
Computer software	3
Licenses	3
Scoring algorithm	3

Property, plant and equipment purchased/ sold during the year are depreciated on a pro-rata basis.

Home First Finance Company India Limited

(Formerly known as Home First Finance Company India Private Limited)

Annexure 5- Summary of Significant accounting policies and other explanatory information

1.5 Revenue recognition

i) Interest income

Interest income is recorded using the effective interest rate (EIR) method. EIR is the rate that exactly discounts the estimated future cash flows over the expected life of the financial instrument or a shorter year, where appropriate, to the gross carrying amount of the financial asset. The calculation takes into account all contractual terms of the financial instrument (for example, prepayment options) and includes any fees or incremental costs that are directly attributable and are an integral part of the EIR, but not future credit losses. The Company calculates interest income by applying the EIR to the gross carrying amount of financial assets other than credit-impaired assets. When a financial asset becomes credit-impaired and is, therefore, regarded as 'Stage 3', the Company calculates interest income by applying the effective interest rate to the net amortised cost of the financial asset (Gross Value less ECL provision). If the financial assets cures and is no longer credit-impaired, the Company reverts to calculating interest income on a gross basis.

ii) Fee and other revenue

Project appraisal fees and other ancillary fees is recognised on the basis of actual receipt. Display income is accounted on accrual basis.

iii) Dividend income

Dividend are recognised in statement of profit and loss only when the right to receive payment is established, it is probable that the economic benefits associated with the dividend will flow to the Company, and the amount of the dividend can be measured reliably.

1.6 Taxes on income

Income tax expense comprises current tax expenses and net change in the deferred tax assets or liabilities during the year. Current and deferred taxes are recognised in the Statement of profit and loss, except when they relate to item that are recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, in which case, the current and deferred tax are also recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity respectively.

The income tax expense or credit for the period is the tax payable on the current period's taxable income based on the applicable income tax rate adjusted by changes in deferred tax assets and liabilities attributable to temporary differences and to unused tax losses.

The current income tax charge is calculated on the basis of the tax laws enacted or substantively enacted at the end of the reporting period.

Deferred income tax is recognised using balance sheet approach. Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are recognised for deductible and taxable temporary differences arising between the tax base of an assets and liabilities and their carrying amount in the financial statements, except when the deferred income tax arises from the initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and affects neither accounting nor taxable profit or loss at the time of recognition.

Deferred tax asset is recognised to the extent that sufficient taxable profit will be available against which the deductible temporary differences and the carry forward of unused tax credits and unused tax losses can be utilised. Deferred income tax is determined using tax rates (and laws) that have been enacted or substantially enacted by the end of the reporting period and are expected to apply when the related deferred income tax asset is realised or the deferred income tax liability is settled. The carrying amount of deferred tax assets are reviewed at each reporting date and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow or part of deferred income tax assets to be utilised. At each reporting date, the Company re-assesses unrecognised deferred tax assets. It recognises unrecognised deferred tax asset to the extent that it has become reasonably certain, as the case may be, that sufficient future taxable income will be available against which such deferred tax assets can be realised.

Home First Finance Company India Limited

(Formerly known as Home First Finance Company India Private Limited)

Annexure 5- Summary of Significant accounting policies and other explanatory information

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to offset current tax assets and liabilities and when the deferred tax balances relate to the same taxation authority. Current tax assets and tax liabilities are offset where the entity has a legally enforceable right to offset and intends either to settle on a net basis, or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

Deferred tax assets include Minimum Alternate Tax (MAT) paid in accordance with the tax laws in India which is likely to give future economic benefit in the form of availability of setoff against future income tax liability. Accordingly, MAT is recognised as deferred tax assets in the balance sheet when the assets can be measured reliably and it is probable that the future economic benefit associated with the asset will be realised.

1.7 Leases: Company as a lessee

The Company's leased assets primarily consist of leases for buildings. The Company assesses whether a contract contains lease, at inception of a contract. A contract is, or contains, a lease if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration. To assess whether a contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset, the Company assesses whether:

- i. the contract involves the use of an identified asset;
- ii. the Company has substantially all of the economic benefits from use of the asset through the period of the lease; and
- iii. the Company has the right to direct the use of the asset.

At the date of commencement of the lease, the Company recognises a right-of-use asset (ROU) and a corresponding lease liability for all lease arrangements in which it is a lessee, except for leases with a lease term of twelve months or less (short-term leases) and low value leases.

For these short-term and low value leases, the Company recognises the lease payments as an operating expense on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease.

The right-of-use assets are initially recognised at cost, which comprises the initial amount of the lease liability adjusted for any lease payments made at or prior to the commencement date of the lease plus any initial direct costs less any lease incentives. They are subsequently measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses.

Right-of-use assets are depreciated from the commencement date on a straight-line basis over the shorter of the lease term and useful life of the underlying asset.

The lease liability is initially measured at the present value of the fixed lease payments including variable lease payments that depend on an index or a rate. The lease payments are discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease or, if not readily determinable, using the incremental borrowing rate of the Company.

Lease liability and ROU asset have been separately presented in the balance sheet and lease payments have been classified as financing cash flows.

1.8 Foreign currency transactions

The functional currency of the Company is Indian rupee.

Transactions in foreign currency are recorded at exchange rate prevailing on the date of transaction. Foreign currency denominated monetary assets and liabilities are translated at the exchange rate prevailing on the balance sheet date and exchange gain or loss arising on their settlement and restatement are recognised in the statement of profit and loss.

Non-monetary assets and liabilities that are measured in terms of historical cost in foreign currencies are not retranslated.

1.9 Impairment of non-financial assets

The carrying amount of the non-financial assets are reviewed at each balance sheet date if there is any indication of impairment based on internal /external factors. An impairment loss is recognised whenever the carrying amount of an asset or a cash generating unit exceeds its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount of the assets (or where applicable, that of the cash generating unit to which the asset belongs) is estimated as the higher of its net selling price and its value in use. Impairment loss is recognised in the statement of profit and loss.

After impairment, depreciation / amortisation is provided on the revised carrying amount of the asset over its remaining useful life.

A previously recognised impairment loss is increased or reversed depending on changes in circumstances. However, the carrying value after reversal is not increased beyond the carrying value that would have prevailed by charging usual depreciation / amortisation if there were no impairment.

1.10 Cash and cash equivalents

For the purpose of presentation in the statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents includes cash on hand, deposits held at call with financial institutions, other short-term, highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

1.11 Provisions, contingent liabilities and contingent assets

A provision is recognised when the Company has a present obligation as a result of past events and it is probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation, in respect of which a reliable estimate can be made. Provisions are measured at the present value of management's best estimate of the expenditure required to settle the present obligation at the end of the reporting period. The discount rate used to determine the present value is a pre-tax rate that reflects the current market assessments of time value of money and the risks specific to the liability. The increase in the provision due to passage of time is recognised as interest expense. The provisions are reviewed at each balance sheet date and adjusted to reflect the current management estimates.

Contingent liabilities are disclosed in respect of possible obligations that arise from past events, whose existence would be confirmed by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the Company.

Contingent assets are not recognised in the financial statements. However, it is disclosed only when an inflow of economic benefits is probable.

1.12 Employee benefits

a) Short term employee benefits: All employee benefits which are due within twelve months of rendering the services are classified as short term employee benefits. Benefits such as salaries, wages, short term compensated absences, etc. and the expected cost of bonus, ex-gratia are recognised in the period in which the employee renders the related service. All short-term employee benefits are accounted on undiscounted basis during the accounting year based on services rendered by employees.

b) Post-employment benefits

The Company makes contribution to statutory provident fund in accordance with Employees Provident Fund and Miscellaneous Provisions Act, 1952 which is a defined contribution plan and contribution paid or payable is recognised as an expense in the year in which services are rendered by the employees.

The Company's gratuity benefit scheme is an unfunded defined benefit plan. The Company's obligation in respect of the gratuity benefit scheme is calculated by estimating the amount of future benefit that employees have earned in return for their services in the current and prior periods recognised as a liability at the present value of the defined benefit obligations at the balance sheet date based on an actuarial valuation carried out by an independent actuary using the Projected Unit Credit Method. The discount rates used for determining the present value of the obligations under the defined benefit plan are based on the market yields on government bonds as at the balance sheet date. Actuarial gains or losses on such valuation are recognised immediately in the other comprehensive income.

1.13 Share-based payments

Equity-settled share-based payments to employees and others providing similar services are measured at the fair value of the equity instruments at the grant date. Details regarding the determination of the fair value of equity-settled share-based payments transactions are set out in Annexure 6, note 35.

