

India ESG | 9 Feb 2024

INDIA'S ROCKY ROAD TO NET ZERO

- India's commitment to a net zero emission target by 2070 is seeing a flurry of activity in government corridors and corporate boardrooms
- It is time for capital market participants to begin tracking the implications of this commitment, from capex to carbon credits
- Inside: a bird's eye view of the global carbon emission landscape and a study of Indian industry that will be impacted by this transition

Amit Murarka
Darshan Mehta | Jayant Gautam | Manish Divekar