The fair value determined at the grant date of the equity-settled share-based payments is expensed on a straight-line basis over the vesting year, based on the Company's estimate of equity instruments that will eventually vest, with a corresponding increase in equity. At the end of each reporting year, the Company revises its estimate of the number of equity instruments expected to vest. The impact of the revision of the original estimates, if any, is recognised in statement of profit and loss such that the cumulative expenses reflects the revised estimate, with a corresponding adjustment to the share based payments reserve.

The dilutive effect of outstanding options is reflected as additional share dilution in the computation of diluted earnings per share.

1.14 Earnings per share

Basic earnings per share are calculated by dividing the net profit or loss (excluding other comprehensive income) for the year attributable to equity shareholders by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the year. The weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the year is adjusted for events such as bonus issue, bonus element in a right issue, shares split and reserve share splits (consolidation of shares) that have changed the number of equities shares outstanding, without a corresponding change in resources. For the purpose of calculating diluted earnings per share, the net profit or loss (excluding other comprehensive income) for the year attributable to equity shareholders and the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the year are adjusted for the effects of all dilutive potential equity shares.

1.15 Share issue expense

Share issue expenses are adjusted from share premium account in terms of section 52 of the Companies Act, 2013.

1.16 Critical estimates and judgements

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with Ind AS requires estimates and assumptions to be made by the management of the Company that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities on the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Differences between actual results and estimates are recognised in the period in which the results are known.

The management believes that these estimates are prudent and reasonable and are based upon the management's best knowledge of current events and actions. Actual results could differ from these estimates and differences between actual results and estimates are recognised in the periods in which the results are known or materialised.

This note provides an overview of the areas that involved a higher degree of judgement or complexity, and of items which are more likely to be materially adjusted due to estimates and assumptions turning out to be different than those originally assessed.

Examples of such estimates include the useful life of property, plant and equipment, provision for doubtful debts/advances, future obligation in respect of retirement benefit plans, provision for inventory obsolescence, impairment of investments/assets, etc.

i) Business model assessment

The Company determines its business model at the level that best reflects how it manages groups of financial assets to achieve its business objective.

The Company considers the frequency, volume and timing of sales in prior years, the reason for such sales, and its expectations about future sales activity. However, information about sales activity is not considered in isolation, but as part of a holistic assessment of how Company's stated objective for managing the financial assets is achieved and how cash flows are realised. Therefore, the Company considers information about past sales in the context of the reasons for those sales, and the conditions that existed at that time as compared to current conditions.

Based on this assessment and future business plans of the Company, the management has measured its financial assets at amortised cost as the asset is held within a business model whose objective is to collect contractual cash flows, and the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise to cash flows that are solely payments of principle and interest ('the 'SPPI criterion')."

ii) Effective interest rate method

The Company's EIR methodology, recognises interest income using a rate of return that represents the best estimate of a constant rate of return over the expected behavioural life of loans and recognises the effect of potentially different interest rates charged at various stages and other characteristics of the product life cycle (including prepayments and penalty interest and charges). This estimation, by nature, requires an element of judgement regarding the expected behaviour and life-cycle of the instruments, as well expected changes to the Company's base rate and other fee income/expense that are integral parts of the instrument.

iii) Income tax:

The Company reviews at each balance sheet date the carrying amount of deferred tax assets. The factors used in estimates may differ from actual outcome which could lead to an adjustment to the amounts reported in the financial statements.

(Formerly known as Home First Finance Company India Private Limited)

Annexure 5- Summary of Significant accounting policies and other explanatory information

iv) Contingencies:

Management has estimated the possible outflow of resources at the end of each annual reporting financial year, if any, in respect of contingencies/claim/litigations against the Company as it is not possible to predict the outcome of pending matters with accuracy.

v) Impairment of financial assets:

The measurement of impairment losses on loan assets and commitments, requires judgement, in estimating the amount and timing of future cash flows and recoverability of collateral values while determining the impairment losses and assessing a significant increase in credit risk. The Company's Expected Credit Loss (ECL) calculation is the output of a complex model with a number of underlying assumptions regarding the choice of variable inputs and their interdependencies. Elements of the ECL model that are considered accounting judgements and estimates include:

The Company's criteria for assessing if there has been a significant increase in credit risk

- The segmentation of financial assets when their ECL is assessed on a collective basis
- Development of ECL model, including the various formulae and the choice of inputs
- Selection of forward-looking macroeconomic scenarios and their probability weightings, to derive the economic inputs into the ECL model

The measurement of all expected credit losses for financial assets held at the reporting date are based on historical experience, current conditions and reasonable and supportable forecasts. The measurement of ECL involves increased complexity and judgement, including estimation of PDs, LGD, a range of unbiased future economic scenarios, estimation of expected lives and estimation of EAD and assessing significant increases in credit risk.

It has been the Company's policy to regularly review its model in the context of actual loss experience and adjust when necessary (refer note 4 and 32)

vi) Share based payments

Estimating fair value for share-based payment transactions requires determination of the most appropriate valuation model, which is dependent on the terms and conditions of the grant. This estimate also requires determination of the most appropriate inputs to the valuation model including the expected life of the share option, volatility and dividend yield and making assumptions about them.

1.17 Finance costs

Borrowing costs primarily includes interest on amounts borrowed for the revenue operations of the Company. These are expensed to the Statement of profit and loss using the EIR.

4.2 Impairment assessment

The references below show where the Company's impairment assessment and measurement approach is set out in these notes.

Definition of default

The Company considers a financial instrument as defaulted and considered it as Stage 3 (credit-impaired) for expected credit loss (ECL) calculations in all cases, when the assets becomes more than 90 days past due on its contractual payments. The probability of default is an estimate of the likelihood of default over a given time horizon. A default may only happen at a certain time over the assessed year, if the facility has not been previously derecognised and is still in the portfolio.

Exposure at default

The exposure at default (EAD) represents the gross carrying amount of the financial instruments subject to the impairment calculation, addressing both the client's ability to increase its exposure while approaching default and potential early repayments too.

To calculate the EAD for a Stage 1 loan, the Company assesses the possible default events within 12 months for the calculation of the 12 months ECL. For Stage 2 and Stage 3 financial assets, the exposure at default is considered for events over the lifetime of the instruments.

Loss given default

The Company segments its lending products into smaller homogeneous portfolios (housing, construction finance, loan against property and commercial loan), based on key characteristics that are relevant to the estimation of future cash flows. The data applied is collected loss data and involves a wider set of transaction characteristics (e.g., product type, days past due, LTV) as well as borrower characteristics.

Significant increase in credit risk

The Company continuously monitors all assets subject to ECLs. In order to determine whether an instrument or a portfolio of instruments is subject to 12 months ECL or Life time ECL, the Company assesses whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition. The Company considers an exposure to have significantly increased in credit risk when contractual payments are more than 30 days past due.

When estimating ECLs on a collective basis for a group of similar assets, the Company applies the same principles for assessing whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition.

Grouping financial assets measured on a collective basis

As explained above, the Company calculates ECLs on collective basis on following asset classes:

- Housing loans
- Construction finance
- Loan against property
- Commercial loan

Risk assessment model

The Company has designed and operates its risk assessment model that factors in both quantitative as well as qualitative information on the loans and the borrowers. The model uses historical empirical data to arrive at factors that are indicative of future credit risk and segments the portfolio on the basis of combinations of these parameters into smaller homogenous

Collateral

The Company holds collateral to mitigate credit risk associated with financial assets. The main types of collateral include residential and commercial properties. The collateral presented relates to instruments that are measured at amortised cost.

Breach in meeting these financial covenants would permit the bank to immediately call loans and borrowings. There have been no breaches in the financial covenants of any borrowing in the current period.

Loan covenants mainly include minimum CRAR of 12%, ratio of total outstanding liability to total net worth to be less than or equal to 12 times etc.

30.2 Fair value hierarchy

The fair values of the financial assets and liabilities are included at the amount that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date.

This section explains the judgements and estimates made in determining the fair values of the financial instruments that are (a) recognised and measured at fair value and (b) measured at amortised cost and for which fair values are disclosed in the financial statements. To provide an indication about the reliability of the inputs used in determining fair value, the Company has classified its financial instruments into the three levels prescribed under the Indian Accounting standard. An explanation of each level follows underneath the table.

Level 1: Level 1 hierarchy includes financial instruments measured using quoted prices. For example, listed equity instruments that have quoted market price.

Level 2: The fair value of financial instruments that are not traded in an active market (for example, traded bonds, over-the-counter derivatives) is determined using valuation techniques which maximise the use of observable market data and rely as little as possible on entity-specific estimates. If all significant inputs required to fair value an instrument are observable, the instrument is included in level 2. Open ended mutual funds are valued at Net Asset Value (NAV) declared by respective fund house and are classified under Level 2.

Level 3: If one or more of the significant inputs is not based on observable market data, the instrument is included in level 3. This is the case for unlisted equity securities, contingent consideration and indemnification asset included in level 3.

30.3 Financial assets and liabilities measured at fair value through profit or loss at each reporting date

(Rs. in millions)

Particulars	Level 2
	As at	As at	As at	As at	As at
	30 September 2019	30 September 2018	31 March 2019	31 March 2018	31 March 2017
Financial assets measured at FVTPL
Investments	2,777.43	200.09	1,029.17	-	-

30.4 Financial assets and liabilities measured at amortised cost at each reporting date

The carrying value of loans given, interest strip receivable, bank deposits and borrowings represents its fair value. Further, the carrying value of cash and cash equivalents, other bank balances, other financial assets, trade payables and other payables and other financial liabilities are considered to be approximately equal to the fair value due to their short term maturities.

The above mentioned financial assets and liabilities are classified under level 2 of fair valuation hierarchy.

30.5 Valuation techniques

The fair value of the financial assets and liabilities is included at the amount at which the instrument could be exchanged in a current transaction between willing parties, other than in a forced or liquidation sale. The following methods and assumptions were used to estimate the fair values:

Loans - The fair value of floating rate loans are deemed to be equivalent to the carrying value.

Borrowings - The fair value of certain fixed rate borrowings is determined by discounting expected future contractual cash flows using current market interest rates charged for similar new loans. The fair value of floating rate borrowings are deemed to be equivalent to the carrying value.

During the periods mentioned above, there have been no transfers amongst the levels of hierarchy.

31 Financial risk management

The Company is exposed to certain financial risks namely credit risk, liquidity risk and market risk i.e. foreign currency risk, interest risk and price risk. The Company's primary focus is to achieve better predictability of financial markets and minimise potential adverse effects on its financial performance by effectively managing the risks on its financial assets and liabilities.

The principal objective in Company's risk management processes is to measure and monitor the various risks associated with the Company and to follow policies and procedures to address such risks. The Company's risk management framework is driven by its Board and its subcommittees including the Audit Committee, the Asset Liability Management Committee and the Risk Management Committee. The Company gives due importance to prudent lending practices and have implemented suitable measures for risk mitigation, which include verification of credit history from credit information bureaus, personal verification of a customer's business and residence, valuation of collateral, technical and legal verifications, conservative loan to value, and required term cover for insurance.

A Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is defined as the risk that the Company will not be able to settle or meet its obligations on time or at a reasonable price. For the Company, liquidity risk arises from obligations on account of financial liabilities - borrowing, trade payables and other financial liabilities. The Company manages liquidity risk by maintaining adequate cash reserves by continuously monitoring forecast and actual cash flows, and by matching the maturity profiles of financial assets and liabilities.

The table below summarises the maturity profile of the undiscounted cash flows of the Company's financial liabilities.

B Market risk

(i) Foreign currency risk

Foreign currency risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of an exposure will fluctuate because of changes in foreign currency rates. The Company's exposure to the risk of changes in foreign exchange rates relates primary to certain vendors in trade payables.

Foreign currency exposure risk

The Company's exposure for foreign currency risk at the end of reporting period are as follows:

	As at 30 September 2018
	USD	Rs.
Trade payables (Amount in millions)	0.01	0.45

Note: There were no foreign currency exposure as on 30 September 2019, 31 March 2019, 31 March 2018 and 31 March 2017.

Foreign currency sensitivity

The following table demonstrates the sensitivity to a reasonably possible change in the USD exchange rate, with all other variables held constant, of the Company's profit before tax (due to changes in the fair value of monetary assets and liabilities).

	Change in rates	As at 30 September 2018
		Change in rates	Effect on profit before tax (Rs. in millions)
Trade payables	INR / USD	(+/-)0.5%	(+/-)0.00226

(ii) Interest rate risk

The Company is subject to interest rate risk, since the rates of loans and borrowing might fluctuate over the tenure of instrument. Interest rates are highly sensitive to many factors beyond control, including the monetary policies of the Reserve Bank of India, deregulation of the financial sector in India, domestic and international economic and political conditions, inflation and other factors. In order to manage interest rate risk, the Company seeks to optimise borrowing profile between short-term and long-term loans. The liabilities are categorised into various time buckets based on their maturities and Asset Liability Management Committee supervise an interest rate sensitivity report periodically for assessment of interest rate risks.

32 Credit risk management

32.1 Credit quality of assets

Credit risk is the risk that the Company will incur a loss because the counterparty might fail to discharge their contractual obligations. The Company has a comprehensive framework for monitoring credit quality of its retail and other loans primarily based on number of days past due.

The Company manage credit risks by using a set of credit procedures and guidelines, laid down in our credit risk policy, to ensure effective credit risk management and health of our portfolio. The adherence to the policy and various process is monitored and appraised in credit committee meetings on a quarterly basis. The policy is amended periodically and to ensure compliance with the guidelines of NHB as well as other regulatory bodies.

We have implemented a structured credit approval process, including multi-step customer verification and comprehensive credit risk assessment, which encompasses analysis of relevant quantitative and qualitative information to ascertain the credit worthiness of a potential customer. As part of our multi-step customer verification, we have established a process by which separate set of verifications are conducted by a customer relationship manager and customer service officer to ensure the quality of customers acquired as well as eliminate misuse of borrowing practices.

Portfolio quality, credit limits, collateral quality and credit exposure limits are regularly monitored at various levels.

The following table sets out information about credit quality of loans and investments measured at amortised cost based on days past due information. The amount represents gross carrying amount. (Also refer note 4 - Loans for detailed disclosure on gross carrying value and ECL amount on loans.)

33 Transfers of assets

Assignment deal:

The Company has sold some loans measured at amortised cost as per assignment deals, as a source of finance. As per the terms of these deals, since substantial risk and rewards related to these assets were transferred to the buyer, the assets have been derecognised from the Company's balance sheet.

The management has evaluated the impact of assignment transactions done during the year for its business model. Based on the future business plan, the Company business model remains to hold the assets for collecting contractual cash flows. The table below summarises the carrying amount of the derecognised financial assets measured at amortised cost and the gain on derecognition, per type of asset.

Impairment of financial assets

Ind AS 101 provides relaxation from applying the impairment related requirements of Ind AS 109 retrospectively. At the date of transition, it requires an entity to use reasonable and supportable information that is available without undue cost or effort to determine the credit risk at the date that financial instruments were initially recognised and compare that to the credit risk at the date of transition to Ind AS or recognise a loss allowance at an amount equal to lifetime expected credit losses at each reporting date until that financial instrument is de-recognised, if at the date of transition to Ind AS, determination of credit risk involves undue cost or effort. The Company has elected to apply Ind AS 109 prospectively from the date of transition to Ind AS.

Explanations to reconciliations

B.1 Interest income and expense measured using effective interest method

Borrowings

Under Indian GAAP, the transaction costs related to borrowings were recognised upfront on disbursal in the statement of profit and loss. Under Ind AS, such costs are amortised over the contractual term of the borrowing and recognised as interest expense using effective interest method in the statement of profit and loss.

Loans

Under Indian GAAP, origination fees was recognised on cash basis and transaction cost was recognised on accrual basis upfront. Under Ind AS, such fees and costs is amortised over the expected life of the loan assets and recognised as interest income using effective interest method. Under Indian GAAP, interest income on non performing assets (i.e. loans that are 90 days past due) was not accrued. Under Ind AS interest income on such loans are recognised on their net carrying amount.

B.2 Impairment allowance for expected credit loss

Under Indian GAAP, the Company has created provision for loans based on the Guidelines on prudential norms issued by National Housing Bank. Under Ind AS, impairment allowance has been determined based on Expected Loss model (ECL).

B.3 Fair valuation of investment in mutual funds

Under Indian GAAP, investment in mutual funds was carried at lower of cost or net realisable value. Under Ind AS, these investments are measured at FVTPL.

B.4 Recognition of interest only strip receivable on assigned loans

Under Indian GAAP, gain/(loss) on account of assignment deals was recognised as and when due. Under Ind AS, gain/(loss) on account of assignment is recognised on the date of derecognition. Accordingly, Company has created an Interest only strip receivable with corresponding credit to the statement of profit and loss for the year/retained earnings, which has been computed by discounting Excess Interest Spread (EIS) to present value. Necessary adjustment with respect to credit risk has also been made.

B.5 Share based payments

Under Indian GAAP, the Company recognised only the intrinsic value for the share based payments plans as an expense. Ind AS requires the fair value of the stock options to be determined using an appropriate pricing model recognised over the vesting year. An additional expense has been recognised in the statement of profit or loss for the period ended 30 September 2018, 31 March 2019, 31 March 2018 and 31 March 2017. Further on account of above adjustment, an amount of Rs 22.55 million has been referred from retained earnings to ESOP reserve as at 1 April 2018, net impact of such adjustment on equity is nil.

B.6 Lease accounting

Under the Indian GAAP, lease rentals related to operating lease were accounted as expense in the statement of profit and loss. Under Ind AS, lease liability and right of use is recorded at present value of future contractual rent payment on initial date of lease. Subsequently, finance cost is accrued on lease liability and lease payments are recorded by way of reduction in lease liability. ROU is depreciated over lease term.

B.7 Remeasurement of employee benefits

Under the Indian GAAP, actuarial gains / losses on defined benefit obligations were recognised in the statement of profit and loss. Under Ind AS, remeasurements i.e. actuarial gains and losses, excluding amounts included in the net interest expense on the net defined benefit liability are recognised in other comprehensive income instead of the statement of profit and loss.

B.8 Deferred tax

Under the Indian GAAP, deferred tax was accounted as per the income statement approach which required creation of deferred tax asset/ liability on timing differences between taxable income and accounting income. Under Ind AS, deferred tax is accounted as per the balance sheet approach which requires creation of deferred tax asset/ liability on temporary differences between the carrying amount of an asset/ liability in the Balance Sheet and its corresponding tax base. The adjustments in equity and net profit, as discussed above, resulted in additional temporary differences on which deferred taxes are calculated.

B.9 Proposed dividend

In audited financial statements, Proposed dividends till 31 March 2016 were recognised as a liability as an adjusting event occurring after the balance sheet date. For the purpose of Restated Financial Information, dividends declared by board of directors after the report date is considered as non-adjusting events and hence recognised as and when approved by the shareholders.

Explanations to restatement adjustments

B.10 Restatement adjustment relating to direct assignment transaction

In audited financial statements, the Company has done adjustment related to direct assignment transaction prospectively i.e. transactions occurring on or after the date of transition. For the purpose of Restated Ind AS Financial Information, the Company has created an Interest only strip receivable with corresponding credit to the statement of profit and loss for the year/retained earnings, by discounting Excess Interest Spread (EIS) to present value as on 1 April 2016. Necessary adjustment with respect to credit risk has also been made.

B.11 Restatement adjustment relating to Share based payments

In audited financial statements, the Company has availed optional exemption under Ind AS 101 and has not made any adjustments for options vested before the date of transition. For the purpose of Restated Ind AS Financial Information, the Company has done adjustments for options unvested as on 1 April 2016. On account of above adjustment, an amount of Rs. 26.54 millions has been transferred from retained earnings to ESOP reserve as at 1 April 2016.

B.12 Prior period tax

In audited financial statements, tax pertaining to earlier years were accounted based on assessment by Income-tax authorities. For the purpose of the restated Ind AS financial statement, such taxes have been appropriately adjusted in the respective financial year to which they relate.

We have an integrated customer relationship management and loan management system set up on a leading cloud based customer relationship platform providing us with a holistic view of all our customers. We utilize proprietary machine learning customer scoring models to assist us with our centralized credit underwriting process, which has led to consistent and accurate credit evaluation with quick turn around times. During the six months ended September 30, 2019 and the last three financial years, we invested ₹ 146.65 million in our information technology systems (comprising software license fees, technology fees and other intangible assets).

As of September 30, 2019, our Total Borrowings were ₹ 22,956.31 million and we did not have any outstanding debt securities. We typically obtain long-term funding from a variety of sources including private and public sector banks, the NHB and through assignment transactions. According to the CRISIL Report, we had the highest share of NHB refinance (37%) among our peers in our borrowing mix as of March 31, 2019. We have improved our credit ratings from 'CARE A-' as of March 31, 2017 to 'CARE A+' as of September 30, 2019 and also currently have an 'A+ (stable)' rating from ICRA Limited.

Our Company was founded by Jaithirth Rao, P. S. Jayakumar and Manoj Viswanathan and we commenced our operations in August 2010. Significant Factors Affecting our Results of Operations

Our results of operations and financial condition are affected by a number of important factors including:

Availability of Cost Effective Funding Sources

The availability of cost-effective funding sources affects our results of operations. We have historically secured funding from private and public sector banks, the NHB and through assignment transactions. As of September 30, 2019 and March 31, 2019, 2018 and 2017, our Total Borrowings were ₹ 22,956.31 million, ₹ 19,256.41 million, ₹ 10,198.76 million and ₹ 6,630.45 million, respectively, and our average cost of borrowings (excluding assignments) was 4.3%, 8.5% 7.7% and 9.8%, respectively. Our ability to continue to meet customer demand for new loans will depend primarily on our ability to borrow from various external sources on suitable terms and in a timely manner. Our funding sources are varied, as we believe that a diversified debt profile ensures that we are not overly dependent on any one type or source for funding. The availability for funding as well as the overall cost of funds depends on many external factors, including developments in the Indian economy and its credit markets and, in particular, interest rate movements and the existence of adequate liquidity in the debt markets. Internal factors that affect our cost of funds include our credit ratings and available credit limits. See “ - Credit Ratings” on page 295 as well as “Risk Factors – Internal Risk Factors - Any disruption in our sources of funding could have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition” on page 22.

Volatility in Borrowing and Lending Rates

Our results of operations depend substantially on our net interest spread, which is the difference between the interest rates on our interest-earning assets and interest-bearing liabilities. Any change in interest rates would affect our finance costs and our interest income. We offer customers housing loans at variable interest rates and we determine our reference rate from time to time based on market conditions. Our interest income constitutes the largest component of our revenue from operations. For the six months ended September 30, 2019 and the financial years 2019, 2018 and 2017, interest income represented 87.2%, 89.2%, 98.4% and 96.1% of our revenue from operations, respectively.

Our finance costs, which primarily include interest on borrowings represented 64.0%, 61.5% 60.0% and 66.5% of our total expenses for the six months ended September 30, 2019 and the financial years 2019, 2018 and 2017, respectively. Interest rates are sensitive to many factors beyond our control, including the monetary policies of the RBI, deregulation of the financial sector in India and domestic and international economic conditions. Moreover, interest rates in India are typically correlated with the inflation rate, as the inflation rate increases, the RBI has historically sought to raise interest rates. Our results of operations are thus affected by changes in interest rates and our ability to re-price our interest-earning assets accordingly. See “Risk Factors – Internal Risk Factors - We are affected by volatility in interest rates for both our lending and treasury operations, which could cause our net interest income to vary and consequently affect our profitability” on page 23 and “- Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures about Market Risks - Interest Rate Risks” on page 295.

Credit Quality and Provisioning

Our ability to manage the credit quality of our loan portfolio, which we measure in part through non-performing assets, is a key driver of our results of operations. We are required to classify the loans we provide into performing and non-performing assets in accordance with the NHB Directions. Defaults by our customers for a period of more than 90 days result in such loans being classified as “non-performing”. Non-performing assets are also classified into sub-standard, doubtful and loss assets and provisions are made based on criteria stipulated by the NHB Directions. We rely on our credit assessment process to maintain a high-quality loan portfolio and we make provisions over and above the provisions stated in the NHB Directions against all non-performing assets, if in the opinion of our management such provisions are necessary. We consider a financial instrument as defaulted and considered it as Stage 3 (credit-impaired) for expected credit loss calculations in all cases, when the asset becomes more than 90 days past due on its contractual payments. For further details, see “- Statement of Certain Significant Accounting Policies - Financial Instruments - Impairment of financial assets” below.

In addition, on account of our recent growth, a significant portion of our loan portfolio is relatively new and was disbursed during the last 36 months. We believe that the risk of delinquency in home loans typically emerges 18 to 36 months from disbursement. As the number of our loans that become non-performing assets increases, the credit quality of our loan portfolio decreases.

The following table illustrates our non-performing assets for the periods indicated:

Metric	As of
	September 30, 2019	March 31, 2019	March 31, 2018	March 31, 2017
Stage 3 Loan Assets (₹ in million)	268.36	170.45	80.68	57.24
Stage 3 Loan Assets / Gross Loan Assets (%)	0.9%	0.7%	0.6%	0.7%
Stage 3 Loan Assets (Net) (₹ in million)	211.79	128.05	64.18	47.71
Stage 3 Loan Assets (Net) / Net loan assets (%)	0.7%	0.5%	0.5%	0.6%

Further, since the underlying security on our loans is a mortgage over the customers' property, our loan portfolio is exposed to events affecting the real estate sector. A decline in real estate prices, and in turn in the value of the collateral could affect our ability to recover amounts owed to us upon foreclosure. See “Risk Factors – Internal Risk Factors - Our inability to recover the full value of collateral, or amounts outstanding under defaulted loans in a timely manner, or at all, could adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition” on page 25.

Investment in Technology

We are a technology driven company and have built a scalable operating model, which enables us to expand our operations and drive growth in revenue with lower incremental costs. We have established a differentiated technology framework with customized systems and tools, enhancing convenience for our customers as well as increasing operational efficiency. During the six months ended September 30, 2019 and the last three financial years, we invested ₹ 146.65 million in our information technology systems (comprising software license fees, technology fees and other intangible assets). Our information technology systems allow us to leverage economies of scale to increase productivity and reduce turn around times and transaction costs. Our ability to grow our customer base, improve customer experience and increase our revenues will depend, in part, on our ability to leverage technology. We plan to continue to make significant investments in technology to create an end-to-end digital process for housing loans, upgrade and automate our existing systems and enhance our mobility solutions.

Competition in Our Industry

The Indian housing finance industry is characterized by high levels of competition. The factors on which we compete include loan approval rates, interest rates charges for loans, turn around times and customer relationships. We compete with several HFCs and NBFCs in the regions in which we operate and many of our competitors may have better access to, and lower costs of, funding than we do. In certain geographies, our competitors may also have better brand recognition and a larger customer base than ours. If we are unable to access funds at an effective cost that is comparable to, or lower than our competitors, or expand our reach and build our brand, we may lose existing as well as potential customers to competition, resulting in a decline in our market share.

Competition is also increasing as a result of interest rate deregulation and other liberalization measures. Demand for housing finance has increased as a result of a reduction in interest rates, higher incomes and increased financial incentives for customers. Further, technological advances and internet based lending platforms have increased accessibility to housing finance products and services for customers and resulted in an increase in competition. With relatively lesser barriers to entry in the housing finance sector, competition is likely to intensify further as a result of regulatory changes and liberalization.

General Economic Conditions in India

Our results of operations are affected by the general economic conditions prevalent in India. Overall economic growth and an increase in GDP are likely to result in an increase in incomes and spending on housing in India, which may lead to an increase in demand for housing loans. Conversely, a slowdown in the Indian economy could adversely affect our business and our borrowers, especially if such a slowdown were to be continued and prolonged. Several factors beyond our control, such as developments in the Indian economy and domestic employment levels, conditions in the world economy, fluctuations in interest rates, movements in global commodity markets and exchange rates could have either a positive or an adverse impact on the quality of our Gross Loan Assets. The demand for housing loans is also affected by real estate prices and developments in the real estate sector in each of the regions in which we operate. Typically, higher real estate prices are likely to result in lower affordability for buyers. Any trends or events, which have a significant impact on the economic situation in India could have an adverse impact on our business.

Government Policy and Regulations

Our results of operations and continued growth depend on government policies and regulations, including incentives provided to the affordable housing industry such as the Pradhan Mantri Awas Yojana. We are affected by a number of regulations promulgated by the RBI and NHB that regulate, among other things, limits on borrowings, investments and interest rates, asset classification and provisioning for standard and non-standard assets, norms for creation of special reserves as well as minimum capital adequacy requirements. For example, the NHB Directions currently permits HFCs to borrow up to 14 times their net owned funds (“NOF”) until March 31, 2020 and after which this limit shall be further reduced to 13 times of their NOF until March 31, 2021 and subsequently to 12 times of their NOF until March 31, 2022. As of September 30, 2019, we had Total Borrowings of ₹ 22,956.31 million, which was 2.6 times our NOF of ₹ 8,893.03 million. Further, under Ind AS, we compute impairment allowance based on the expected credit loss model. For further details, see “- Statement of Certain Significant Accounting Policies - Financial Instruments - Impairment of financial assets” below.

The regulations applicable to us also address issues such as our conduct with customers and recovery practices, market conduct and foreign investment. Any change in the regulatory framework affecting HFCs, and in particular those requiring us to maintain certain financial ratios, placement restrictions on accessing funds or lending to HFCs, among others, would affect our results of operations and growth.

Further, the NHB Act Amendments have come into force on August 9, 2019, which require HFCs to among others, apply to the RBI for registration under the NHB Act, in place of NHB and authorize the RBI to determine policy and issue instructions in relation to housing finance institutions. See “Risk Factors – Internal Risk Factors - The Indian housing finance industry is extensively regulated and any changes in laws and regulations applicable to HFCs could have an adverse effect on our business” on page 26.

Statement of Certain Significant Accounting Policies

Use of estimates

The preparation of financial information requires our management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of revenues, expenses, assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent liabilities, at the end of the reporting period. Although these estimates are based on our management’s best knowledge of current events and actions, uncertainty about these assumptions and estimates could result in the outcomes requiring a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets or liabilities in future periods. Examples of these estimates include useful lives of property, plant and equipment, expected credit loss allowance, future obligations under employee retirement benefit plans and income taxes. Actual results could differ from these estimates. Any revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which such revisions are made.

Financial Instruments

Financial Assets

Initial recognition and measurement

Financial assets are recognised when we become a party to the contractual provisions of the financial instrument and are measured initially at fair value adjusted for transaction costs, except for those financial assets classified as at fair value through profit and loss (“FVTPL”). Transaction costs directly attributable to the acquisition of financial assets classified as FVTPL are recognised immediately in our statement of profit and loss.

Classification

We classify our financial assets in the following measurement categories:

- those to be measured subsequently at fair value (either through other comprehensive income, or through statement of profit or loss), and
- those measured at amortised cost.

Subsequent measurement

Financial instruments at amortised cost: the financial instrument is measured at the amortised cost if both the following conditions are met:

- the asset is held within a business model whose objective is to hold assets for collecting contractual cash flows, and
- contractual terms of the asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

After initial measurement, such financial assets are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest rate (“EIR”) method. All our debt instruments are measured at amortised cost.

Financial instruments at FVTPL/FVOCI: For assets measured at fair value, gains and losses will either be recorded in our statement of profit and loss or other comprehensive income. Investments in equity instruments are classified as FVTPL unless we irrevocably elect at initial recognition to present subsequent changes in fair value through other comprehensive income for investments in equity instruments which are not held for trading.

Reclassifications within classes of financial assets

A change in the business model would lead to a prospective re-classification of the financial asset and accordingly the measurement principles applicable to the new classification will be applied. During the current financial year and previous accounting period there was no change in the business model under which we hold financial assets and therefore no reclassifications were made.

Impairment of financial assets

The measurement of impairment losses across all categories of financial assets requires judgement, in particular, the estimation of the amount and timing of future cash flows and collateral values when determining impairment losses and the assessment of a significant increase in credit risk. These estimates are driven by a number of factors, changes in which can result in different levels of allowances.

Our expected credit loss (“ECL”) calculations are outputs of complex models with a number of underlying assumptions regarding the choice of variable inputs and their interdependencies.

The measurement of ECL is calculated using three main components:

- probability of default (“PD”);
- loss given default (“LGD”); and
- the exposure at default (“EAD”).

The 12-month ECL is calculated by multiplying the 12-month PD, LGD and the EAD. The 12-month and lifetime PDs represent the PD occurring over the next 12 months and the remaining maturity of the instrument respectively. The EAD represents the expected balance at default, taking into account the repayment of principal and interest from the balance sheet date to the default event together with any expected drawdowns of committed facilities. The LGD represents expected losses on the EAD given the event of default, taking into account, among other attributes, the mitigating effect of collateral value at the time it is expected to be realised and the time value of money.

We apply a three-stage approach to measure ECL on financial assets accounted for at amortised cost and fair value through other comprehensive income (“FVTOCI”). Assets migrate through the following three stages based on the change in credit quality since initial recognition.

We have provided ECL on the undisbursed loan commitments classified under Stage 1.

Stage 1: 12-months ECL

For exposures where there has not been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition and that are not credit impaired upon origination, the portion of the lifetime ECL associated with the probability of default events occurring within the next 12 months is recognised. Exposures with days past due (“DPD”) less than or equal to 29 days are classified as stage 1. We have identified zero bucket and bucket with DPD less than or equal to 29 days as two separate buckets.

Stage 2: Life time ECL - not credit impaired

For credit exposures where there has been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition but that are not credit impaired, a lifetime ECL is recognised. Exposures with DPD equal to 30 days but less than or equal to 89 days are classified as stage 2. At each reporting date, we assess whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk for financial asset since initial recognition by comparing the risk of default occurring over the expected life between the reporting date and the date of initial recognition. We have identified cases with DPD equal to or more than 30 days and less than or equal to 59 days and cases with DPD equal to or more than 60 days and less than or equal to 89 days as two separate buckets.

Stage 3: Lifetime ECL - credit impaired

Financial asset is assessed as credit impaired when one or more events that have a detrimental impact on the estimated future cash flows of that asset have occurred. For financial asset that have become credit impaired, a lifetime ECL is recognised on principal outstanding as at period end. Exposures with DPD equal to or more than 90 days are classified as stage 3.

Exposures are considered to have resulted in a significant increase in credit risk and are moved to Stage 2 when the accounts are overdue for more than 30 days. Accounts that are overdue for 90 days or more are moved to Stage 3.

De-recognition of financial assets

A financial asset is derecognised only when:

- we have transferred the rights to receive cash flows from the financial asset, or
- we retain the contractual rights to receive the cash flows of the financial asset, but assume a contractual obligation to pay the cash flows to one or more recipients.

Where we have transferred an asset, we evaluate whether we have transferred substantially all risks and rewards of ownership of the financial asset. In such cases, the financial asset is derecognised. Where we have not transferred substantially all risks and rewards of ownership of the financial asset, the financial asset is not derecognised.

Where we have neither transferred a financial asset nor retained substantially all risks and rewards of ownership of the financial asset, the financial asset is derecognised if we have not retained control of the financial asset. Where we retain control of the financial asset, the asset is continued to be recognised to the extent of continuing involvement in the financial asset.

On derecognition of a financial asset in its entirety, the difference between the carrying amount (measured at the date of derecognition) and the consideration received (including any new asset obtained less any new liability assumed) shall be recognised in the statement of profit or loss.

On derecognition of a part of financial asset in its entirety, the previous carrying amount of the larger financial asset shall be allocated between the part that continues to be recognised and the part that is derecognised, on the basis of the relative fair values of those parts on the date of the transfer. For this purpose, a retained servicing asset shall be treated as a part that continues to be recognised. The difference between the carrying amount (measured at the date of derecognition) allocated to the part derecognised and the consideration received for the part derecognised (including any new asset obtained less any new liability assumed) shall be recognised in the statement of profit or loss.

Impaired loans and receivables are written off, against the related allowance for loan impairment on completion of our internal processes and when we conclude that there is no longer any realistic prospect of recovery of part or all of the loan. For loans that are individually assessed for impairment, the timing of write off is determined on a case by case basis. A write-off constitutes a de-recognition event. We have a right to apply enforcement activities to recover such written off financial assets. Subsequent recoveries of amounts previously written off are credited to the income statement.

Financial Liability

A financial liability is a contractual obligation to deliver cash or another financial asset or to exchange financial assets or financial liabilities with another entity under conditions that are potentially unfavourable to us or a contract that will or may be settled in our own equity instruments and is a non-derivative contract for which we are or may be obliged to deliver a variable number of our own equity instruments, or a derivative contract over own equity that will or may be settled other than by the exchange of a fixed amount of cash (or another financial asset) for a fixed number of our own equity instruments.

Classification

We classify our financial liability as “Financial liability measured at amortised cost” except for those classified as financial liabilities measured at fair value through profit and loss.

Initial recognition and measurement

Financial liability is recognised initially at cost of acquisition net of transaction costs and incomes that is attributable to the acquisition of the financial liability. Cost equates the fair value on acquisition.

De-recognition of financial liabilities

We derecognise financial liabilities when, and only when, our obligations are discharged, cancelled or have expired. The difference between the carrying amount of the financial liability derecognised and the consideration paid and payable is recognised in the statement of profit or loss.

Fair value of financial instruments

The fair value of financial instruments is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction in the principal (or most advantageous) market at the measurement date under current market conditions (i.e., an exit price) regardless of whether that price is directly observable or estimated using another valuation technique. When the fair values of financial assets and financial liabilities cannot be derived from active markets, they are determined using a variety of valuation techniques that include the use of valuation models. The inputs to these models are taken from observable markets where possible, but where this is not feasible, estimation is required in establishing fair values. Judgements and estimates include considerations of liquidity and model inputs related to items such as credit risk (both own and counterparty), funding value adjustments, correlation and volatility.

Offsetting financial instruments

Financial assets and liabilities are offset and the net amount is reported in the balance sheet where there is a legally enforceable right to offset the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis or realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously. The legally enforceable right must not be contingent on future events and must be enforceable in the normal course of business and in the event of default, insolvency or bankruptcy of the Company or the counterparty.

Property, plant and equipment and other intangible assets and depreciation /amortisation

Property, plant and equipment and intangible assets are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation, amortisation and impairment losses. Cost includes purchase price, inward freight, taxes and expenses incidental to acquisition and installation, up to the point the asset is ready for its intended use.

Cost of property, plant and equipment and intangible assets not ready for their intended use before such date is disclosed under capital work-in-progress.

Depreciation in respect of assets is provided on the straight-line method as per the over the useful life of the assets. We have used the following useful lives to provide depreciation /amortisation on its property, plant and equipment and intangible asset:

Property Plant and Equipment	Years
Furniture and fixtures	10
Office equipment	5
Computers	3
Leasehold improvements	Over the lease period
Intangible Assets
Computer software	3
Licenses	3
Scoring algorithm	3

Property, plant and equipment purchased or sold during the year are depreciated on a pro-rata basis.

Revenue Recognition

Interest Income

Interest income is recorded using the EIR method. EIR is the rate that exactly discounts the estimated future cash flows over the expected life of the financial instrument or a shorter year, where appropriate, to the gross carrying amount of the financial asset. The calculation takes into account all contractual terms of the financial instrument (for example, prepayment options) and includes any fees or incremental costs that are directly attributable and are an integral part of the EIR, but not future credit losses. We calculate interest income by applying the EIR to the gross carrying amount of financial assets other than credit-impaired assets. When a financial asset becomes credit-impaired and is, therefore, regarded as 'Stage 3', we calculate interest income by applying the effective interest rate to the net amortised cost of the financial asset (gross value less ECL provision). If the financial assets cures and is no longer credit-impaired, we revert to calculating interest income on a gross basis.

Fee and Other Revenue

Project appraisal fees and other ancillary fees is recognised on the basis of actual receipt. Display income is accounted on accrual basis.

Dividend Income

Dividend are recognised in the statement of profit and loss only when the right to receive payment is established, it is probable that the economic benefits associated with the dividend will flow to us, and the amount of the dividend can be measured reliably.

Taxes on Income

Income tax expense comprises current tax expenses and net change in the deferred tax assets or liabilities during the year. Current and deferred taxes are recognised in the statement of profit and loss, except when they relate to item that are recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, in which case, the current and deferred tax are also recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity respectively.

The income tax expense or credit for the period is the tax payable on the current period's taxable income based on the applicable income tax rate adjusted by changes in deferred tax assets and liabilities attributable to temporary differences and to unused tax losses.

The current income tax charge is calculated on the basis of the tax laws enacted or substantively enacted at the end of the reporting period.

Deferred income tax is recognised using balance sheet approach. Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are recognised for deductible and taxable temporary differences arising between the tax base of an assets and liabilities and their carrying amount in the financial statements, except when the deferred income tax arises from the initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and affects neither accounting nor taxable profit or loss at the time of recognition.

Deferred tax asset is recognised to the extent that sufficient taxable profit will be available against which the deductible temporary differences and the carry forward of unused tax credits and unused tax losses can be utilised. Deferred income tax is determined using tax rates (and laws) that have been enacted or substantially enacted by the end of the reporting period and are expected to apply when the related deferred income tax asset is realised or the deferred income tax liability is settled. The carrying amount of deferred tax assets are reviewed at each reporting date and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow or part of deferred income tax assets to be utilised. At each reporting date, we re-assess unrecognised deferred tax assets. We recognise unrecognised deferred tax asset to the extent that it has become reasonably certain, as the case may be, that sufficient future taxable income will be available against which such deferred tax assets can be realised.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to offset current tax assets and liabilities and when the deferred tax balances relate to the same taxation authority. Current tax assets and tax liabilities are offset where the entity has a legally enforceable right to offset and intends either to settle on a net basis, or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

Deferred tax assets include Minimum Alternate Tax ("MAT") paid in accordance with the tax laws in India, which is likely to give future economic benefit in the form of availability of setoff against future income tax liability. Accordingly, MAT is recognised as deferred tax assets in the balance sheet when the assets can be measured reliably and it is probable that the future economic benefit associated with the asset will be realised.

Leases: Company as a Lessee

Our leased assets primarily consist of leases for buildings. We assess whether a contract contains lease, at inception of a contract. A contract is, or contains, a lease if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration. To assess whether a contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset, we assess whether:

- the contract involves the use of an identified asset;
- we have substantially all of the economic benefits from use of the asset through the period of the lease; and
- we have the right to direct the use of the asset.

At the date of commencement of the lease, we recognise a right-of-use asset and a corresponding lease liability for all lease arrangements in which it is a lessee, except for leases with a lease term of twelve months or less (short-term leases) and low value leases.

For these short-term and low value leases, we recognise the lease payments as an operating expense on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease.

The right-of-use assets are initially recognised at cost, which comprises the initial amount of the lease liability adjusted for any lease payments made at or prior to the commencement date of the lease plus any initial direct costs less any lease incentives. They are subsequently measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses.

Right-of-use assets are depreciated from the commencement date on a straight-line basis over the shorter of the lease term and useful life of the underlying asset.

The lease liability is initially measured at the present value of the fixed lease payments including variable lease payments that depend on an index or a rate. The lease payments are discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease or, if not readily determinable, using our incremental borrowing rate.

Lease liability and right-of-use asset have been separately presented in the balance sheet and lease payments have been classified as financing cash flows.

Impairment of Non-financial Assets

The carrying amount of the non-financial assets are reviewed at each balance sheet date if there is any indication of impairment based on internal or external factors. An impairment loss is recognised whenever the carrying amount of an asset or a cash generating unit exceeds its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount of the assets (or where applicable, that of the cash generating unit to which the asset belongs) is estimated as the higher of its net selling price and its value in use. Impairment loss is recognised in the statement of profit and loss.

After impairment, depreciation/ amortisation is provided on the revised carrying amount of the asset over its remaining useful life.

A previously recognised impairment loss is increased or reversed depending on changes in circumstances. However, the carrying value after reversal is not increased beyond the carrying value that would have prevailed by charging usual depreciation/ amortisation if there were no impairment.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For the purpose of presentation in the statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents includes cash on hand, deposits held at call with financial institutions, other short-term, highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

Provisions, Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets

A provision is recognised when we have a present obligation as a result of past events and it is probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation, in respect of which a reliable estimate can be made. Provisions are measured at the present value of management's best estimate of the expenditure required to settle the present obligation at the end of the reporting period. The discount rate used to determine the present value is a pre-tax rate that reflects the current market assessments of time value of money and the risks specific to the liability. The increase in the provision due to passage of time is recognised as interest expense. The provisions are reviewed at each balance sheet date and adjusted to reflect the current management estimates.

Contingent liabilities are disclosed in respect of possible obligations that arise from past events, whose existence would be confirmed by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within our control.

Contingent assets are not recognised in our financial statements. However, it is disclosed only when an inflow of economic benefits is probable.

Employee Benefits

Short-term employee benefits: All employee benefits, which are due within twelve months of rendering the services are classified as short term employee benefits. Benefits such as salaries, wages, short-term compensated absences, and the expected cost of bonus, ex-gratia are recognised in the period in which the employee renders the related service. All short-term employee benefits are accounted on undiscounted basis during the accounting year based on services rendered by employees.

Post-employment Benefits

We make contributions to statutory provident fund in accordance with Employees Provident Fund and Miscellaneous Provisions Act, 1952 which is a defined contribution plan and contribution paid or payable is recognised as an expense in the year in which services are rendered by the employees.

Our gratuity benefit scheme is an unfunded defined benefit plan. Our obligation in respect of the gratuity benefit scheme is calculated by estimating the amount of future benefit that employees have earned in return for their services in the current and prior periods recognised as a liability at the present value of the defined benefit obligations at the balance sheet date based on an actuarial valuation carried out by an independent actuary using the Projected Unit Credit Method. The discount rates used for determining the present value of the obligations under the defined benefit plan are based on the market yields on government bonds as at the balance sheet date. Actuarial gains or losses on such valuation are recognised immediately in the other comprehensive income.

Critical Estimates and Judgements

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with Ind AS requires estimates and assumptions to be made by our Management that affects the reported amounts of assets and liabilities on the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Differences between actual results and estimates are recognised in the period in which the results are known.

Our management believes that these estimates are prudent and reasonable and are based upon management's best knowledge of current events and actions. Actual results could differ from these estimates and differences between actual results and estimates are recognised in the periods in which the results are known or materialised.

The items below provide an overview of the areas that involved a higher degree of judgement or complexity, and of items, which are more likely to be materially adjusted due to estimates and assumptions turning out to be different than those originally assessed. Examples of such estimates include the useful life of property, plant and equipment, provision for doubtful debts/advances, future obligation in respect of retirement benefit plans, provision for inventory obsolescence and impairment of investments/assets.

Business model assessment

We determine our business model at the level that best reflects how we manage groups of financial assets to achieve our business objective.

We consider the frequency, volume and timing of sales in prior years, the reason for such sales, and our expectations about future sales activity. However, information about sales activity is not considered in isolation, but as part of a holistic assessment of how our stated objective for managing the financial assets is achieved and how cash flows are realised. Therefore, we consider information about past sales in the context of the reasons for those sales, and the conditions that existed at that time as compared to current conditions. Based on this assessment and our future business plans, our management has measured our financial assets at amortised cost as the asset is held within a business model whose objective is to collect contractual cash flows, and the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise to cash flows that are solely payments of principle and interest.

Effective Interest rate method

Our EIR methodology recognises interest income using a rate of return that represents the best estimate of a constant rate of return over the expected behavioural life of loans and recognises the effect of potentially different interest rates charged at various stages and other characteristics of the product life cycle (including prepayments and penalty interest and charges). This estimation, by nature, requires an element of judgement regarding the expected behaviour and life-cycle of the instruments, as well expected changes to our base rate and other fee income/expense that are integral parts of the instrument.

Income Tax

We review at each balance sheet date the carrying amount of deferred tax assets. The factors used in estimates may differ from actual outcome, which could lead to an adjustment to the amounts reported in the standalone financial statements.

Contingencies

Our management has estimated the possible outflow of resources at the end of each annual reporting financial year, if any, in respect of contingencies/claim/litigations against us as it is not possible to predict the outcome of pending matters with accuracy.

Impairment of financial assets

The measurement of impairment losses on loan assets and commitments requires judgement, in estimating the amount and timing of future cash flows and recoverability of collateral values while determining the impairment losses and assessing a significant increase in credit risk. Our ECL calculation is the output of a complex model with a number of underlying assumptions regarding the choice of variable inputs and their interdependencies. Elements of the ECL model that are considered accounting judgements and estimates include:

Our criteria for assessing if there has been a significant increase in credit risk:

- the segmentation of financial assets when their ECL is assessed on a collective basis
- development of ECL model, including the various formulae and the choice of inputs
- selection of forward-looking macroeconomic scenarios and their probability weightings, to derive the economic inputs into the ECL model

The measurement of all expected credit losses for financial assets held at the reporting date are based on historical experience, current conditions and reasonable and supportable forecasts. The measurement of ECL involves increased complexity and judgement, including estimation of PDs, LGD, a range of unbiased future economic scenarios, estimation of expected lives and estimation of EAD and assessing significant increases in credit risk.

Our revenue and expenditure is reported in the following manner:

Financial Year 2018 compared to Financial Year 2017

Our results of operations for the financial year 2018 were particularly driven by the following factors:

- an increase in interest income on our loan portfolio due to the overall growth of our business; and
- a reduction in our average cost of borrowings.

Total Income

Our total income increased by 46.6% to ₹ 1,342.37 million for the financial year 2018 from ₹ 915.78 million for the financial year 2017, primarily due to an increase in revenue from operations.

Revenue from operations. Our revenue from operations increased by 44.2% to ₹ 1,320.92 million for the financial year 2018 from ₹ 915.77 million for the financial year 2017, primarily due to an increase in interest on term loans to ₹ 1,274.47 million for the financial year 2018 from ₹ 851.78 million for the financial year 2017. The increase in interest on term loans was consistent with the increase in our customer base; our Gross Loan Assets were ₹ 13,559.32 million as of March 31, 2018 as compared to ₹ 8,473.16 million as of March 31, 2017.

Other income. Our other income increased to ₹ 21.45 million for the financial year 2018 from ₹ 0.01 million for the financial year 2017 primarily on account of an increase in display income from advertisements displayed at our branches to ₹ 16.70 million for the financial year 2018 from nil for the financial year 2017 and an increase in dividend income on mutual funds to ₹ 4.75 million for the financial year 2018 from nil for the financial year 2017.

Expenses

Finance costs. Our finance cost increased by 22.1% to ₹ 659.64 million for the financial year 2018 from ₹ 540.44 million for the financial year 2017, primarily due to an increase in interest on borrowings to ₹ 642.45 million for the financial year 2018 from ₹ 532.85 million for the financial year 2017 as a result of the increase in the outstanding amount of borrowings over the year to support the growth of our business. However, such increase was partially offset by a reduction in the average cost of our borrowings (excluding assignments) from 9.8% during the financial year 2017 to 7.7% during the financial year 2018.

Impairment on financial instruments. Impairment on financial instruments increased by 65.5% to ₹ 28.74 million for the financial year 2018 from ₹ 17.37 million for the financial year 2017, primarily due to an increase in impairment loss allowance to ₹ 24.63 million for the financial year 2018 from ₹ 17.37 million for the financial year 2017.

Employee benefits expenses. Employee benefits expenses increased by 66.4% to ₹ 249.55 million for the financial year 2018 from ₹ 149.97 million for the financial year 2017, primarily due to an increase in salaries, wages and bonus to ₹ 204.09 million for the financial year 2018 from ₹ 134.64 million for the financial year 2017. The increase in salaries, wages and bonus was due to an increase in our number of employees as a result of growth in our business and annual increments given to our employees. Our number of employees increased to 382 employees as of March 31, 2018 from 200 employees as of March 31, 2017.

Depreciation and amortisation. Our depreciation and amortisation expense increased by 58.4% to ₹ 24.63 million for the financial year 2018 from ₹ 15.55 million for the financial year 2017, primarily due to a corresponding increase in our gross block of right of use building, furniture and fixtures and computers as a result of the increase in the number of our branches.

Other expenses. Our other expenses increased by 54.2% to ₹ 137.11 million for the financial year 2018 from ₹ 88.89 million for the financial year 2017, primarily due to an increase in legal and professional charges to ₹ 38.06 million for the financial year 2018 from ₹ 20.20 million for the financial year 2017, an increase in travelling expense to ₹ 18.38 million for the financial year 2018 from ₹ 10.94 million for the financial year 2017 and an increase in rates and taxes to ₹ 13.34 million for the financial year 2018 from ₹ 4.80 million for the financial year 2017. The increased expenses were incurred to support the growth of our business shown by the increase in our Gross Loan Assets to ₹ 13,559.32 million as of March 31, 2018 as compared to ₹ 8,473.16 million as of March 31, 2017, which also resulted in an increase in our revenue from operations.

Our cash and cash equivalents decreased between March 31, 2019 and September 30, 2019 as well as between March 31, 2017 and March 31, 2018 primarily on account of effective utilization of funds and to improve profitability by reducing the cash on hand with banks. Our cash and cash equivalents increased between March 31, 2018 and March 31, 2019 primarily due to prudential liquidity measures taken by our Company post the liquidity crisis in September 2018 to maintain liquidity on balance sheet to manage borrowing obligations and support business growth.

Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures about Market Risk

In the course of our business, we are exposed to certain financial risks such as credit risk, liquidity risk, interest risk and price risk.

Credit Risk

Credit risk is the risk that we will incur a loss because the counterparty might fail to discharge their contractual obligations. We have a comprehensive framework for monitoring credit quality of our retail and other loans primarily based on number of days past due. Contractual payments by the counterparties are tracked regularly and if required, necessary steps for recovery are taken through regular follow-ups and legal recourse. For further details, see “Risk Factors – Internal Risk Factors – The risk of non-payment or default by borrowers may adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition” on page 23.

Liquidity Risk

Liquidity risk is defined as the risk that we will not be able to settle or meet our obligations on time or at a reasonable price. Liquidity risk arises from obligations on account of financial liabilities - trade payables and other financial liabilities. We manage liquidity risk by maintaining adequate cash reserves and underdrawn credit facilities, by continuously monitoring forecast and actual cash flows, and by matching the maturity profiles of financial assets and liabilities.

The following table summarizes the maturity profile of the undiscounted cash flows of our financial liabilities as of September 30, 2019:

	(₹ in million)
	Within 1 year	1 – 5 years	5 – 10 years	Total
Trade payables	1.71	-	-	1.71
Borrowings (other than debt securities)	4,867.99	15,787.35	2,358.08	23,013.42
Other financial liabilities	385.10	-	-	385.10
Total	5,254.80	15,787.35	2,358.08	23,400.23

For further details, see “Risk Factors – Internal Risk Factors – We may face asset-liability mismatches, which could affect our liquidity and consequently may adversely affect our operations and profitability” on page 24.

Interest Rate Risk

We are subject to interest rate risk, since the rates of loans and borrowing might fluctuate over the tenure of instrument. Interest rates are highly sensitive to several factors, including the monetary policies of the RBI, deregulation of the financial sector in India, domestic and international economic and political conditions, inflation. In order to manage interest rate risk, we seek to optimize borrowing profile between short-term and long-term loans. The liabilities are categorized into various time buckets based on their maturities and our Asset Liability Management Committee review an interest rate sensitivity report periodically for assessment of interest rate risks.

As of September 30, 2019, we had ₹ 20,394.35 million, or 88.8% of our borrowings at variable interest rates, while ₹ 2,561.96 million, or 11.2% of our borrowings were at fixed interest rates.

The following table sets forth the effect that a change of 50 basis points would have on our profit before tax:

	(₹ in million)
	For the six months ended September 30, 2019	For the financial year
		2019	2018	2017
Loans

Decrease by 50 basis points	(131.65)	(107.33)	(65.72)	(39.64)
Borrowings and debt securities

Decrease by 50 basis points	101.97	82.56	42.22	30.42

For further details, see “Risk Factors – Internal Risk Factors – We are affected by volatility in interest rates for both our lending and treasury operations, which could cause our net interest income to vary and consequently affect our profitability” on page 23.

Price Risk

We are exposed to price risk from our investments in mutual funds measured at fair value through profit and loss. The following table sets forth the effect that a change of 50 basis points would have on our profit before tax:

	(₹ in million)
		2019	2018	2017

This phase continued until June 30, 2019. Thereafter, with effect from July 1, 2019, for applications by RIIs through Designated Intermediaries, the then existing process of physical movement of forms from Designated Intermediaries to SCSBs for blocking of funds has been discontinued and RIIs submitting their Application Forms through Designated Intermediaries (other than SCSBs) shall use only the UPI Mechanism with the existing timeline of T+6 days until March 31, 2020 (“UPI Phase II”). Subsequently, the final reduced timeline of T+3 will be made effective using the UPI Mechanism for applications by RIIs (“UPI Phase III”), as may be prescribed by SEBI.

Phased implementation of UPI for Bids by RIBs as per the UPI Circulars

SEBI has issued UPI Circulars in relation to streamlining the process of public issue of equity shares and convertibles by introducing an alternate payment mechanism using UPI. Pursuant to the UPI Circulars, UPI has been introduced in a phased manner as a payment mechanism (in addition to mechanism of blocking funds in the account maintained with SCSBs under the ASBA) for applications by RIBs through intermediaries with the objective to reduce the time duration from public issue closure to listing from six Working Days to up to three Working Days. Considering the time required for making necessary changes to the systems and to ensure complete and smooth transition to the UPI payment mechanism, the UPI Circulars have introduced and implemented the UPI payment mechanism in three phases in the following manner:

- a) Phase I: This phase was applicable from January 1, 2019 until March 31, 2019 or floating of five main board public issues, whichever is later. Subsequently, the timeline for implementation of Phase I was extended until June 30, 2019. Under this phase, a RIB also had the option to submit the ASBA Form with any of the intermediary and use his / her UPI ID for the purpose of blocking of funds. The time duration from public issue closure to listing would continue to be six Working Days.
- b) Phase II: This phase has become applicable from July 1, 2019 and will continue until March 31, 2020. Under this phase, submission of the physical ASBA Form by a RIB through intermediaries to SCSBs for blocking of funds will be discontinued and will be replaced by the UPI payment mechanism. However, the time duration from public issue closure to listing would continue to be six Working Days during this phase. Bids in the Offer will be made under Phase II.
- c) Phase III: The commencement period of Phase III is yet to be notified. In this phase, the time duration from public issue closure to listing would be reduced to be three Working Days.

All SCSBs offering facility of making application in public issues shall also provide facility to make application using UPI. The issuers will be required to appoint one of the SCSBs as a sponsor bank to act as a conduit between the Stock Exchanges and NPCI in order to facilitate collection of requests and / or payment instructions of the RIBs using the UPI.

For further details, refer to the General Information Document available on the websites of the Stock Exchanges and the Book Running Lead Managers.

The Government has from time to time made policy pronouncements on FDI through press notes and press releases. The DPIIT, issued the FDI Policy by way of circular bearing number D/o IPP F. No. 5(1)/2017-FC-1 dated the August 28, 2017, which with effect from August 28, 2017, consolidates and supersedes all previous press notes, press releases and clarifications on FDI issued by the DPIIT that were in force and effect as on August 28, 2017. The Government proposes to update the consolidated circular on FDI Policy once every year and therefore, the FDI Policy will be valid until the DPIIT issues an updated circular. Up to 100% foreign investment under the automatic route is currently permitted in “Other Financial Services”, which refers to financial services activities regulated by financial sector regulators, including the NHB, as notified by the Government of India, subject to conditions specified by the concerned regulator (in our case, the NHB), if any. For details, see “Key Regulations and Policies in India – Foreign Investment in HFCs” on page 155.

The transfer of shares between an Indian resident and a non-resident does not require the prior approval of the RBI, provided that (i) the activities of the investee company are under the automatic route under the FDI Policy and transfer does not attract the provisions of the SEBI Takeover Regulations; (ii) the non-resident shareholding is within the sectoral limits under the FDI Policy; and (iii) the pricing is in accordance with the guidelines prescribed by SEBI and RBI.

As per the existing policy of the Government, OCBs cannot participate in the Offer.
